PUBLISHED WITH THE NEW YORK TIMES AND THE WASHINGTON POST

A police photographer taking pictures at the site of the car-bombing Sunday in Johannesburg near the ANC offices. Nine people died.

9 Die in Johannesburg Bomb Blast

By William Claiborne and Paul Taylor Washington Post Service

· - :

NUMBER OF STREET

.. \ 1/2

JOHANNESBURG - A car bomb rocked central Johannesburg near two African National Congress offices on Sunday, 48 hours before the start of South Africa's elections, killing 9 people and wounding 92.

Although the bombing appeared to be intended to disrupt the eleccion and intimidate voters, party leaders across a broad political spectrum condemned it as a "cowardly act" and said it would achieve nothing except to strengthen the determination of most South-

Africans to vote. The bomb, which police estimated weighed 70 to 90 kilograms (155 to 200 pounds), exploded a block from both the national and regional headquarters of the ANC.

Among the victims was an ANC candidate for the regional assembly of the new nonracial Parliament, Susan Keane, who was killed as she was driving to the regional beadquarters for a

The others who died were pedestrians and sidewalk vendors who were near where the bomb blasted a deep crater.

Although both the police and the ANC said they were not yet prepared to pinpoint blame for the attack, suspicion immediately pointed

By David E. Sanger

New York Times Service

TOKYO - As Japan struggled to form a new government over the last two weeks, a long-brewing dispute broke out within its fragile governing coalition over an issue that has also seized the attention of the Clinton administration: If sanctions are imposed on North Korea or a military confrontation develops with it, is Tokyo ready to side fully with the

That question was at the top of Secretary of Defense William J. Perry's agenda when he met Friday with Tsutomu Hata, who is to he formally approved as Japan's prime minister on Monday. Japanese and American officials provided little detail of the discussion, but Mr.

Perry said after the meeting that he was certain

"we would want and we would get full support"

Several American officials have privately expressed their doubts, however, saying the issue is so sensiove in Japan that it could bring down

The arguments over North Korea have quickly come to symbolize a much broader debate touched off by Japan's most powerful debate touched on by Japan's most powerful behind-the-scenes polician, Ichiro Ozawa, over whether Japan is ready to become a "normal nation." In his definition, that would include a willingness to join the United Nations or the United States to peacekeeping and perhaps in assuring regional security.

The Socialists, the biggest party in the coalition, have opposed that initiative, calling it a breach of Japan's "peace constitution," and have objected to any effort to cut off the flow of soon william to SIA billion a year sent from $600 million to $1.6 billion a year sent from Japan to North Korea, most of which comes from Korean-Japanese bving here.

The major concern for the United States is whether it could use its bases in Japan to enforce an embargo or launch military accon against the North in case of hostilities on the

Newsstand Prices

United States?

the shaky government.

U.S. Fear: Tokyo May Balk

In a Showdown on Korea

toward white extremists intent on disrupting the voting, which is expected to propel the

The ANC's president, Nelson Mandela, who appeared subdued as he arrived for a rally in Durban, urged the 100,000 supporters there to "leave the task of maintaining law and order Mr. Mandela returned immediately to Johannesburg, saying he would discuss the attack with President Frederik W. de Klerk.

South Africa's minister of law and order, Hernus Kriel, said in a statement: "Those who by such terrorism have completely missed the bus. Such mindless acts of terrorism will not stop the birth of democracy to South Africa." And Mr. de Klerk's National Party issued a statement urging the police to apprehend those responsible quickly, saying that "South Africa cannot afford this kind of terrorist deed." Several people who said they were witnesses gave reporters and ANC officials varying accounts of events immediately leading up to the blast. They ranged from seeing a white man leaving a white Audi sedan that appeared to be emitting smoke, to observing two white police-men searching a black sedan near the site of the explosion after detaining two black men. Police Colonel Steve Senekal said be could Korean Peninsula. American military and diplomatic officials in Tokyo have been sketching out such scenarios for months, though they have said bttle about it for fear of undermining

Under existing Japanese laws and regula-tions, United States military forces are prohibited from using Japanese aviation fuel, Japanese hospitals or Japanese ammunition in their

Moreover, under the 34-year-old security treaty between the two countries, the United States would not be permitted to run continuous combat operations from their bases bere, and might not be able to use them to enforce an economic embargo against North Korea, American military planners say. Japan's own navy would not be permitted to resupply Amer-

In recent weeks, Japanese officials have gone to some lengths to offer private assurances that if the North Korean situation worsens, laws and rules will quickly be changed. But Ameri-can and some Japanese officials say they fear that the changes could come too late and would he quickly enmeshed in a heated national de-

They say they are with us," said a senior

See TOKYO, Page 6

Japan's government.

ican forces at sea.

operations from bases here.

Kiosk

not confirm any of the reports, but he said two-policemen were on patrol to the immediate vicinity, one of whom was slightly wounded.

Colonel Senekal said there was "no indicadon whatsoever from the patrol" that they were

He said, however, that the bomb exploded to or underneath a white Audi sedan, which was completely destroyed.

The force of the explosion shattered windows

Authorities, fearing another attack, erected coils of razor wire around the ANC headquarters and deployed armored vehicles in the vicinity.

Tokyo Sexwale, ANC regional chairman and the party's candidate to lead the regional legis-

See BLAST, Page 2

in office buildings in a three-block radius.

aware of an imminent explosion.

170 in Hospital Killed in Rwanda

NICOSIA (Reuters) — About 170 peo-ple, mostly patients, in a southern Rwanda hospital were killed Sunday, the latest massacre in the central African country's civil war, a medical aid agency said.

In a report from the neighboring Burundi, given to Reuters in Nicosia, Doctors Without Borders said it was pulling out all its staff in southern Rwanda. Related article, Page 4.

Michael Moorer, the first left-handed world heavyweight champion. Page 15.

Serbs Pull Back Weapons In Face of NATO Threat

By Roger Cohen
New York Times Service

ZAGREB, Croatia — Bosnian Serbian forces, bowing to a NATO ultimatum, retreated Sunday from Gorazde as the United Nations and NATO papered over differences and determined that immediate air strikes against the Serbs were no longer warranted.

The Serbian withdrawal was spotty, interspersed with mortar and sniper fire, and clearly fell short of the conditions set by the North Atlantic Treaty Organization for the Serbs to avoid air strikes. But Yasushi Akashi, the senior UN official here and the man who rebuffed NATO requests to bomb on Saturday, declared that the momentum achieved was satisfactory.

"The situation is not perfect, but the progress is substantial," he said. "If you apply a strict standard you will not he totally satisfied. But the Serbs have moved from refusal, to reluctance, to compliance and now toward full compliance, and you have to consider this."

The Serbs now face a second NATO deadline - the withdrawal of their beavy weapons beyond 20 kilometers (12 miles) from Gorazde by I A.M. GMT on Wednesday. Mr. Akashi said there would be "not much flexibility on that

There have been disappointments in the past in my dealing with the Serbian leadership, but I feel this should not deter me from negotiating," Mr. Akashi said. "I do not have the luxury of using high moral and ethical standards. I have to negotiate to the end, and now I am expecting the Serbs to come up to our expectations to their compliance."

UN peacekeeping forces, comprised chiefly of a Ukrainian company and 14 military observers, deployed Sunday on both banks of the Drina River in Gorazde with a mission to report on compliance with the cease-fire and the extent of the Serbian withdrawal. Their reports suggested a tense but marginally improved situation.

Serbian forces were said to have withdrawn their tanks and big guns beyond a distance of three kilometers from the city center, but some infantry and bight arms remained within this

As they retreated, Mr. Akashi said, the Serbs burned Muslim homes and blew up the town's water-treatment plant. A Bosnian Army mortar hit the town's arms factory, he said.

The continuing acts of violence and the presence of Serbian troops within the three-kilometer radius of the city center were io clear violation of NATO's ultimatum, which said the Serbs would face air strikes if they did not immediately cease their assault on the UNdeclared "safe area" and withdraw their forces beyond 3 kilometers by early Sunday morning, But as at Sarajevo in February, where he chose to exercise restraint although the Serbian withdrawal of heavy weapons was not completed by a NATO deadline, Mr. Akashi again opted for prudence. The presence of UN forces in Gorazde now makes NATO air strikes much more unlikely.

The UN has a plan for massive air assaults around Gorazde . Bomb Serbs' bridges, Moynihan urges in attack on U.S. policy. Page 2.

A major reason for Mr. Akashi's stance is clearly that a NATO assault would pose a direct threat to the more than 16,000 UN personnel in Bosnia. The Serbs have told Mr. Akashi they will be "merciless" toward UN forces to the event of air strikes.

Mr. Akashi's posioon prompted a sharp clash Saturday with Manfred Wörner, the NATO secretary-general, who was io favor of bombing the Serbs when they failed to heed NATO's ultimatum to the letter.

The dispute underscored the difficulty of reconciling an avowedly neutral UN peacekeeping mission with NATO plans to use force in a way that could quickly endanger the peace-

But Sunday the UN and NATO closed ranks. Lieutenant General Bertrand de Lapresle, commander of UN forces in the former Yugoslavia, said in Zagreb that he was in regular contact the NATO commander in charge of air operations over Bosnia, Admiral Leighton W. Smith Jr., and there were no differences of view

We have been talking every day and night and our points of view are in complete accordance," he said.

However, it is clear that NATO and the United Nations here have in fact had great difficulty in reconciling their views.

NATO is eager to prove its credibility, which has been less than convincing over the two years of the Bosnian war and was undermined earlier this month when two pinprick air at-tacks on Gorazde failed to halt the Serbian

But Mr. Akashi and the lieutenant general who commands the UN troops in Bosnia, Sir Michael Rose, are much more concerned about the risk to their personnel and to the faltering quest for a peace settlement. "Nobody is telling us what the next stage would he after an air strike," Mr. Akashi said.

These problems were evident Sunday as the British and French governments, which had endorsed the NATO decision, balked at sending peacekeeping forces into Gorazde to monitor the cease-fire because of the danger they might face.

In the end, UN officials said, a British company did set out from Sarajevo, with a platoon of Russians and a platoon of Egyptians, but the French declined. The forces will join the Ukrainians already to the town.

Mr. Akashi said be was encouraged by the fact that there had been no fire against UN personnel in Gorazde and the evacuation of wounded in six helicopters was proceeding. British and French helicopters evacuating 85 wounded Muslims arrived to Sarajevo Sunday

European Currency Dream Revives

By Tom Buerkle ional Herald Tribune

BRUSSELS - The prospects of a single. European currency later this decade, considered virtually dead just a few months ago in wake of repeated monetary crises, are being taken very seriously once again by politicians and investors.

The newfound optimism is driven by the remarkable stability of exchange rates to Europe since narrow fluctuation limits were abandoned last August, a stability that has endured despite the turmoil in financial markets caused by the recent upsurge in interest rates worldwide, officials and analysts say. With the notable exception of Britain, European governments have continued to peg their policies and currencies to Germany's instead of taking advantage of the lifting of tight exchange-rate limits to slash rates aggressively.

The upshot is that their monetary policy. even reinforced, is now geared sole objective of exchange-rate stability," Heinrich Matthes, the European Commission's deputy director-general for economic and financial affairs, wrote in the latest issue of the German bimonthly Intereconomics. That policy goal has brought inflation and ioterest rates closer together than ever, a key requirement for advancing to economic and mone-

Moreover, early signs of an economic re-covery, though a feeble one, and the slow but forcing the determination of governments to hold the course and are increasing the likelihood of lower budget deficits, another key single-currency criterion.

"It does not look awkward a steady reduction to German rates are rein-envisage a move toward monetary union in 1997 or 1999," the two target dates specified in the Maastricht Treaty on European Union, said Bruno de Maigret, secretary-general of the Association for the Monetary Union of Europe. Graham Bishop, an economist at Salomon

Brothers in London, recently advised clients that there was "a significant probability" of a single currency among some European See CURRENCY, Page 6

Viewing Nixon, at Home and Abroad

By William Pfaff

PARIS - Throughout his political lifetime, Richard Nixon was a figure of bitter controversy and passionate emotion among Americans, and a cause of misunderstanding between Americans and foreigners. The misunderstanding abroad existed among those who admired him as well as those who hated him up until his death of a stroke Friday in a New York City

At the start of his career, his reputation in Europe was generally that of a villain, which he was not. Now he is generally considered abroad to have been a major statesman, and the victim hospital at the age of 81.

of poliocal conspiracy; but that is not true

In his early political career, as a young con-gressman in the 1940s and the beginning of the 1950s, he was visible abroad only in connection with the Alger Hiss case, in the context of that wave of congressional tovestigations of the real and alleged Communist and fellow-traveling. links of officials and prominent persons that today is given the summary, if inexact, designation of "McCarthyism."

NEWS ANALYSIS

In Western Europe, the Communist parties and Soviet propaganda agencies described Mc-

Carthyism as the rise of fascism in America. Mr. Nixon acquired the reputation abroad of a disreputable and dangerous rightist politician. This derived from a misunderstanding both of McCarthyism and of Richard Nixon.

McCarthyism was a revival of an old-fashioned American style of populist zenophobia, in the tradition of the anti-Bolshevik, antianarchist and implicitly anti-Semitic hysteria that followed the First World War, and the anti-immigrant and anti-Catholic movements of the 19th century. It had no connection to fascism. There has never been an American

The difference between Richard Nixon and See NIXON, Page 6

A Political Legacy With Lingering Echo town meetings." He nurtured the Republican

By David S. Broder and Thomas B. Edsall

WASHINGTON - In his long lifetime,

Richard Nixon changed campaigning, changed the fundamental geography and demography of American politics, changed the Republican Party and changed the nature of the relationships between the legislative and executive branches of government and between the American people and their president.

He was responsible, among other things, for making both communism and crime central issues. He sanctioned the first televised presidential debates and starred to the first televised

"Southern strategy" and played a crucial role in shifting the center of power in that party from Eastern progressives to Western conservatives. He brought the Republican Party back from the verge of extinction in the mid-1960s and plunged it into crisis in the mid-1970s, As a byproduct of his Watergate downfall, a new generation of Democratic legislators demol-ished the old power structure on Capitol Hill while prodding Congress to assert its powers.

Richard Milhous Nixon, the most prezzling and fascinating politician of his time. Page 7.

Thousands of today's pobtical figures, from Dan Quayle to Bill and Hillary Clinton, cut their policial teeth working for or against Mr. All this and more is part of the political legacy of the man who died late Friday at the age of Sl. Knowing that he had neither the personality nor the appearance that would bring easy political success, Mr. Nixon developed a tactical intelligence about politics that - even in his post-White House years — made him a mentor to scores of ambitious younger Republicans. He was one of the first politicians in the

See LEGACY, Page 6

Investor in Moscow Circus With No Net

MOSCOW — Some months ago, the peo-ple who run the famed Moscow Circus soured on a contract they had signed with an Ameri-can firm to spruce up their concession and souvenir stands. So, with the help of Moscow's mayor, they set out to break the con-

The resulting imbroglio, which reached a climax a week ago when the American manager fled Moscow in fear, features allegations extortion and harassment, the wooing of Russia's best-loved clown and swooping raids by Russia's State Economic Crime Unit, which impounded cotton-candy ma-

A key figure in the partnership was shot in a contract murder last August, a crime that was apparently unrelated to the joint venture but had dire consequences for it.

The ugly dispute comes at a time when many American business executives feel that a rapacious Russian government would rather soak foreign iovestors than welcome them. At the same time, it demonstrates rising Rusbusinesses that are only - the phrase is spat ont like an insult - "here to make a profit."

It also demonstrates, according to the American partner in the failed circus marriage, the weakness of the rule of law here. To end an agreement it thought unfair, the Mos-cow Circus liquidated itself as a "leaseholding company," reconsortated itself as a "limit-ed company" — and declared the contract the U.S. partner io the venture, "and then say, "Thank you very much, now please go

Maxim Nikulin, 38, son and deputy of the circus's legendary director, said in an interview. "But this contract was unjust, unfair." See CIRCUS, Page 4

Meanwhile, ferry companies are going all out to capture their market share and build up a war chest to fight the tunnel when it opens. One promotion during slack winter months was to

The Bridge Beneath the Water fill otherwise empty ferries by charging only £1

By Barry James

CALAIS, France - Even before its inauguration by Queen Elizabeth II and President François Mitterrand on May 6, the Channel Tunnel is chipping away at the indifference with which English and French regard each other across the Strait of Do-

The $15 billion tunnel now stands completed but idle as engineers one but idle as engineers carry out thousands of operational and safety checks. Already a year late, the Eurotunnel consortium will start building up freight and passenger services soon but full operations are still many months away.

($1.50) for a round-trip. It means that residents in East Kent and northern France have been traveling back and forth by the tens of thou-sands, getting to know one another's shops, restaurants and babits. The cliffs of Dover hover tantalizingly white on the horizon, yet until recently, many French people had never bothered to venture into the land of what they call the resbifs. Now they come back laden with clothes, door knockers, wallpaper, and even — baguettes beware — English sliced bread. Most Britons come to Calais with one thing in mind: They stock up on duty-free liquor on the ferry and can buy virtually as much beer and wine as they like in France at prices much lower than those at home.

Under European Union single market rules. EU residents are entitled to import as much liquor as they like for "personal use" provided

See CHUNNEL, Page 4

Andorro .....9.00 FF Luxembourg 60 L. Fr

By Fred Hiatt

chines for allegedly undersized portions.

Beyond the salacious details, the case says much about the disenchantment that has grown between Russia and the United States since their romantic flirtations of two years ago. "When the history of the third world war is written," the circus director and former clown, Yuri Nikulin, is said to have re-marked, "it will be remembered that America's capture of Russia began from the Moscow Circus."

sian resentment of the West and of Western

"They simply wanted to take the time and money and effort and tangible property we put into the place," said David Chambers, deputy general counsel of Delaware North, away."

"A contract was signed. This is a fact,"

By Rick Atkinson Washington Past Service

NAPLES - The North Atlantic Treaty Organization has developed a detailed plan for massive air strikes around Gorazde in an effort to crush Bosnian Serbian military units and force the Serbian leadership back to the bargaining table. military sources said Sunday.

The air attacks, which would target at least two-dozen ammunition storage sites, fuel dumps, command bunkers and gun emplace-ments within a 20-kilometer (12mile) radius around Gorazde, could be launched immediately if Serbian forces resumed their shelling of the battered city, the sources

"The idea," an official said, would be to make it something the Serbs would oever, ever, ever want to experience again."

Such an intense and protracted bombing campaign, which could last over the course of several days, would mark a dramatic escalation from the pinprick, tit-for-tat at-tacks launched on April 10 and 11 in support of besieged United Na-tions forces in Gorazde.

NATO officials said Sunday that simply the threat of such wholesale bombing which would require ap-proval from senior UN officials, may have contributed to the Serbs' pullback from the outskirts of Gor-

Nevertheless, NATO planners recognize several potential pitfalls in broadening the air attacks, including the prospect that Serbian soldiers could retaliate against the 13,000 UN troops in Bosnia and the difficulty — demonstrated in Vietnam and elsewhere — of forcing a recalcitrant enemy to oegotiate by bombing him into submis-

NATO's highest authority, the North Atlantic Council, agreed Friday to authorize air attacks unless Serbian forces immediately halted their bombardment of Gor-azde and withdrew all heavy weapons from a "military exclusion rain is mountainous and forested, affording opportunities for confrom the town's center, by Wednesday morning beeo developed by Lieutenant sands of photographs of Serbian General Joseph W. Ashy, compositions, some potential targets, mander of NATO air forces in such as artillery pieces, are highly southern Europe, and his staff. mobile and could be difficult to General Ashy has nearly 200 find.

NATO combat planes and support aircraft available at bases in Italy, France, Germany, Britain and aboard three carriers in the Adriat-

In recent months, that air fleet has been beefed up with ground attack planes such as the U.S. Air Force F-15E, which is capable of launching precision-guided muni-

The massive attack envisioned in the current NATO plan reflects the philosophy of Admiral Leighton W. Smith, Jr., NATO commander in southern Europe, that overwhelming force is more likely to achieve the desired political results than tentative, limited strikes, according to NATO sources. The sources said that philosophy was shared by Admiral Smith's recently departed predecessor in Naples, Admiral Jeremy M. Boorda.

Similar sweeping attacks have been drafted, if needed, to ensure the security of Bihac, Srebrenica, Tuzla and Zepa, other UN-desig-nated "safe areas" where NATO has demanded the withdrawal of heavy Serb weapons within a 20kilometer radius, according to mili-

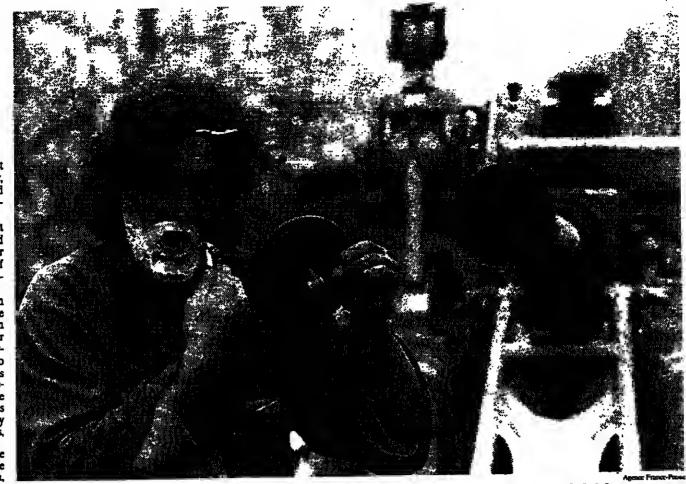

But if it came to pass around Gorazde and it worked, there wouldn't be a need to do it anywhere else," an officer said. Although Serbian anti-aircraft mers demonstrated their ability to shoot down NATO jets last week by destroying a British Sea Harrier over Gorazde with a surface-to-air missile, NATO planners hope that a broad air campaign could be conducted with minimal losses.

In contrast to the close air support offered thus far, the intense attacks envisioned under the current plan would oot require vilots to fly "up close and personal," as Admiral Smith recently put it, in coordinating their strikes with UN forward air cootrollers.

Yet the challenges of eviscerating Serbian forces within the exclusion zones around the safe areas are still formidable, Much of the tercealment 10 forces particularly adept at camouflage.

NATO's plan for attacking Serbian targets around Gorazde has Although reconnaissance aircraft and satellites have taken thou-

A Serbian gunner taking advantage of a break in the fighting Sunday at Gorazde as the Serbs began pulling back their heavy weapons.

Pullback Follows Russia's About-Face

By Michael Specter

New York Times Service

MOSCOW — In a diplomatic about-face, Russia dropped all objections to NATO's threat to bomb the Bosnian Serbs around Gorazde, and a few hours later the Serbs announced that a retreat had begun. The Bosnian Serbs' military command has criminally defied the elementary corms of hu-manity," Foreign Minister Andrei V. Kozyrev told the Interfax News Agency. "The only alter-native to air strikes is compliance by the Bosnian Serbs with their commitments."

Serbian leaders appeared to be complying Sunday with the North Atlantic Treaty Organization ultimatum to pull back troops and weap-

For the Russians, who have struggled to play an essential role in efforts toward peace in Bosnia, the retreat will be seen as a triumph. Nothing else, ocither threats nor diplomacy,

On Friday, Mr. Kozyrev warned NATO oot to consider air strikes against the Serbs and threatened to withdraw the 800 Russian peace-

The reversal underlines the juggling act Russian diplomats have performed for two years. Russia has always had strong ties to the Serbs and now, as Russia becomes visibly more nationalistic, it has tried to avoid jeopardizing those ties. Nor can the government afford to anger centrists and rightists in Parliament.

On the other hand, President Boris N. Yeltsin does not want to alienate the West.

At times, the balance has been impossible to maintain. Even Saturday, as Mr. Kozyrev was denouncing the Serbs, his ambassador to the United Nations, Yuli M. Vorontsov said the UN decision to extend its bombing threat be-stopped the shelling, so the conclusion that the Russians' statement was influential is hard to yound Gorazde to all other UN "safe areas" was unnecessary.

Mr. Kozyrev's fierce new position, so differ-ent from ones he has held, also shows a split between the conservative Defense Ministry and the Western-leaning Foreign Ministry.

As soon as he and his special envoy for the Bosnian region, Vitali I. Churkin, realized that their diplomatic effort was not taken seriously by the Serbs, both men began to denounce them. The Defense Ministry, on the other hand, argued that opposition to the Serbs was oot

The newspaper Izvestia, however, said Saturday in an editorial, "Our professional patriots always talk about "special relations with Ser-

of everything the Serbs do, even if they commit a crime?" "What does that mean?" it added. "Approval

A New Way of Looking at Geneva GENEVA (Reuters) - The landscape of Geneva found itself transformed on Sunday by 100 small white staircases erected by a British

WORLD BRIEFS

LONDON (Reuters) - President Boris N. Yeltsın, in memoirs to be published next month, has revealed that his top generals defied him and his clite special forces units refused orders last October during the showdown with hard-liners in Moscow.

Only the killing of a special forces officer by a stray bullet persuaded the other members of the elite units to follow orders and storm the the other members of the elite units to follow orders and storm the parliament building, according to extracts from the book "The View From the Kremlin," extracts of which were published in The Sunday

Mr. Yeltsin's account confirmed that he came close to losing power last October because of resistance by the army to his orders. "The country was truly hanging by a thread," he wrote. Although there were reports of military hesitation soon after the October crisis, Mr. Yeltsin's account makes clear that the resistance to his orders went much further than he

CAIRO (Reuters) - PLO and Israeli negotiators began what may be

The chief PLO negotiator, Nabil Shaath, said that if all went well,

Chairman Yasser Arafat and Foreign Minister Shimon Peres could come to Cairo later in the week to prepare for a signing ceremony next week. Mr. Arafat and Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin are expected to sign the agreement in Cairo, crowning five months of work on practical details of the self-rule plan Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization signed in Washington last September.

"We are beginning discussions today for a possible meeting on Thursday between Peres and Arafat, boping that the signature on the agreement will take place on the third, fourth or fifth of May," Economics

Rightist Poised to Win in El Salvador

SAN SALVADOR (WP) — The rightist presidential candidate Armando Calderón Sol appeared headed to a resounding victory Sunday io the first peactime elections in El Salvador in 64 years.

A national poll made public Saturday night predicted that Mr. Calderon, of the Nationalist Republican Alliance, would receive about 70 percent of the vote. The poll predicted that Rubén Zamora, the candidate of a three-party leftist coalition, would receive about 30 percent.

Voter turnout, with rainstorms in the afternoon, appeared light Sunday. In the first round of presidential elections, held March 20, Mr.

TRAVEL UPDATE

Calderon obtained 49 percent of the vote, just short of the occessary majority. Mr. Zamora received 25 percent.

Minister Shimon Shetreet said in Jerusalem.

the last week of talks on Sunday before they sign an agreement on Israeli withdrawal and Palestinian self-rule in the Gaza Strip and the West Bank town of Jericho.

Israel and PLO Starting Final Stage

Generals Defied Him, Yeltsin Says

filmmaker to offer the city a new perspective on itself.

At sites around the Old Town and on the shores of Geneva's lake, residents and visitors stood in line to climb up and squint through tiny peepholes at views many had seen thousands of times, yet had never

The 100-day exhibition, "Stairs," is the idea of the Peter Greenaway, whose films such as "The Draughtsman's Contract" and "Drowning by Numbers" have bemused audiences for over a decade. Mr. Greenaway said that he had tried to express his exasperation over the confines of cinema, where the image is too rigidly framed in time and space. The exhibition, with the andience and actors merging into one, was a kind of movie in itself, be said.

Trans World Airlines said it would stop offering direct flights from New York's John F. Kennedy International Airport to Berlin and Munich on July I because of relocation of aircraft for the airline's new nonstop service to Vienna and additional service to Rome.

Zimbabwe has suspended outpatient and prenatal services at major hospitals as a strike for raises by junior doctors spread. Central Europe's biggest bird sanctuary was opened Sunday, marking a victory for conservationists who campaigned to protect the area around Lake Neusiedl. Almost half the park's 14,000 hectares (35,000 acres) lies in Hungary, while the rest is on the Austrian side of the border. (AFP)

This Week's Holidays

Banking and government offices will be closed or services curtailed in the following countries and their dependencies this week because of national and religious holidays: MONDAY: Australia, Egypt, Italy, Macao, New Zealand, Nicaragua, Portugal, TUESDAY: Afghanistan, Tanzania.

WEDNESDAY: Sierra Leone, Slovenia, Togo.

FRIDAY: Cyprus, Denmark, Ethiopia, Greece, Japan, Lebanon, Sierra Leone. SATURDAY: Netherlands, Zaire.

Sources: J.P. Morgan, Reuters.

THE

(ong Action Of Air

Future Dark

For Teenage

Marie Control

gos managers in the

To acres 18 and Military to the military mater and

25% TF

1572

HITTOC . T.

08:1:

42 Dec 12

77.77

n 51 ....

物的品面。

Parameter Services 12 / 12 mg - + 1

Q. 17 4--

100 (0.00 ---

BE (1-2

Region :- ..

Average

contact ....

m' den ses ses ...

C2. ...

State of the second red organization and the

Cuba Eases R

or Exiles in 10 Improve 7

A Paul Survey Procession

August and the

 $\operatorname{tag}(\mathcal{W}_{\operatorname{TA}^{n-1}(\mathbb{Z}^n)})$

Sp27, 194, 419-12

Mar Town

Bomb Serbs' Bridges, Moynihan Urges aggression by the Serbs that is lack of enthusiasm for the presi"criminal," he added, "It's genodent's policy but disagreement as have a bridge left on the Danube.

By Kathy Sawyer

WASHINGTON - The administratioo's policy in Bosnia came under blistering assault by a prominent Democrat on Sunday as Senator Daniel Patrick Moynihan called for the immediate lifting of the UN arms embargo against the former Yugoslavia and the bombing of Serb bridges on the Danube River.

"We are in the process of shred-ding the entire legal order we put into place at the end of World War II," the New York Democrat said in an angry appearance on an ABC news program. He called for the embarge Bosnian Muslims to be lifted "absolutely, unilaterally and immedi-It should not be necessary for the United States itself to go to war in Bosnia, he said. "We should Bill Clinton to adopt a more activgive the Bosnians the chance to ist approach. A debate on the issue defend themselves" in the face of in the Senate last week showed a

He said the Serbs had "invaded another country, a member of the United Nations, in violation of the charter." Then they have specifically associated themselves with genocide, in violation of the genocide treaty, of which we are a member, and is our law, and in Gorazde, the fourth Geneva convention on the treatment of civilians during war-The Serhs leaders, he said, should be tried as war criminals.

tial member of the Foreign Relations Committee could foreshadow a move hy the Democratic-led Congress to try to force President to whether the United States should become more deeply involved in the conflict.

Mr. Moynihan disputed administration claims that the United States did oot have the right to lift the arms embargo without UN approval. Noting that he had served as president of the UN Security Council, he said the current dilemma "was specifically contemplated as a problem when the charter was drafted at Dumbarton Oaks, about 15 blocks from here, and that is why Article 51 says "nothing in this arter shall interfere with the inherent right of individual or collective self-defense."

"It's a question of law," he said. "We have the inherent right under Article 51 to lift the embargo." Asked whether he would favor was an "explicit UN resolution" to bombing Belgrade, the capital of the city." Mr. Moynihan at one point apol-ogized for his barely controlled outrage, commenting to the program host. David Brinkley, "May-be I should calm down here." His vehemence contrasted starkly with the earlier appearance on the same broadcast of Secretary of State Warren M. Christopher. Appearing unperturbed and cautiously optimistic about the Bosnian situatioo, he said the NATO ultimatum issued Friday "seemed

He restated the administration position that Washington did not have the right to lift the arms embargo on its own, noting that there apply the embargo to Bosnia.

Italy Parliament Speaker Draws Fire For Her Praise of a Mussolini Policy

The Associated Press

SAN DIEGO - World War II American paratroops won a go-ahead to comme rate the 50th anniversary of D-Day by making their jumps all OVER BEBIR.

WWII Troops

In Normandy

To Jump Again

About 33 members of the Return to Normandy Association will be allowed to jump at the conclusion of an elaborate ceremony in France on June 5, Lieutenant Colooel Alfred Lott said at the Pentagon.

"We are all excited and pleased that the Pentagon has finally hlessed us to do it," said Max Gurney, a sergeant during the war. "We will jump right after the young ones."

For liability reasons, the Pentagoo was reluctant to bave the vets join young troops. It demanded the older men, all in their late 60s to mid-80s, practice first. They did in February. After two days of retraining, the 33 men suited up and jumped at 3,000 feet (about 1,000 meters), landing safety in a muddy San Diego field.

ROME — The new leader of the needed a history lesson. lower house of Parliament, Irene Pivetti, was facing a flood of criticism Sunday for perceived anti-Semitic and pro-fascist remarks.

With her election to that post this month, Miss Pivetti, 31, a member of the federalist Northern League, became the youngest par-liamentary speaker in Italy since World War II.

But her first week in the post was called a "disaster" by La Repubblica newspaper after scathing criti-cism from Roman Catholics, Jews

The latest furor erupted over an interview that Miss Pivetti, a conservative Roman Catholic, gave to the weekly Italia Settimanale, in which she voiced admiration for the policies toward women of the Fascist dictator Benito Mussolini.

While Miss Pivetti said she did not support fascism, she said she "could see all the good things fas-cism did for Italy." "Mussolini had the most advanced policy toward women and nothing was done after him in those areas," she said.

resistance fighter, said Miss Pivetti "If fascism, whose 'good things' she praises, had had its way we wouldn't even have a Parliament," Miss Anselmi said. Under fascism, womeo were banned from most high-level jobs and had no right to vote. They received state aid for having several "Everyooe knows Mussolini's family policies were based on the very dictates of war," said Beppe Del Colle, a commentator on Catholic affairs. The family was simply understood as the factory of the foture fighters of an imperial Italy," he Miss Pivetti has said her remarks

"referred to the prewar social reali-ty in Italy" and were taken out of But they added to concern over the politics of the rightist Freedom Alliance led by the media magnate Silvio Berlusconi, which won last month's general elections. Its main partners include the Northern League and the neo-fascist National Alliance, whose lead-Gianfranco Fini, last month Tina Anselmi, a former Christian Democrat and World War II statesman of the century. called Mussolini "the greatest

Miss Pivetti, a former journalist, has been a member of Parliament since 1992.

Her critics regard her as a religious radical whose comments have bordered on the anti-Semitic. Some of ber remarks were cited last year by the World Jewish Council in a report on anti-Semitism.

"I think it's time the world knew about Irene Pivetti," said Tullia Zevi, president of Italy's Union of Jewish Communities. "I would call her a fundamentalist Catholie whose views on the church's dia-logue with Judaism and other reh gions are out of date."

Mrs. Zevi recalled Miss Pivetti's disagreement with Pope John Paul II when he proclaimed Jews the elder brothers" of Christians

"Pivetti's comment was: 'I don't see why people who belong to a false religion should be considered our elder brothers," she said. Miss Pivetti has defended herself hy saying that no good Catholic denies his religion is the one true

The Anti- Defamation League B'nai B'rith said Miss Pivetti's views predated the 1965 Second Vatican Council, when the Vatican repudiated the notion of collective Jewish guilt for the crucifixion.

800-1114-0

BLAST: Bomb in Johannesburg

Within the first hour after the explosion at 9:50 A.M., people lature, said that there had been were filling out applications for voter identification cards at the Central Methodist Church, just

lots of threats" during the final days of campaigning but that no one telephoned a warning before Anthorities said no groups had taken responsibility for the attack. Mr. Sexwale, in a news conference, called on ANC supporters to remain calm in the face of what he called "this cowardly action intended to frighten away voters."

He said there was not enough information to suggest who was responsible, but stressed that the motive was "clearly intended to send indications of negativity through-out the country and abroad so people will he discouraged about democracy in South Africa." Mr. Sexwale sought to reassure voters who might be afraid to go to election stations Wednesday and Thursday because of the bombings, saying that there would be "lots of protection" from security forces, the Independent Electoral Comion and international observ-

But in fact, even though there was a series of about 40 bombings in January and February attributed to rightists, large-scale car bombings are unusual in South Africa. While Mr. Mandela concentrat-

three blocks away. "It's part of life here," said Kenneth Beja, 25, as he waited for his card. "I'm not scared. I'm going to vote."

ed on the Natal stronghold of the Zulu-based Inkatha Freedom Party, meanwhile, the Inkatha presint, Chief Mangosuthu Buthelezi, held his first and only rally in Soweto, the giant township south of here where the ANC is expecting to win more than 80 percent of the

As about 8,000 supporters chanted, Chief Buthelezi hlasted the ANC for "unrealistically and unfairly" raising the expectations ius ask the butler.. Sheraton Towers te is anything you want it to be.

To call from country to country, or back to the U.S., dial the WorldPhone number of the country you're calling from.

5-1-N-G-A-P-O-R-E NATIONAL SCOTTS NOW TRACKING UIL:

Austria (CC)+ Bahamas(CC) ENCOURAGE Bahrain

ColombiaiCCN

001-800-333-1111 1-800-624-1000 800-002 0600-10012 1-800-623-0484 0-800-2222 000-9012 1-800-624-1000 20V-0316 980-16-0001

Ecuador-Egypticcu

080-90000 Cyprus

Czech Republic(CC) 00-42-000112 Denmark(CC)+ 8001-0022 1-800-751-6624 355-5770 El 5alvador • 195 9800-102-80 Finland(CC) 19▼-00-19 FrancesCCN 0130-0012 (Limited availability in eastern Germany.) 00-800-1211 GreecelCC+

Haitl(CC)+ Honduras+ Israel(CC) Italy(CC) Кспуа Liechtenstein(CC+)

001-800-444-1234 001-800-674-7000 00V-800-01411 1.800-55-1001 177-150-2727 800-674-7000

155-0222 0800-0112 95-800-674-7000

19▼-00-19

Netherlands AntilledCC4 Nicaragua(CC) (Outside of Managua, dial 02 first.) Mulitary Bases: Paraguay+ Peru(Outside of Lima, dial 190 first.)

Polandi CC Portugal(CC) Puerto RicolCC San Marino(CC) 172-1022 Slovak Republic(CC) 00-42-000112 0900-99-0011

001-800-950-1022 St. Lucia Sweden/CC4 800-19912 2810-108 001-190 0▼-01-04-800-222 0>-0+7-12>:

191-997-0001 020-795-922 Trinidad & Tobago (SPECIAL PHONES ONLY) United Kingdom(CC) To call the U.S. using BT To call the U.S. using MERCURY 0500-890-222 To call anywhere other than the US.0500-800-800-800 Uruguay U.S. Virgin IslandsiCC\ 000-412 -800-888-8000 Vatican City (CC) 172-1022

Use your MCI Card,* local telephone card or call collect...all at the same low rates. (CC) Country-to-country calling available. May not be available to/from all microational locations. Certain restrictions apply 💠 Limited availability 🔻 Way for second dial tone 🛕 Available from LADATEL public phones only. Rate depends on call origin in Mexico. † International communications earner.

† Not available from public pay phones. † Public phones may require deposit of colu or phone card for dial totic

Let It Take You Around the World.

THE AMERICAS / A STRATEGY OF OPENNESS Congressmen Vow Action on Quality White House Counsel's Steadying Hand By David E. Rosenbaum New York Times Service WASHINGTON—Ju al leadership opposettion New York Times Service

Of Air in Jetliners

By Martin Tolchin

New York Times Service
WASHINGTON — Two chairmen of congressional panels have vowed to take action to improve the quality of air in airline cabins. One of them, Senator Patrick J. Leahy, Democrat of Vermont, who is chairman of the agriculture committee, said that he bad undergone the "very unpleasant experience" of being in an airplane that was sprayed with an insection of before it landed in Apprecia care of persons. it landed in Australia, one of more than 20 countries requiring such spraying, and would introduce leg-islation to protect Americans who travel to those countries.

At the same time, Representative James L. Oberstar, Democrat of Minnesota, who is chairman of the aviation subcommittee of the Pub-lie Works and Transportation Committee, scheduled a hearing for May 18 on the problems of air quality in airline cabins on domes-

i . . . Li Ji ad

; Prenes Fi

enlini Polic

uc flights. He said the bearings would focus on the health effects of a 50 percent reduction of fresh air in airline cabins that occurred in the late 1980s, and whether this imduly exposed oassengers to bacteria, viruses, caron dioxide and fumes from materials used to construct or maintain

The hearings will also study insecticide spraying and whether smoking should still be permitted on international flights, Mr. Ober-star said. "We need to improve air

Future Darkens For Teenagers

Reuters WASHINGTON - More American teenagers are having babies, getting arrested or being killed by bullets each year, according to a survey released Sunday.

The annual "Kids Count Data book" said that more 6 percent of the children under 18 - or oearly 4 million — are growing up to "dis-tressed neighborhoods" where their future is gloomy.

Among the findings of the yearlong study was that the oumber of babies born to single teenagers jumped 20 percent between 1985 and 1991. Violent death among teenagers aged 15 to 19 were up 13 percent from 1985 to 1991, while quality in airline cabins," he said. deaths from car accidents were

Mr. Leahy noted that countries in the Caribbean, South American and the South Pacific require the spraying of d-phenothrin 30 min-utes before a flight lands to kill disease-bearing insects.

With the ventilation turned off, he said, flight attendants walk down the aisles spraying the insecticide, which then settles on the skin and clothing of passengers and crew and is inhaled

The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency has said that even though the insecticide has low toxicity to humans, the spraying could create medical problems for people with allergies, chemical sensitiv-ities, asthma and other respiratory

Flight attendants and passengers have complained of headaches, nausea, fatigue, seizures and, in extreme cases, memory loss, a reduction in cognitive skills or a depressed immune system.

"I would like to see public opinion and the power of persuasion end the practice, "Mr. Leahy said, "but if that doesn't work, I think we have a legitimate right to enact legislation to protect Americans no travel."

He said he was seeking a worldwide campaign warning of the per-ils to the health of passengers and crew members from spraying insec-

Mr. Leahy also said that be wanted all tickets to countries revaniet an interest to bear a large yellow label saying, "Warning: You will be sprayed with pesticide during this flight."

United Airlines and American Airlines, which fly to the Caribbean and South America, inform pas-sengers of the spraying only when they are on board the aircraft, shortly before the spraying occurs, unless a traveler specifically requests such information when buying a ticket, the airlines' spokesmen

Mr. Leahy, who is also chairman of the foreign operations subcom-mittee of the Appropriations Committee, said he planted to use his influence as an overseer of foreign aid to persuade governments to comply with a request made by the administration last weekend that they disclose whether they require the spraying of insecticides.

By David E. Rosenbaum

New York Times Service

WASHINGTON — Six weeks after Lloyd N. Cutler joined the staff to stanch the Whitewater bemorrhage, his influence oo White House strategy became un-mistakable last week.

That was when Hillary Rod-ham Clinton broke her silence nam Cinnton broke her silence and fielded every question re-porters could come up with about her family's finances, ft was a clear manifestation of the prom-ise Mr. Cutler made when he became White House counsel to make public all the facts on hand about the Clintons' investments.

After the session Friday, Mr. Cutler disclaimed credit for Mrs. Clinton's decision to go public, saying in a telephone conversa-tion that everyone at the White House agreed that it was the proper course.

But others on the staff said it would never have happened be-fore Mr. Cutler arrived and impressed on the Clintons the importance of openness.

In an interview last week, Mr. Cutler told how he thinks the Whitewater story will end.

"It will just peter out," he said.
"It will leave everybody somewhat dissatisfied, because we're oot going to get a jury verdict in the end, guilty or not guilty. There will be questions that can't be answered. But people will lose interest. I don't see anything that even remotely resembles Irancontra, Watergate, any kind of misconduct while in office."

At first, his strategy of openness led to embarrassing slips, especially when the White House account of Mrs. Clinton's commodity trading kept changing day after day. Mr. Cutler said such mistakes were the inescapable consequence of trying to get information out quickly.

"You're damned if you do and damned if you doo't," Mr. Cutler

"These 15-year-old facts are so complicated and come from so many different record sources that it's very difficult to get all of it straight," he said, "And every day you have to compromise between the press's demand they're going to write the story anyway, and television has to meet its deadlines—and the law-yer's desire to make sure you bave it absolutely straight and have exhausted all the factual material you can get your hands on."
John D. Podesta, the White House staff secretary who has been assigned to field press inqui-ries oo Whitewater, sald the mood in the White House had changed for the better since Mr. Cutler arrived.

The president's young advisers had confidence that Mr. Cutler was steeped in the ways of Washington and knew how to deal with problems like Whitewater, Mr. Podesta said.

Although no one will say so for attribution, the prevailing view on the staff is that Mr. Cutler's predecessor, Bernard W. Nuss-baum, inadvertently damaged the Clintons by appealing to their predilection for secrecy about their financial affairs. Mr. Cutler, it is said, convinced the Clintons that they needed to make everything public, the sooner the bet-

The most Mr. Cutler would say about this was that questions pay as a "special government em-ployee," which means that he can continue to draw a salary from about the Clintons' personal fioances had perhaps been taken too seriously in the past by their staff. "If they'd taken it more lightly, we might have been better off," he said.

Mr. Cutler arrived at the White House on March 8 as developments in the Whitewater case were sprouting like dandelions. By the time Mr. Cutler got to the White House, several admin-istration officials had been subpoenaed to testify about the meetings before a grand jury. Mr. Nussbaum, who attended some of the meetings, had resigned. When his appointment was an-nounced, Mr. Cutler declared,

"In government, as in other aspects of life, trust is the coin of the realm, and I pledge myself to do what I can to assure that trust He signed on to work without through congressional hearings on the matter, which he said he expects will begin in June.

his law firm, is oot subject to some of the conflict-of-interest rules and can serve only 130

working days, a period that will last until late summer.

From time to time, Mr. Cutler has dipped into other issues. He is heading the White House staff search for a new Supreme Court justice to replace Harry A. Black-

He helped develop the legal ra-tionale for the administration's new policy of expanding police searches for drugs and weapons in public housing projects. But most of his time has been spent on Whitewater, he said, and he assumes that that will continue

* POLITICAL NOTES*

Perot Gets Back Talk From Grass Roots

WASHINGTON - Just Iwo mooths after holding its first national leadership convention. Ross Perol's United We Stand America has been shaken by a series of internal hattles that have led to the removal or the resignation of at least six elected state chairmen and threaten elected leaders elsewhere.

Power struggles between the grass-roots, elected leadership and the Dallas-led paid staff have left once-loyal followers of Mr. Perot disappointed and distillusioned and threateo to weaken his organiza-tion as an effective political force.

Florida, Tennessee, Vermont, Rhode Island, Washington and Alaska have changed state chairmen since initial state elections were held. Another power struggle is under way io California. "The organization was created in large measure by active and decent and good people all over the country," said Mark Benson, who was a congressional district leader in Florida before quitting. "But at this processing for reselve does want to put together an organization." congressional district leader in Folicia described point, Perot, in fact, really does want to put together an organization of automatons who are out there as window dressing, whom he can use for credibility but whom be does oot oeed for anything else."

Sharon Holman, Mr. Perot's chief spokeswoman, aeknowledged there have been problems within the organization, but played down their significance. "There is some settling out, I wouldn't question that," she said. "But f would tell you that in 45 states we have wonderful things happening."

Mr. Perot's staff recruited state directors to manage operations in each of the 50 states. These state directors to manage operations in each of the 50 states. These state directors, paid by the Dallas headquarters, were responsible for organizing elections that produced a board of directors and a state chairman in each state, along with congressional district conrdinators in almost every district in

But the elected leaders complain that any attempts to make changes in the organization or to initiate programs not already approved by Dallas have been met with resistance or silence. Some claim they are victims of character assassination.

On Feb. 6, with the state leaders standing with him, Mr. Perot told reporters: "This is their organization. They run it, they control it, they make decisions."

But Sandy Mellen, who resigned as Rhode Island chairman April 11, said those words seem empty today. "If you're going to do it for the cameras, you ought to actually do it," she said. (WP)

Senator Steams Over Astronauts' Trips

WASHINGTON - Astronauts at the Johnson Space Center in Houston have flown two-scater supersonic jets to Colorado Springs on weekends during ski season as well as to New Orleans and Fort Lauderdale, Florida, according to the NASA's inspector-general.

While the astronauts said they were fulfilling the flight time required of them each month, some lawmakers criticized the flights to resort cities, which cost about $2,000 an bour.

Senator Joseph 1, Lieberman, the Coonecticut Democrat who is Senator Joseph I, Lieberman, the Coonecticut Democrat who is chairman of the Governmental Affairs subcommittee on government regulation and information, said the audit report, which was prepared by the inspector-general and made public in February, raises questions about the purpose of the trips.

"There ought to be more comprehensive regulations and requirements to document the flights that are being taken to make sure they are cololy for professory training and not personal use." he said are solely for proficiency training and not personal use," he said.

Carla Corcoran, deputy assistant inspector-general of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, who oversaw the audit, said his office had no evidence of "joyriding."

(NYT)

Quote/Unquote

Bill Clinton addressing the 80th anoual White House correspondents' dinoer about what he has learned from the Whitewater affair.
"Do not borrow money, do oot lend money, do oot make money and for goodness sake, do not lose money."

O&A: Toward Greater Stability in Peru

Efrain Goldenberg Schreiber, the prime minister of Peru, was a businessman specializing in import-export trade until he was asked last summer by President Alberto Fujimori to join the government as foreign minister. Mr. Goldenberg, who has been prime minister since February, will be in Europe for a series of official visits next month. He discussed Peru's economic and political outlook with Alan Friedman of the International Herald Tribune.

Q. In April 1992, President Fujimori suspended Peru's constitution, dissolved the National Congress, imposed censorship and arrested journalists and politicians. Under the oew constitution be will be allowed to run for re-election next year to a second five-year term. What can you say to those who worry about the state of democracy in Peru?

A. You have to understand that in Peru we had 25,000 people killed by terrorists be-tween 1980 and 1990. We needed to take extraordinary steps. Since April 1992 we have had municipal elections, elections for a new congress, and then last November we had a referendum and the new constitution was

Q. The leader of the Shining Path terrorist group, Abimael Guzman, has been arrested, tried, convicted and sentenced to life in prison. Yet a bomb was thrown at the U.S.

Cuba Eases Rules

ment since 1978.

return. Those who leave illegally apparently will still have to wait study at Cuban universities, though

Cuba hopes the three-day con-ference, which ended Sunday, will improve relations between the Communist government and about 1 million exiles. Mr. Robaina said bringing consular services closer to Cuban exiles in the U.S. depended on Washington, which has a wide-ranging embargo against Cuba. Most of the 217 exiles attending the conference were from the United States. They included men who oace organized guerrilla raids against the Castro government.

Embassy in Lima four months ago. Where are you on controlling terrorism? A. It is a thing of the past to a great extent.

Sure, we still have some terrorism problems, but 90 percent of the terrorist leaders are in jail. Peru is no longer a country under terror-

Q. Bot what about that recent bomb in A. It was hardly a bomb. The U.S. Embassy was hardly touched.

Q. Is Shining Path still working with the drug lords in Peru?

A. Probably, yes, and that problem may remain. But we don't really have a drug problem in Peru. You have a drug problem in the United States and Europe. It is a problem

Q. But what are you doing about the cocaine production? A. You must understand that the coca leaf is a product that has been grown for centuries in our country. These are small farmers who hardly make a living. We are working on a crop substitution program. Q. Let's talk about economic reform. Foreign investors are suddenly coming back to your country. And you are in the process of privatizing your state telephone company.

What is your status report?
A. We raised $2 billion for just 35 percent of the telephone company. We were able to do this because terrorism is oot a problem anymore. We are building a sound economic base, and we have financial stability for the first time in many years.

Q. Yet your policy was supposed to be to transfer privatization revenues to social development programs, to alleviating poverty. Uotil now your structural adjustment program with the International Monetary Fund allows only $450 million of privatization money to go to the anti-poverty program. How can you do more?

A. The minister of economy and finance, Jorge Camet, ended negotiations with the IMF in Washington last week. The IMF now accepts that Peru can spend a total of $875 million on social investment projects.

O. Isn't the structural adjustment program causing more poverty by forcing oumerous layoffs in the public sector?

A. We are in this shape because of decades of an overly regulated economy. Now we are opening up. Of course we need fiscal austerity. We needed cuts in the bureaucracy and state-owned companies.

And we have to control inflation. This year our inflation target is around 20 percent. In 1990 the inflation rate was 7,650 percent. In 1991 it was 150 percent. In 1992 it was 70 percent, and last year it was 39 percent.

Away From Politics

For Exiles in Bid • The scheduled haunching of a Titan 4 rocket carrying a secret mili-To Improve Ties tary payload was put off because of weather, the U.S. Air Force The Associated Press said. The blastoff was rescheduled for Tuesday. Published reports say HAVANA - Cuba's foreign minister has promised to make it easier for exiles to visit and for their the rocket is carrying a $1 billion electronie eavesdropping satellite. children to study on the island. Foreign Minister Roberto Ro-

 A bus swerved off a highway in the Adirondack mountains and baina spoke to Cuban exiles from the United States and 28 other countries Saturday at the first rolled off an embankment, killing a passenger and injuring 21. Most of the passengers, all women and chil-dren, were returning to New York City after visiting inmate relatives meeting between exiles and representatives of Fidel Castro's govern-Mr. Robaina said Cuba would at Dannemora prison. stop requiring exiles who left legal-Hemophiliacs who were infected

ly to wait five years before they can with the AIDS virus through bloodclotting products have been refused permission by a New Jersey judg to sue as a group. The lawsuit is believed to be the first attempt at He also said "a small number" of emigrants' children will be able to class-action status on that issue. they will have to pay costs. Such education is free for Cubans on the UNIVERSITY DEGREE BACHELOR'S . MASTER'S . DOCTORATE For Work, Life and Academic Expedence Through Convenient Home Study (310) 471-0306 ext. 23 Pac (310) 471-6456 Fax or send detailed resurre to FREM EVALUATION Pacific Western University 800 N. Sepulveda Bird., Dapt. 23 Loa Argelea, CA 90049

• The day before he was in danger of losing his job as president of Howard University, Franklyn G. Jenifer was named president of the University of Texas at Dallas. This ended debate over his increasingly embattled tenure at Howard. • The doctor whose clinics perform as much as 70 percent of the abortions in Mississippi, Thomas W. Tucker, was found guilty of professional misconduct, and the state medical board suspended his license for a year. He was found, among other things, to have allowed workers who were not doctors to perform preliminary abortioo procedures while he was Resters, AP, NYT, WP

GENEVE Since 1854 A PRIVILEGED PLACE!

The only Grand Hotel located in the heart of Geneva's business and shopping center. Air conditioned.

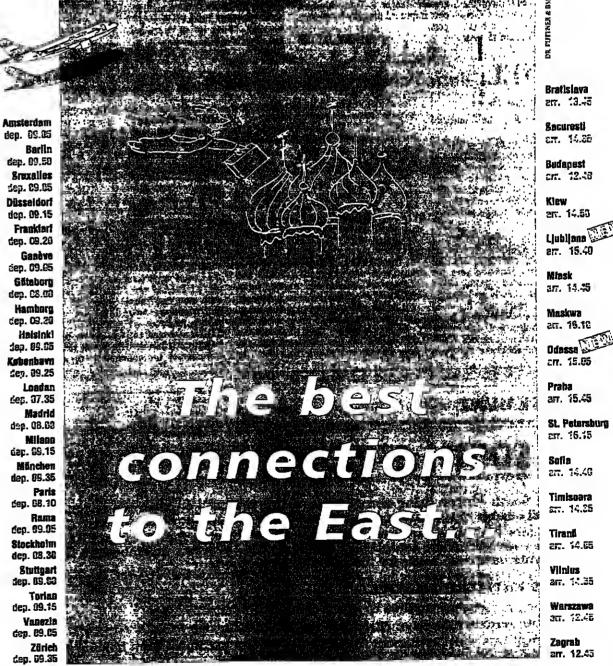

34, qual General-Guisan 1211 Geneva 3 Tel.: (41-22) 311 13 44 Telex: 421550 - Fax: 311 13 50

Metropolitan Real Estate Management Ltd. For investors interested in purchasing

PROPERTY IN BUDAPEST Our company handles all aspects concerning the investment, the purchase of the property on behalf of the investor, the accounting, the legal arrangements, the lease and administration following rental. In the last two years all properties we purchased and handled for various investors, brought a yearly return of 15%-17%. Investment possibilities are from 80,000 US$. Tel./Fax: 00 36 1 112 00 68.

if you do business with Eastern Europe, you'll probably keep running up against questions like "What's the best way to get from London to Tirana?" or "Which airline will fly me from Amsterdam to Odessa?" or "Which is the fastest connection from Milano to Bucherest?". For enswers to questions like these, consult the Austrian Airlinee Timetable. For decades now, we at Austrian have been operating ideally coordinated services between Eastern and Western Europe. As the table shows, the best connection between West and East will tend to be with Austrian Airlines. Any travel agency or Austrian Airlines Office will be glad to provide details of the good connections we maintain for you in Eastern Europe.

Welcome To

1 .

arr. 15.65 атт. 15.45 Timisoara

Terrorist Attacks and Fires Present the Greatest Risks

International Herald Tribune

CALAIS, France - The Channel Tunnel one of Europe's biggest construction projects, is also its biggest security headache.

The first few months of operations in the tunnel could be vital to its success, since even the smallest incident is likely to have a large psychological effect.

A few months ago, for example, a British tabloid newspaper ran an alarmist headline, "Tunnel Meltdown!" over a story about a minor short-circuit. That was not encouraging to potential passengers apprehensive about riding deep under the seabed.

A recent report by the Research Institute for the Study of Conflict and Terrorism, in London, gave the tunnel top marks for safety. Its author, Richard Clutterhock, called the tunnel "far more secure than the London Underground railway system.

Eurotunnel, the British-French consortium, has spent more than $171 million on security and says safety is its top priority. It has delayed introducing full service in the tunnel for several more months, partly to allow for the completion of exhaustive checks on the system.

The size and symbolic value of the project make the tunnel an obvious target for terrorist organizations like the Irish Repoblican Army. The British government recently announced that it would call for antomatic life imprisonment for anyone found guilty of attacking the tunnel.

Eurotunnel officials will not discuss measures they have adopted to combat terrorism.

Because the tunnel has a single entry and exit, Mr. Clutterhuck said, there is more incentive for terrorists to "to grab the headlines by hlocking it, by a terrorist act, by sabotage or by a hoax call."

As in any complex uoderground system, the biggest danger is from fire and toxic fumes. There are 150 kilometers (93 miles) of tunnels, including separate ones for each direction, and a central service tunnel.

In the event of a serious fire, passengers could be evacuated through the central service tunnel, which is protected by fireproof

Some chemicals, nuclear material and other potentially dangerous materials will be banned from the tunnel.

There will be a risk of fire from the fuel in cars, buses and trucks, which will be whisked through the tunnel on trains capable of traveling up to 160 kilometers an hour. Passengers will remain in their cars during the journey, a fact that has been strongly criticized by the firemen's union in Britain and by the ferry companies, which since 1974 have been obliged to sepa-rate passengers from their vehicles during the crossing.

Each 800-meter-long shottle train will carry six crew members to make sure, among other things, that passengers do not smoke. Standard procedure in case of a fire would be to get the train into the open air as soon as possible. The closed shuttle wagons have fire doors designed to resist hlazes for enough time to get to special locations where fires can be smothered with foam. If a serious fire erupted and a train had to stop, crew members would tackle the hlaze by evacuating passengers and flooding the area with halon gas.

If an explosioo occurs, the blast would follow the path of least resistance — the tunnel itself rather than destroy the tunnel lin-ing, experts say. Trains will travel between concrete guides to ensure that even if they derail, they cannot topple over.

Every coal miner knows that the likeliest cause of death underground is not flame but toxic fumes, such as odorless carbon monoxide, which cao race through a tunnel faster than a man can run. To combat this danger, the service tunnel is slightly pressurized to keep dangerous gases out, while the system is equipped with ventilators to bring

Other risks being considered in-

• Flooding. Experts say this is highly unlikely because the three tunnels that make up the system were drilled through stable chalk deep beneath the seabed. Rock extracted from the Dover end was so dry that it had to be doused with water to keep down dust.

 Earthquakes. The Channel is not a tremor zone, but the possibility of quakes was taken into account in the tunnel design. "Even if there were an earthquake or a large explosioo in the tunnel or on the seabed, the chalk marl would seal itself without letting in the sea," Mr. Clutterbuck said · Rabies. Britain is free of rabies and France is not. To prevent any animals slipping through the strict British quarantine laws, Eurotunnel has sunk fences deep in the earth and equipped the tun-nels with "stun mats" to immobilize animals that get through the outer defenses. Experts say the greater danger is from domestic pets imported illegally by passen-

- BARRY JAMES estimates it will simply provide an

A train heading into the tunnel on the French side for a test run. Officials are preparing for the May 6 inauguration ceremonies.

In the Tunnel's Future, Another Tunnel

of Europe. The mere existence of a

"If I were sitting in a board room in Singapore, New York or

Tokyo," Mr. Paauwe said. "1 would now be looking at southern England as my entry point into

He predicts a huge flow of distribution and service organizations, regional terminals like Ash-ford on the English side of the Channel and Lille on the French nomic focal point westwards.

By Erik Ipsen
International Herald Tribune LONDON - What will be the Channel Tunnel's impact 25 years from now? In a quarter-century, Paris and Brussels are expected to be only a shade more than two hours away from London by rail. As many as 15 million people will be making the trip every year — up to 800 a train on 60 trains a day. By then, tourists and businessmen bound for overnight stays on the Continent will rub elbows with a new species, the trans-Channel commuter.

"The tunnel will be a physical manifestation of European Union," said Sir Keith Speed, co-chairman of the British parliamentary committee on the Chan-But will it be much else?

On the eve of the May 6 opening ceremonies for the first, fixed, all-weather link between Britain and the Continent, experts agree that in 25 years the tunnel will have been a success. But will it live up to its promotional hype?

"I think the Channel Tunnel is a bit like 1992 and the promise of a single European market," said Alain Guyomarch, deputy director of the European Institute at the London School of Economics. "It was thought that 1992 would change the way people live, and it "The fact is that for all the hoopla surrounding the tunnel, its actual physical impact is limited." he said. "First of all, by most airplane services. In other words, it will divert traffic, not create it." Eurotunnel, the company that easy travel between their own naholds the license to run the tunnel, estimates that it will increase to Britain is oot that big a factor. Channel passenger travel by only 5 percent, and freight traffic not at is that an increasing number of

"It will oot completely revolu-tionize trade with Europe," said moving to Britain.

Carel Paauwe, head of global Richard Turner, policy director with the British Freight Transport transportation at McKinsey & Co. consultants in Amsterdam, Association. "First of all, it predicts an economic rebalancing doesn't have the capacity and, secfast rail link beneath the Channel. ondly, it is only in one place." he argues, will shift Europe's eco-

Even at peak capacity, the tun-nel could only handle a quarter of the total freight moving between Britain and Europe. Also, its route from the south of England to northern France is well out of the way of the traditional heavy flow of industrial goods between the British Midlands and northern Europe, most of which moves by ship.

But by 25 years from one there will very likely be a massive new construction project — a second Channel tunnel. "If all the growth figures are right then the tunnel will be approaching its capacity in another 20 years," said Gwyn Prosser, the head of European affairs of the Kent County Council. The county is the site of the tunnel's western terminus, in Folkestone. While the tunnel is unlikely in side are likely to see major influx-25 years to have sparked a revolu-tion in transport, lifestyles or polies of new businesses. cultural and political impact of the tunnel. Many observers pretics, its impact will conetheless be huge, especially in Britain. With it, the Britain gains its first alldict that easier, more-frequent weather link to the markets, the Channel crossings will lay to rest puts that figure at 50 percent.

business centers and the tourist Britain's island mentality and its destinations of the Continent. For often uneasy relations with the Continentals long accustomed to rest of Europe.

"I think in 25 years we will tions, the prospect of quick access realize that our future does lie with the rest of the European One major effect of the tunnel Union," said Peter Snape, a Labor Party member of parliament who co-chairs the Channel Tunnel international companies may be

> As Britain finally draws closer to its Continental neighbors, Mr. Snape also foresees a change of its so-called special relationship with the United States. "Maybe we will stop gazing wistfully across the Atlantic at what might have been," he said.
>
> But it is as a commercial competitor that the tunnel will likely achieve its greatest impact - one that promises to reach far beyond its own customers to encompass all those traveling between Britain and the Continent

"hrain industries," such as com-puter software and other high-By offering an alternative to ferry services and airlines, the tuntechnology companies into the area to take advantage of the case nel will have a profound impact on both the quality and pricing of of access to vast Continental marits rivals' operations. That change kets from an English-speaking is already evident at the ferry companies operating out of Dover and Calais, which have cut prices Just as major airports have become magnets for everything from and upgraded the quality of their hotels and conference centers to

The impact on the airlines has yet to be felt but most experts predict it will be great. Pam Williams, a spokeswoman for BAA. the privatized operator of the three main London-area airports. One key question concerns the said the sirports expected to lose one third of their passengers bound for Brussels and Paris to the Channel Tunnel, Eurotunnel

Rwanda Talks Fail To Get Started as Fighting Rages On

NAIROBI - Rebel and government forces exchanged heavy mor- cial in the northern Tanzanian tar and gunfire in the Rwandan capital, Kigali, on Sunday, and government envoys failed to show up for negotiations in Tanzania.

The fighting has been exceptionally heavy today," said Abdul Kabia, a United Nations spokesman in Kigali.

A Red Cross official, quoted by Radio France Internationale, said city, Butare, 75 kilometers (45 miles) southwest of Kigali. The report was monitored by the BBC.

The watchword is the climination of those who are considered enemies, and no one is spared; children, wives, babies," said the Red Cross official, who was not identi-

Mr. Kabia, interviewed by telephone from Kigali, said govern-ment representatives did not show up in the northeastern Zaire town of Goma on Saturday, where a UN plane was waiting to take them to negotiations.

He said military officers in Kiga-li told the United Nations on Sunday that they were unable to contact officials in Gitarama, 38 kilometers southwest of Kigali, where the government fled the fighting two weeks ago.

There will be not talks for sure," said Kassim Mwawado, a Tanzanian Foreign Ministry offitown of Arusha, where the talks were to be held. He said the representative of the rebel Rwandan Patriotic Front had just left the town. President Ali Hassan Mwinyi of Tanzania invited Rwanda's government and the rebels for talks to end the carnage, which has claimed the lives of about 100,000 people.

Some 2 million Rwandans have Sunday that massacres were con-fled their homes, and thousands timing in Rwanda's second-largest more are barricaded in buildings. The violence began a day after the presidents of Rwanda and Burundi died in a mysterious plane crash in Kigali on April 6.

The fighting is between government forces, dominated by the majority Hutu, and the rebels, who are mostly minority Tutsis. Hutu and Tutsis have fought for political supremacy since the country's inde-pendence from Belgium in 1962. The rebels declared a unilateral cease-fire to begin midnight Monday on condition that the govern-ment end all killings in areas it controls within 96 hours. The rebels also demanded that the government accept an international inquiry into the killings and allow those found guilty to be tried. Mr. Kabia said 32 foreigners. who had been under the protection of the Red Cross, were evacuated to Kenya on Sunday.

3

6 F

8F

JI

10 F

10+ FI

ROYA

CIRCUS: Moscow Business Risks

Continued from Page 1 He added, "Our claims are mostly of a moral nature." The original contract was signed about two years ago and was welcomed by all.

A subsidiary of Delaware North, a company based in Buffalo, New York, formed a 20-year joint ven-ture with the circus, with an option to extend it for 20 more years. The American company, which man-ages the Boston Garden and is the largest caterer for major league baseball, promised to upgrade the quality and variety of concessions

Delaware North would receive 75 percent of all concession-related revenue - revenue from the circus itself was not involved - and a consultant the circus had hired to find a foreign parmer would receive 7.5 percent, Mr. Chambers

at the circus

Mr. Chambers acknowledged that the remaining 17.5 percent share for the circus was small, but he said it was not unreasonable given the risks of the venture.

Maxim Nikulin said his father, now 73, agreed out of naivete. Yuri Nikalin. a rubbery-faced, sad-eyed clown and movie actor of unquestioned genius, "oever had any con- accounts and sealed its office. nection to business," his son ex-

Things proceeded smoothly for more than a year. But in August 1993, the deputy circus director, Mikhail Sedov, was shot and killed outside his apartment. Both sides say his murder - a contract slay-Mr. Sodov had been the chief go-

"That was terribly damaging to us," Mr. Chambers said. "Lines of communication became very muddled. There were fights over his successor, competitions and jealousics, and we were the odd man oot."

Last fall, the Moscow mayor, Yuri Luzhkov, issued a decree declaring the joint venture illegal. At a Jan. 31 meeting with Mr. Luzh-kov, the U.S. ambassador, Thomas R. Pickering, expressed concern that Moscow's city government seemed to be encouraging efforts to force out the American company, according to Delaware North, Mr. Luzhkov responded that the Americans were making too much money," but said he hoped the con-tract could be renegotiated.

At that point, Delaware North was willing to renegotiate, giving the circus a larger percentage than the original 17.5 percent, Mr. Chambers said. But Jan Visser, managing director of Delaware North's European operations, said the circus's proposal was a nonstarter: 85 percent to the circus, no exclusive rights to concessions for the joint venture and a term of only two years.

"Under such terms, we couldn't even recover our investment," Mr. To which, Maxim Nikulin responded sarcastically in a Russian newspaper interview, "You know, we are ready to cry like children, hearing such hard words from these real American guys." He added, "And they hadn't invested anything!

At that point, according to Delaware North, began a "pattern of barassment, physical threats, attempted extortion and misinformation by our Russian partner, aimed at forcing us out." City tax inspectors froze the joint venture's bank

Americans working for the joint venture also received physical and other threats, causing the company to fly them home "on an emergency basis for their safety." the company

In an interview Friday, Maxim Nikulin dismissed many of these ing, according to the police — was allegations. He accused Delaware not related to the joint venture. But North of overstating its investment and hiding profits so it could take home a larger share.

Mr. Nikulin said the experience with Delaware North had taught him not to trust American compa-

"I'm fully aware that there are very few serious, respectable com-panies willing to take the risk of investing here," be said. "Their main goal is to make some money and disappear."

Mr. Chambers said: "I believe that many Americans, even today, are quite starry-eyed about the Russian market. We have encouraged them to be realistic."

CHUNNEL: Anticipation and Anxiety on Both Sides as Island and Continent Prepare to Come Together Union, hut in Kent there appears to be a the Continent or vice versa, according to Continued from Page 1

they have paid the tax in the country of Storekeepers and pubs in southeast England say they are being ruined by the flood of imports. But one supermarket chain. Tesco's, has set up stores in France to grab some of the business, and another British chain, Sainsbury's, recently anoounced plans to open a large supermar-

The presence of large numbers of French tourists goes unremarked in the Kent cathedral city of Canterbury, but provides a welcome injection into the economies of depressed coastal towns like Folkestone. It recently laid on free coffees and bus tours and deployed French-speaking schoolchildren to make cross-channel travelers feel welcome.

The British government exudes aloofoess and skepticism about the European growing sense of oeighborimess.

ADVERTISEMENT

"East Kent now has more contacts with the north of France than with most other regions of Britain," said Gwyn Prosser, the Kent County Council's head of European affairs. Insularity, while it still exists, is breaking down as people realize that it is easier to go shopping in Calais than London, Mr. Prosser said.

Kent has joined with government administrations in northern France and Belgium to form the Trans-Manche Region, which is eligible for regional financing from the European Union. A spokesman for the county council said Kent had received £47 million in European funds since 1987 for projects that include coop-eration on education, employment, tourism, transportation and the environment.

real estate people.

Trevor Kent, a spokesman for the National Association of Estate Agents in Britain, said reliable transportation through the tunnel inevitably will tempt more Britons to buy secondary or even primary homes across the channel, especially professional people who can work from home and those who can take transport costs off their taxes.

The tide is unlikely to flow the other way, he said, because homes are much more expensive in southern England. Mr. Prosser, on the other hand, said the idea of large numbers of people mov-ing to France was "fanciful" because each side had deeply ingrained habits and traditions. Nor, unless the tunnel reduces its prices—ranging from £125 to £310 for a round trip with a car—could So far, the slowly developing sense of regionalism has not translated into any he see much incentive for people to live in large movement of people from Britain to one country and commute to the other.

English nationalists oppose the tunnel for shortening a distance "that we al-ready find too short," to quote Lord Palmerston, a 19th century prime uninis-

Many people in Kent oppose the tun-oel for specific economic reasons. Like some in Calais, they fear it could turn their towns into backwaters. Much depends on how well the ferries meet the Dover is the world's busiest passenger port, with 18.4 million departures and entries last year; and Calais is second, with about 16 million passengers in 1993. The tunnel will bypass both towns. Highspeed trains will speed passengers between Paris and London in less than three hours, while shulle trains will move cars and freight directly from one high-way system to another in about one hour. According to the Kent Impact Study on economic prospects, the opening of the tunnel could, by creating overcapacity, close down some marginal ferry lines and result in up to 15,000 lost jobs, But the tunnel is expected to create new business rather than merely take passengers and freight away from the ferries. The two ferry operators are introducing huge new ships that will enable them to offer a service that is at least as regular and almost as fast at the tunnel, as well as being significantly cheaper. No one is writing off the ferries.

Nor is the tunnel a mere connection under the Channel. It is the hub of a network of new highways on either end and is connected to Paris, although not yet to London, by high-speed railway

The tunnel "puts Calais and the surrounding region more in the heart of Europe," said Roland Deplace, the Calais representative of France's government planning agency.

ADVERTISEMENT

SOUTH AFRICAN ABROAD? HERE'S HOW TO VOTE IN FRANCE ON APRIL 26

If you're a South African living abroad or travelling overseas on business or holiday on April 26, you will be able to vote in the country's first fully democratic election.

Arrangements for voting facilities have been made through South African embassies and consulates where these are established. Where South Africa has no embassies or consulates, arrangements have been made for the use of other locations.

PERSONS ENTITLED TO VOTE:

The following persons are entitled to vote if they are 18 years or older;

South African citizens or citizens of the TBVC countries

b) immigrants with permanent residence permits or exempted from holding such permits C)

former South African citizens living in South Africa

d) the spouses or children of a South African citizen or former South African citizen residing permanently in South Africa

DOCUMENTS NEEDED TO PROVE ELIGIBILITY

Eligible voters should produce one of the following identification documents at the polling station:

a valid South African passport

b) an identify document, either the old dark blue version or the new green version identity documents issued by the TBVC states d any of the three versions of reference books a green plastic identity card.....

NOTE: No eligibility documents will be issued on 26 April 1994

Persons arriving at the polling station without one of the abovementioned eligibility documents will not be permitted to vote.

VOTING DAY AND HOURS

Tuesday, April 26 has been set aside as the only day for voting at voting stations outside South Africa. These stations will be open between 07:00 and 19:00 local time.

VOTING PROCEDURE

Voting at foreign voting stations will be conducted-in accordance with the provisions of the Electoral Act. Votes will be cast for both the National Assembly and Provincial Legislatures. Voters will be required to produce their voter eligibility identification, and have their fingers

The ballot papers will be sealed in separate envelopes which will be placed in a third before being returned to South Africa for counting. The envelopes for the Provincial ballot will have the name of the Province on it.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

If you have any enquiries regarding the election:

Call the Independent Electoral Commission toll free at (09-27-11) (401-2000) (international) or 0800-11-8000 (South Africa). The IEC's toll-free line is operational 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

b) Call the SA Embassy, Paris: 45-55-92-37

SA Consulate General, Marseille: 91-22-66-33

LOCATION OF VOTING STATIONS:

Voting stations in FRANCE will be situated at the following places:

SA Embassy 59 Qual d'Orsay 75007 PARIS

SA Consulate General 408 Avenue du Prado 13008 MARSEILLE

SOUTH AFRICAN INDEPENDENT ELECTORAL COMMISSION ADVERTISEMENT wide toutent The nev

normally ear: For Firet Mes you fly For Busin

the miles you.  $W_{e}$  add  $v_{e}$ Heres how it w

For examp went sectors w I will double you

More than ten while that Aufter to

A great new plus.

The more times you fly the bigger your bonus.

(OVER AND ABOVE THE REGULAR MILES YOU EARNI)

3 FLIGHTS PLUS 70%

4 FLIGHTS PLUS 80%

5 FLIGHTS PLUS 90%

6 FLIGHTS PLUS 100%

7 FLIGHTS PLUS 110%

9 FLIGHTS PLUS 130%

10 FLIGHTS PLUS 140%

10+ FLIGHTS PLUS 150%

Thai offers its Royal Orchid Plus members one of the most innovative and exciting bonus offers ever created for frequent flyers.

This new bonus offer is available to members who fly a total of three First and/or Business Class international flight sectors on Thai's worldwide routenet between April 18 and September 30, 1994.

The new bonus is over and above the miles you would normally earn.

For First Class, the normal miles you receive are the miles you fly, plus 50% for travelling First Class.

For Business Class, the normal miles you receive are the miles you fly, plus 25% for travelling Business Class.

We add the bonus on top of these miles.

And the more times you fly, the bigger the bonus. Here's how it works.

For example, if you fly just six international flight sectors we will add a 100% bonus, which will double your Royal Orchid Plus miles. For more than ten international flight sectors flown, we'll add a bonus of 150% to your Royal Orchid Plus miles."

It's a great opportunity to rapidly and substantially boost your mileage account and earn free flights or any of our unique Experience Awards faster.

You can also earn or redeem miles with our credit card, hotel and car rental partners.

OVER 70 DESTINATIONS WORLDWIDE.

Thai can now take you to over 70 destinations around the world, including eleven cities in Europe, five in Australia and New Zealand, Los Angeles in the U.S.A., and more destinations in Asia than any other airline.

THREE GREAT NEW DESTINATIONS.

We've expanded our service into China and now offer 18 flights a week to the four key cities of Beijing, Kunming and now Guangzhou and Shanghai.

> Plus, we have also added Dubai to our rapidly expanding routenet.

SMOOTH AS SILK ON THAI.

But, perhaps the biggest plus of all is flying smooth as silk on Thai, enjoying our world renowned Royal Orchid Service all the way - award winning food and wine, charming cabin staff and a fresh orchid for every passenger.

If you're not already a member of Royal Orchid Plus, there's no better time to join. Pick up an enrolment form from your nearest Thai office or complete the coupon below. Membership is free.

ENROL NOW IN ROYAL ORCHID PLUS

Pick up an enrolment form from your nearest Thai office or simply complete this coupon and either mail it to Thai Airways International, PO Box 567, Samsen Nai Post Office, Bangkok 10400, Thailand or fax it on 66-2-513-0222. Please allow three weeks for delivery. Complete in English.

☐ Mr ☐ Mrs ☐ Miss ☐ Other Title

Address

Phone

To ensure that your miles are automatically and accurately accrued to your account • Please quote your Royal Orchid Plus Membership Number together with your name in English (must be the same as in your enrolment form) when making a reservation To ensure that your miles are automatically added to your account, after September 30, 1994,

• Present your Membership Card when you check in Please retain copies of your air ticket and boarding pass for checking your mileage statement. "All bonus mileage credits will be automatically added to your account, after September 30, 1994,

NIXON: A Different Picture at Home and Overseas

Senator Joseph McCarthy was that the Hiss case involved serious accusations of espionage, although Mr. Hiss was eventually convicted only of perjury. Mr. Nixon's political exploitation of the affair was crude, but in his pursuit of Mr. Hiss he dealt with real issues, which was not the case for Senator McCarthy.

What became known as McCarthyism was the demagogic harassment of large numbers of people who had signed manifestos, joined demonstrations and belonged to Communist front organizations, or to the Communist Party itself, during the years when to do all of that was not only perfectly legal but politically correct.

Mr. Nixon's period as Dwight D. Eisenhower's vice president caused foreign observers to take a second look at him, as Mr. Eisenhower was all hut universally admired abroad for sober and responsible conduct of American foreign policy.

It did not have the same effect in the United States, since Mr. Eisenhower's endorsement of his vice president's candidature for the presidency in 1960 was so lukewarm as to amount to a disavowal. Mr. Nixon was elected president in 1968 because in the midst of the great and decisive American national crisis provoked by the Viet-nam War, Mr. Nixon promised a conservative, he seemed capable of providing that way out, which his rival, Lyndon B. Johnson's vice president, Hubert H. Humphrey, did not.

The doubts that persisted abroad about Mr. Nixon's judgment and political morality were not really dissipated until the beginning of the 1970s, late in his first presidential term. The causes for this change were his policy of detente with the Soviet Union and his arms-control agreements with Moscow, his opening of U.S. relations with China and his withdrawal of American forces from Viet-

This last was no victory, but was seen abroad as a reasonably adroit disguise for inevitable defeat. This was the exact contrary to what Mr. Nixon, and his Secretary of State, Henry A. Kissinger, claimed was the case. Their denials were taken abroad, mistakenly, as subtlety. Many were also ready to accept Mr. Nixon's argument that domestic critics had decisively under-mined the U.S. position in Viet-

Mr. Nixon and Mr. Kissinger said that by changing the terms of the American relationship with Moscow, and by establishing relations with China, they were conducting a classic politics of power way out - and because he was a balance. The reality was that China played the American link against its Soviet rival, to no profit to the United States. The opening to Moscow would have been much more difficult for a Democratic administration, however, and it contributed to that ferment in Soviet political circles which eventually was to produce glasnost and perestroika.

> Mr. Nixon's downfall in the Watergate scandal was generally misperceived abroad as the result of a political plot. The significance Americans attached to his vicla-tion, in this affair, both of the law and of his constitutional position. was not generally understood.

Wiretapping and burglary of a rival party's premises seemed in many West European and Asian political circles to be deplorable but unsurprising forms of political conduct. Americans were thought "puritans" for becoming so excited about it, a judgment which ignored the fact that the cultural origin of American society is indeed Calvinist and Puritan.

Thus the 37th president was seen ahroad, when his political career ended, as more victim than wrongdoer. His subsequent rehabilitation in American opinion as a foreign policy wise man owed much to the fact that, abroad, he had never lost

LEGACY: Lingering Changes in Political Geography

Continued from Page 1

postwar period to recognize the potential of anti-communism, and he made that issue his trademark in the three California House and Senate campaigns he won from 1946 to 1950.

Twenty years later, when campus and urban riots and the street warfare at the Democratic convention of 1968 ignited public opinion, it was Mr. Nixon who pushed the "law and order" issue to the center of the stage — where it has remained ever since.

Despite his bomely looks and his grave, humoriess style, he was one of the first national politicians to recognize the power of television and try to use it systematically to his advantage.

He saved his vice-presidential place on the 1952 Republican ticket - after controversy arose over a privately financed expense fund in his Senate office --- by making a televised appeal directly to the American voters.

The success of that "Checkers speech" and the renown he won as vice president with his televised "kitchen debate" with Nikita S. Khruschev instilled enough confidence in Mr. Nixon that he encouraged Dwight D. Eisenhower to sign legislation in 1960 setting up the first televised presidential debates.

He lost those debates - especially the first one, with the largest audience — to John F. Kennedy, and that may well have been the margin of his hairbreadth defear.

But in his dogged way, Mr. Nixon kept after it, and when be ran again in 1968 the "Ask Richard Nixon" sessions, staged by the television adviser Roger Ailes with carefully screened but seemingly ordinary voters, became the forenumers of what is now a standard campaign format. Mr. Nixon was a crucial transition figure in the history of the modern Republican Party. For the better part of four decades, only Mr. Eisenhower, the smiling and victorious World War II commander, was able to break the Democrats' grip on the White House. When Barry Goldwater lost by a landslide to Lyndon B. Johnson in 1964, serious talk arose about the problematic future of the Republicans.

But Mr. Nixon helped nurse it back to health, campaigning con-stantly for the party in the highly successful midterm campaign of 1966, though he was nominally just a New York City lawyer, and then reclaiming the presidential nomi-nation in 1968.

Both his presidency and his cam-paigns of 1968 and 1972 embodied the struggle to bridge the gulf be-tween a mainstream Republican Party and an emerging populism of the right that encompassed hostility to the civil rights revolution, anger toward the sexual liberation and free speech movements of the 1960s and the hard-hat attack on the anti-Vietnam War movement.

Watergate transformed American politics. The scandal and the forced resignation of the president sharply increased public distrust of and cynicism toward government, justified a wide range of congressionally imposed restrictions on presidential power and authority, helped to give birth to an influential generation of Democrats, and gave impetus to the congressional reforms of the mid-1970s.

The focus of this distrust on the presidency created a favorable climate in Congress for the enactment of the War Powers Act, which required presidential notification of Congress within 48 hours of troop deployments and congressional au-thorization within 60 days. The measure was passed at the height of the Watergate controversy, after Mr. Nixon had dismissed Archibald Cox as special prosecutor. Mr. Nixon left few institutions - or people - of his era un-

Indonesia Fears More Assaults on Its Chinese

By Philip Shenon New York Times Service

SINGAPORE - Anti-Chinese riots in Indonesia have led to one death and have alarmed government and business leaders who fear that the violence could spread to other parts of the vast Southeast Asian nation, which has an economy dominated by ethnic Chinese families and a work force consisting mainly of ethnic Malays.

The riots began the week before last in Medan, Indonesia's third largest city, paralyzing the north Sumatran area for several days as thousands of laborers took to the streets to demand higher wages and an explanation for the death last month of a union activist.

On April 15, an ethnic Chinese factory owner, Kwok Joe Lip, 53, was stoned and beaten to death in his car as he tried to drive to his factory in hopes of protecting it from the crowds of rioters in Medan. More than 100 shops and businesses owned hy ethnic Chinese families in the city were said to have been vandalized.

Tuesday, thousands of looters were reported to have descended with machetes and iron picks on a shopping mall in central Medan owned by Chinese.

The ethnic Chinese, who make up only about 3 percent of the population of Indonesia, quickly became the target of the demonstrators, as they have in years past. Leaflets that circulated among the crowds described the wealth of ethnic Chinese families and charged they were exploiting Indonesian factory workers, who are mostly of ethnic Malay stock.

The success of the Chinese is widely envied — and resented — in Indonesia, an archipelago of 180 million people and the fourth most populous nation. The average annual per capita income is about $600 To quell the riots, the Indonesian

Army flooded the streets of Medan with up to 2,500 soldiers and has warned union leaders against trying to revive the demonstrations.

"Jakarta has been a relatively nervous place this week," a diplomat said. "There have been lots of rumors about copycat riots here, incidents in the predominantly Chinese parts of town. None of that is true. There have been no incidents in Jakarta. But the ru-mors are an indication of the level of nervousness among the Chinese population here.".

FROM U.S. TO VIETNAM, WITH RHYTHM —A sign in Hanoi announcing concerts by the singer John Denver to be held on May 1-2. He is also scheduled to perform in Ho Chi Minh City. Mr. Deaver is the first American singer to perform in Vietnam since the end of the war in 1975.

Hata, Awaiting Nod, Lists His Goals

TOKYO - Tsutomu Hata, Japan's prime minister-designate. promised Sunday to lead efforts to slash government red tape, revamp the tax system and reduce the huge trade surplus.

Mr. Hata, destined to become prime minister in a formal vote on Monday, denied speculation that an ally, Ichiro Ozawa, would control policy-making as backstage boss in the style of the long-governing Liberal Democratic Party.

"It's a fabrication to say that we're setting up our own two-tiered power structure," said Mr. Hata, currently foreign minister, speaking in a hroadcast interview.

I believe all of the coalition parties must take part in deciding what to do about the many issues," he said, indicating that his emphasis would be on consensus-huilding. Mr. Hata, who will run against candidates put up by the Liberal Democrats and other opposition parties, is certain to win because of the coalition's majority in the decisive lower house.

now-overdue national budget for to indirect taxes.

1994-95, reforming the tax system and drafting measures to reduce Tokyo's chronic trade surplus with the United States. He emphasized deregulation to reduce government red tape.

"I want to proceed with deregu-lation," he said, "because it"ll help open markets and create new types of industries." Japan has come under U.S. pressure to reduce income taxes and overhaul its tax system to rectify an imbalance that places the weight He promised Sunday to pass the heavily on direct taxes as opposed

China, Eye On Image, Sets Free A Dissident

By Lena H. Sun

Washington Post Service
BELIING — China has release one of the two key leaders of th 1989 pro-democracy movement i an apparent attempt to improve it human rights image, six weeks be fore President Bill Clinton mus decide whether to extend China' favorable trade status.

Wang Jimtao, 35, who was sen tenced in 1991 to 13 years in prisor was released on medical parole. H was allowed to meet with his famil at the airport here for about half a hour before boarding a flight fo New York, where he is expected to undergo treatment for liver an heart trouble.

He was accompanied by an employee of the U.S. Embassy in Beijing, and "looked fine," according to a U.S. diplomat.

[At Kennedy airport in New York, Mr. Wang, quoted by Retters, said Saturday, 1 believe ther will be further progress and devel opments in my country and in the near future I think others like m will be released."] Chinese officials "only notifie us at the last minute, when the came to the house about 7 A.M., Mr. Wang's mother, Ge Yume said in a telephone interview When we heard this news, we wer very happy. It shows that the Uni ed States is very concerned abor his health, and we are grateful."

Under an executive order issue by Mr. Clinton last year, Chin must show "significant, overa progress" in several human right areas, including the treatment of i political prisoners, before the pres dent can renew the trading statu which allows in Chinese imports; the lowest tariffs. The deadline for renewal is June 3.

Although welcome, the release Mr. Wang is not likely to be enoug to meet the conditions laid out Mr. Clinton's executive order.

The official Xinhua press ages cy, quoting a spokesman for the Justice Ministry, said Mr. War has left for medical treatment abroad after the Chinese judicianthorities released him on bail a cording to law on account of th conditions of his illness."

But Mr. Wang; who suffers from heart disease and chronic hepatit B, has long sought his release c medical parole. His detention his heen publicized by his wife, Ho Xiaotian, who is studying at Co.
hmbia University in New Yorl and his case has been among thos consistently raised by human righ groups and Western government including the United States.

The authorities continue to hol the country's most prominent pa litical dissident, Wei Jingsheng.

CURRENCY: Europe's Dream Reviving Once Again TOKYO:

Getting there is far from assured. Europe will have to pull itself out of recession if countries are to meet the economic criteria for a single currency, and the surge of more term in terest rates this year threatens to throttle the recovery.

"Without renewed growth and a return to acceptable levels of un- to widen currency fluctuation employment, we will be condemned to continued introspection and despair," Economics Commissioner Henning Christophersen told the monetary union association's annual meeting in Paris earlier this month.

Nevertheless, the same financial markets that wrecked Europe's ex- speculation. change-rate mechanism last August now point clearly to a single currency in this decade.

With the exception of the British pound and the Italian lira, which were forced out of the ERM in 1992, and the Greek drachma, which has never been a member. every EU currency except the Por-tuguese escudo was trading Friday within a 4.5 percent of the others, the ERM's old fluctuation hand

Long-term interest rates also have converged more closely around Germany's grid, the benchmark for Europe. Yields on 10-year French bonds dipped hriefly below

Continued from Page 1

Union countries in 1999, and that investors "should not exclude the possibility" of it happening in 1997.

German levels late last year, and expectations and hence the pressure on interest rates."

Increasingly, EU officials talk of leaving the fluctuation margins as leaving the fluctuation margins as sure on the franc in recent weeks, French bond yields have risen to only one-third of a point above German yields.

Mr. Bishop said the small margin indicated that the market was not than one percentage point in long- pricing in any franc depreciation over 10 years.

The secret to the stability was the decision by EU officials last Aug. 1 bands to plus or minus 15 percent from 2.25 percent. Although re-garded at the time as an admission of the inability of governments to defend their interests in a $1 trillion-a-day global market for currencies, it has proved to be an effective mechanism for containing

Unlike the old system, where tight trading limits and mandatory government intervention allowed speculators to sell EU currencies without risk in the hope of forcing a devaluation that gave them windfall profits, exchange rates can one-way bets.

vere exchange-rate penalties is hanging over them all the time. Mr. Matthes wrote. "Fairly large specularive upheavals in exchange rates can no longer occur, and this report to finance ministers in the accordingly, eases exchange-rate second half of this year.

APRIL 30

International Conference of

Hosiery Manufacturers (ICHM) Charlotte Covention Center, USA

The ICHM is held one day pater to the opening of

The KCHM is held one day prior to the opening of the International Hostery Exposition, At this Conference, hoslery manufactures will hear the counterparts from many continues discuss the future of the world's hossery merics. They will also enjoy presentations on the globalization of hossery, the undustry's latest technological advancements and the key to implementing a total quality management program.

Contact: Shelly F.: Klary,
National Association of Hostery Manufacturers,
Tel. (2014) 866 (0014) Exp. (2014) 232-2666.

Tel.: (704) 365-0913 - Fax: (704) 362-2056

NORTH CAROLINA

they are rather than trying to reimpose narrow hands in the run-up to a single currency. Indeed, EU foreign ministers shelved any talk of narrow bands at their informal meeting in Athens last month.

Andre Swings, head of foreign exchange trading at Kredictbank in Brussels, said that made sense. Try-ing to return to narrow bands "will invite speculators again to mount an attack," he said.

Based on Salomon's forecasts. Mr. Bishop said Denmark, Germany, Ireland, Luxembourg and the Netherlands could well meet the single-currency requirements at the end of 1996. The Union could obtain the majority needed to actually make the jump the following year if Belgium or France trim their hudget deficits toward the Maastricht ceiling of 3 percent of gross domestic product. Getting a majority will be more difficult if Sweden, Finland, Norway and Austria enter the Union swing sharply up or down in the next year, since only the latter will currency system, ending the era of meet the deficit standard.

ne-way bets.

Determining how to interpret the Maastricht deficit requirements

MAY 1-4

International Hostery Exposition (IHE) Charlotte Merchandise Mart

The IHE offers manufacturers from aroun

the world a superior setting in which to shop the world's marketplace for the lates

in hosiery manufacturing technology It's the only tradeshow, worldwide, dedicated entirely to the display of hosiery manufac-turing supplies and services

Jeannette E. Robinson,

mational Hosiery Associa Tel.: (704) 365-0913

NORTH CAROLINA

... Contact:

American official who has bee deeply involved in the issue. But think all of us have our doubt especially given the weakness of th current government."

Military officials here note the since 1988 the United States an Japan have been negotiating cross-servicing agreement that would allow for routine use of eac other's supplies and installations similar to agreements the Unite States has in Malaysia, Thailan and South Korea - but that it ha run into political obstacles. Except for Mr. Ozawa, who the closest ally of Prime Ministe designate Hata, Japanese polit cians have said almost nothing i public about the North Kores threat beyond making vague pron ises to act "within Japanese law" the United Nations imposes san

But in the last week, Mr. Ozaw has repeatedly complained that th country has no institution for cris management -- a decades-long ti boo on security issues here has pri vented the formation of a nation: security council or a unified intell gence operation.

"If it comes to a trade embarg and a maritime blockade, we can do anything unless we are prepare to reform domestic law with eme gency legislation," Mr. Ozawa tol coalition leaders last week.

Probably the best beat in the world.

CONFERENCES. COURSES AND EXHIBITIONS

MAY II Opportunities in China in Property and Construction

Presented by staff Tanghua and Peoples Universities. Beining, China Investment Bank, Beining, UK Companies and UMIST Staff Business approaches, opportunities, difficul-ties and experiences in construction manage-ment and property development in China. Contact: Pamela Hyde, Centre for Property Developm and Management, UMIST Manchester, England

Tel-061-200 4218 - Fax: 061-200 4217 MANCHESTER

JUNE889 EIS 94: Client Server Reporting for the Enterprise

Europe's leading conference and exhibition on Executive and Management conference programme which gathers many of the world's best thinkers. practitioners and case studies, with the aim of helping organisations link EIS to business goals. Contact Business Intelligence Tel.: 081-544 1830 Fax: 081-544 9020

LONDON

Information Systems. A unique

JUNE 15-16 Oil & Money: Asia and the Pacific The conference one of Asia's leading energy forums, will be addressed by experts in the oil industry from the world over.

Brenda Hagerty, International Herald Tribune, London. Tel.: (44 71) 836 4802 Fax: (44 71) 836 0717

SINGAPORE

MAY 3-5 ist international Specialist Congres In cooperation with EAUE. Approaches to environmental auditing opportunities and possible sources of promotion will be discussed.

Contact-TÜV-Akademie Rheinland. Cologne, Tel: (+49) 221-806-3062

Fax: (+49) 221-806-3061 BERLIN

TO ADVERTISE

PLEASE CONTACT PARIS ON FAX: (33-1) 46 37 93 70

DEATH OF A PRESIDENT / CAREER OF CRISES

Richard Nixon, 1913-94: Triumph and Tumult

The Stigma of the Watergate Scandal Tended to Obscure His Accomplishments

By John Herbers New York Times Service

The second secon

To millions of Americans, Richard Milhous Nixon was the most puzzling and fascinating politician of his time. He was a man of high intelligence and innovative concepts whose talents, especially in international affairs, were widely respected by friend and foe. Yet he was so motivated by hatreds and fears that he abused his powers and resorted to lies and

Many felt an intense dislike for him on the ground that he rose to power through demagoguery and defamation. But among many others he inspired an intense loyalty, particularly among those who identified with his humble beginnings and with his hostility toward intel-lectuals, liberals, socialists and others he regarded as archenemies.

His career was a tumultuous roller-coaster ride of victory, crisis, defeat, revival, triumph, ruin and, in later life, re-emergence as an elder

Yet he never received the honors and accolades he most certainly would have if he had not been forced to resign the presidency in the face of certain impeachment for the cover-up of a cheap political burglary of Democratic Party offices and other illegal acts of domestic espionage, all documented by Oval Office tape re-

Still, he never confessed the "high crimes and misdemeanors" of which he was accused in articles of impeachment, approved by the House Judiciary Committee, that precipitated his resignation in August 1974.

"If the president does it, that makes it legal," he told David Frost in a celebrated television interview three years after he was pardoned by his successor, Gerald R. Ford.

So strong was the stigma of Watergate that it tended to obscure Mr. Nixon's accomplishments. In foreign affairs, with Henry A. Kissinger as national security adviser and secretary of state, these included establishing relations with Communist China, initiating detente and nuclear arms control treaties with the Soviet Union, and opening the way for Egypt to break with the Soviet bloc.

In the domestic area, his record appears better through the prism of subsequent events, several scholars say, than it did at the time. In his administration, a huge expansion of the food stamp program went a long way toward lessening hunger in America. The Environmental Protection Act anthorized vast resources and regulation for cleaning the country's air, land and water.

Mr. Nixon reshaped the Supreme Court through his appointment of a chief justice and three associate justices on a basis of ideological persuasion.

Yet his accomplishments were marred by his methods, his motives and his ambiguities. Ending the long divisive war in Southeast Asia took four years from the time he was elected president on a peace pledge, years in which American society was scarred by riots and rebellions against the efforts to force peace through bombings and incursions into new territory.

In all matters he centralized power around himself and a few aides in the White House and sought to broaden the authority of the executive branch at the expense of Congress and the courts. He tried to use the bureaucracy against political foes.

It was Mr. Nixon's personality and character that most caught the attention of Americans as, always amid great controversy, he went from Southern California to the House of Representatives, to the Senate, to the White House as Dwight D. Eisenhower's vice president, to the presidency, and to private citizen as the first president to have resigned the office. In be-tween, he was defeated for the presidency by John F. Kennedy in 1960 and in 1962 for governor of California by Edmund G. "Pat"

1、线线线

He had no fixed ideology, no particular place on the political spectrum. He was a loner with no lasting alliances with other prominent Republican leaders. His life was a series of contradictions. He

WASHINGTON - President Bill Clinton

Mr. Clinton also directed that the U.S. flag

he flown at half-staff, including at diplomatic and military installations abroad, for 30 days.

Federal government offices will be closed for the day, the White House said. Services for Mr. Nixon, who was $1, will he held at 4 P.M. Pacific daylight time (2300 Greenwich Mean Time) on Wednesday at the

Richard Nixon Library and Birthplace in Yorba Linds, California. The Reverend Billy

Mr. Clinton as well as the Senate minority leader, Bob Dole, Repoblican of Kansas;

Governor Pete Wilson of California, and Mr.

Nixon's secretary of state, Henry A. Kissin-

Mr. Nixon's body will be flown to California on Tuesday from New York, bypassing Washington and a state ceremony in the Graham will officiate at the funeral.

ger, will deliver culogies.

has declared Wednesday a national day of mourning for Richard Nixon.

preached the simple Protestant ethic of hard work and morality and was prim in dress and manner. Yet the Watergate tapes, as well as the testimony of some associates, showed that he could be profane, amoral and power-driven.

He invited crises and, until the Watergate scandals closed in, thrived on them, but he felt depressed after a victory and in times of tran-quillity, as he wrote in his book "Six Crises."

The future president was born on Jan. 9, 1913, the second of five sons, in Yorba Linda, California, then a farming community of 200 people near Los Angeles. His father owned a general store and filling station.

He daydreamed of faraway places; worked hard in school; lectured his brothers to be more conscientious; played football with zest even though he was not good at it; pursued music, action and debating and competed for leader. acting and debating and competed for leader-ship positions in school, and went four times a week to a fundamentalist Quaker church.

After high school, he wanted to go to Har-vard or Yale. But there was no money for that. So he stayed four more years in the community he wished desperately to escape and entered Whittier College. There he sharpened his debating talents, was elected president of the fresh-man class and of the student body for three years, and took acting lessons. Graduating from Whittier second in his class, Mr. Nixon won a scholarship to the Duke University Law School, He was elected president of the Duke Bar Association and graduated third in his class. He was admitted to the California bar in November 1937.

He became active in civic groups, taught Sunday school and acted in a little theater group. It was in the theater that he met Thelma Catherine Ryan, who taught typing and short-hand at Whittier High School, They were mar-

When the United States entered World War II, Mr. Nixon became a lawyer with the Office of Price Administration, an experience he loathed. After seven months he got a navy commission and became an operations officer with the South Pacific Combat Air Transport

At war's end he was surprised to receive a letter from a committee of California Republicans asking if he was interested in running for Congress. He jumped at the chance to challenge Jerry Voorhis, a five-term incumbent and a New Deal liberal.

When the campaign for the 1946 election began, Mr. Nixon, far behind his opponent, developed a technique he would use over the years: discredit your opponent before your own campaign starts.

Mr. Nixon issued a statement billing himself as a "clean, forthright young American who fought for the defense of his country in the stinking mud and jungles of the Solomons," which he had not, while his opponent "stayed safely behind the front in Washington."

In another statement, with reference to the poblical action committee of the Congress of Industrial Organizations, he said: "I welcome the opposition of the PAC with its Communist principles and huge slush fund." Mr. Voorhis's defense that the PAC had not endorsed him and that it was not Communist did not keep Mr. Nixon from winning.

The Alger Hiss case made Mr. Nixon a national celebrity. In August 1948, Mr. Hiss, a highly regarded former State Department official, was accused by Whittaker Chambers, a former Communist and then a senior editor at Time magazine, of having given Mr. Chambers secret government documents for delivery to the Soviet Union in 1937 and 1938. Mr. Hiss denied the charges and swore he did not know "a man named Whittaker Chambers."

The matter might have been dropped had Mr. Nixon not doggedly pursued it as head of a special subcommittee of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. After Mr. Hiss filed a libel suit against Mr. Chambers, the latter produced five rolls of microfilm of documents he said had been passed to him by Mr. Hiss. Mr. Hiss was indicted for perjury, and after two trials was convicted in 1950.

Day of Mourning Wednesday buried on the library grounds next to his wife. Pat, who died last year.

In his proclamation and in a separate message to Congress, Mr. Clinton said the nation will always owe him a special debt for opening diplomatic doors to Beijing and Moscow during his presidency."

Mr. Clinton also praised Mr. Nixon's efforts to improve the nation's welfare, law pent and health care systems. Kathy O'Connor, Mr. Nixon's administrative assistant, told The Associated Press Saturday that Mr. Nixon's daughters "are very upset and distraught." They are glad to know that he's at rest,"

A Clinton administration official said Mr.

Nixon's decision to forgo a state ceremony had been made in the last year or so during consultations with the Defense Department office that oversees state funerals. Pentagon officials declined comment.

PORTRAIT OF A POLITICIAN: Clockwise from left, Richard Nixon waving from a helicopter after resigning on Aug. 9, 1974; meeting with Charles de Gaulle in 1969; taking part in the "kitchen debate" with Nikita S. Khrushchev in 1959; addressing American soldiers in South Vietnam in 1969, and dining with Prime Minister Zhou Enlai of China in 1972.

In 1950, Mr. Nixon, who had his eye on the Senate seat vacated by Sheridan Downey, a Democrat, was supported by major California newspapers and unopposed in the Republican primary. Representative Helen Gahagan Doug-las, a liberal supporter of the Truman adminis-tration, emerged as the Democratic candidate. From the beginning Mr. Nixon set out to discredit his opponent's loyalty to the American system. He distributed more than half a million pink-colored fliers that said Mrs. Douglas had "deservedly earned the title of 'the pink Mrs. Douglas was actually denounced by pro-Communist groups as a "capitalist war-monger," and it was in this campaign that Mr. Nixon was first called "Tricky Dick." But he won by 680,000 votes after a campaign that supplied Democrats with anti-Nixon ammuni-

It seemed strange to some that Dwight D. Eisenhower, running for president as a moderate, picked Richard Nixon as his running mate in 1952, although politically it made sense in many respects. But the campaign was barely under way when it was revealed that 78 wealthy California businessmen had raised $18,235 to defray political expenses for Mr. Nixon.

His defense was a virtuoso performance. He maintained that he had done nothing wrong, disclosed his mortgages and other financing to show he was in fact poor and in debt, attacked m and asked beople to tell the publican National Committee whether they thought he should resign. His best remembered remarks were in reference to his wife and a dog named Checkers. "Pat and I have the satisfaction that every dime that we've got is honestly ours. I should say this - that Pat doesn't have a mink coat. But she does have a respectable Republican

Then he said a man in Texas had given the amily a cocker spaniel, "black and white and

"And our little girl, Tricia, the 6-year-old, amed it Checkers. And you know the kids love the dog, and I just want to say this right now, that regardless of what they do about it, we're going to keep it."

Public response was overwhelmingly favorable, and he remained on the ticket. There was also the "kitchen debate" with Nikita S. Khrushchev, while Mr. Nixon was on a trip to Moscow in 1959 to open an American exhibit at a fair. In the kitchen of a model home, the two men engaged in a folksy dialogue on the relative ments of the capitalist and Soviet sys-

They stood jowl to jowl, the Soviet leader occasionally jabbing Mr. Nixon's chest for emphasis. The outcome was inconclusive, but Mr. Nixon won acclaim at home for the forceful manner in which he defended the American

After the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket won again in 1956 by a wide margin, Mr. Nixon was successful in grooming himself for the 1960 presidential nomination, which he won on the first ballot. In an effort to appeal to the "Eastern establishment," he chose Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts as his running mate. The Democratic ticket was Senator John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Senator Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas.

The campaign went badly from the beginning. For the first time in his career, Mr. Nixon was on the defensive, forced to defend the Eisenhower record and to his reputation as an unfair campaigner.

Still, Mr. Nixon campaigned as doggedly as ever, and the outcome was extraordinarily close. In the popular vote Mr. Kennedy led by 113,000 out of 68.8 million cast. It was Mr. Nixon's first defeat and the last he would accept graciously.

At 48, Mr. Nixon returned to California and entered the 1962 race for governor against Pat Brown, the liberal Democrat incumbent. It was another tumultuous campaign, but the voters seemed to recognize what Mr. Nixon admitted in his memoirs: He did not really want to he governor, he wanted to be president.

The night of his defeat he was in a foul mood. He felt he had been abused by the press, and when pressed to make a statement, he marched into the press room and made an angry farewell-to-politics speech that included the line, "You won't have Nixon to kick around anymore, because, gentlemen, this is my last press conference."

Ever restless, he moved to New York as a senior partner in a Wall Street law firm. But he spent little time as a lawyer. He worked at becoming president. The crushing defeat of its 1964 nominee, Barry Goldwater, left the Republican Party in a shambles. It was Mr. Nixon who moved in and did the drudgery of rebuilding a constituency, He was "the new new Nixon," and on Jan.

, 1968, he formally announced his candidacy for the presidency. He rolled easily through the primaries, and won the nomination on the first ballot at the convention in Miami Beach. President Johnson withdrew as a candidate because of the opposition to the Vietnam War. Senator Robert F. Kennedy was assassinated in Los Angeles in June. Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey was nominated by the Democrats. At 55, Mr. Nixon seemed to have matured and put the excesses of his youth behind him.

His mastery of foreign affairs and the prospects that he would bring an era of reforms after years of hastily enacted "Great Society" programs appealed to many. Mr. Nixon won the popular vote by a narrow nargin and got 301 electoral votes to 191 for Mr. Humphrey and 46 for Governor George C. Wallace of Alabama, on a third-party ticket.

Despite his promises in the campaign and as president to cut back on government spending. Mr. Nixon's record was otherwise. One reason was that he had a liberal, Democratic Congress. Another was that he did believe in many innovations for government aid, and in the 1970s there was a strong public demand for such SCIVICES.

Most of Mr. Nixon's energies, however, were spent in foreign affairs. He tried to fulfill his pledge to end the Vietnam War, which had dragged on for four years, through what he privately called "the madman theory," and it did not work. Mr. Nixon sought to convey to North Vietnam a message that he was so ob-sessed hy Communist aggression that he would do anything to force a settlement the United States could accept.

In 1973, U.S. forces withdrew from Vietnam under terms many believed could have been obtained when Mr. Nixon was inaugurated in 1969. But Mr. Nixon strongly disagreed with that assessment. The "peace with honor," which included the return of American prisoners, was supposed to protect the independence of South Vietnam. Still, just more than two years later, North Vietnamese troops took over the country.

In February 1972, Mr. Nixon made a triumphant trip to China to establish relations with its government for the first time since the Communist takeover, followed in May by the first of three summit meetings with Leonid I. Brezhnev and other Soviet leaders.

Over all, the Nixon era was a period of relaxed tensions between the world's two greatest powers, and progress in commerce and cultural exchanges.

With the advantage of being in office, Mr. Nixon in the 1972 campaign was able to exceed his 1968 performance in controlling the image he wished to portray on television, of a strong, moderate president who could get things done. Voters at the center were so distrustful of Senator George McGovern and his leftist supporters that the South Dakota Democrat never seemed to be within striking distance of victory.

On June 17, five men employed by the Committee to Re-elect the President were arrested in a burglary at the Democratic National Committee headquarters in the Waterpate complex in Washington, and two others were arrested later. White House officials, including the president, dismissed the burglary as a stupid act by overzealous campaign workers, and the defen-dants themselves said that no one close to Mr. Nixon was involved.

+ India Indonesi

The Democrats' efforts to turn the incident into a campaign issue had little effect, and Mr. Nixon's victory was overwhelming. He had barely embarked on his second term.

however, when the Watergate scandals began to consume virtually all of his energies.

Judge John J. Sirica of Federal District Court threatened long jail terms for the defendants, and James W. McCord, convicted on burglary charges in January, responded by promising to tell all in return for leniency. He implicated John W. Dean 3d, the White House counsel, who also began to talk. Mr. Dean's full story was disclosed in the summer in televised hearings before the select committee of the Senate that had been set up to investigate the matter. He told of White House involvement in Watergate from the day of the hurglary onward. On July 16, Alexander P. Butterfield, a for-mer aide, disclosed to the Senate committee that Mr. Nixon had secretly taped conversa-tions in his Oval Office almost from the beginning of his presidency.

There began a long series of struggles by Congressional committees and prosecutors to obtain the pertinent tapes, with Mr. Nixon resisting on the theory that a dispute within the executive hranch or a dispute between Congress and the president was not subject to the jurisdiction of the federal courts, and that the president's private counsels were protected in order to maintain the efficient operation of 20vernment. As the dispute continued, a parallel but unrelated crisis came to a head: Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, a former governor of Maryland, was charged in July 1973 with taking money from contractors who solicited business with Maryland; the prosecutors said the practice continued even when he was vice president.

On Oct. 10, Mr. Agnew agreed to resign and pleaded no contest to one count of income tax evasion. Two days later, Mr. Nixon named Representative Gerald R. Ford of Michigan as vice president.

His selection of the well-liked House minority leader was seen as a way to avoid another confrontation with Congress, which had to approve the choice. But as the charges unfolded, Mr. Nixon seemed to lose much of his political judgment. The "Saturday Night Massacre" of

Oct. 20, 1973, was a case in point.

After Archibald Cox, the special Watergate prosecutor, refused to agree to a Nixon plan for access to the White House tapes, the president ordered Attorney General Elliot L. Richardson Mr. Richardson refused, and resigned. His deputy, William D. Ruckelshaus, also refused, and was dismissed. Finally, Solicitor General Robert H. Bork, as acting attorney general, dismissed Mr. Cox.

The action caused a major erosion of support for the president. Calls for his resignation

The president quickly relented on the subpoenaed tapes, after disclosing that two of the nine tapes were missing and a third had an unexplained 18½-minute "gap," and he announced that he would name a new special

Soon the new prosecutor, Leon Jaworski, wanted more tapes, The Senate Watergate committee wanted tapes. The House Indiciary Committee wanted tapes.

The tapes and other evidence from the investigations eventually showed in great detail as-pects of the "dark side" of the Nixon presidency that had been concealed from public view, particularly Mr. Nixon's personal involvement in the cover-up. Not only did he propose paying bush money to the Watergate defendants to keep them from implicating the White House, FBL.

In late July, the House Judiciary Committee, with millions of Americans watching, deliberated articles of impeachment. At the end of the month, with some Republicans joining the majority Democrats, the committee charged that in violation of his constitutional duty to take care that the laws be faithfully executed," Richard Nixon had "prevented, obstructed and impeded the administration of justice." It seemed almost certain that the full House would impeach the president, and his chances of avoiding conviction by the Senate were beginning to seem little better.

Mr. Nixon's closest aides began an orches trated effort to lead him to a decision that his only choice was to leave office voluntarily.

On Aug. 7 he met with his family and aides and that night, following constitutional proce-dure, Mr. Nixon informed Mr. Kissinger that he had decided to step down. Mr. Ford was informed the next morning.

At 9 P.M. on Aug. 8, the president appeared on television and announced he would resign at

Tributes by National Leaders

World leaders paid tribute over the week-end to Richard Nixon as a international statesman who achieved diplomatic triumphs from Moscow to Beijing.

In a warm statement Saturday, President Boris N. Yeltsin of Russia said, "I am shocked by the death not only of an extraordinary man but also of one of the greatest politicisms in the world.

"I became convinced that he was one of the first major world politicians who have understood Russia, and understood what it was fighting for," Mr. Yeltsin said.

In China, where Mr. Nixon's diplomacy led to the reopening of relations, leaders praised the former president for bringing both countries closer. In a telegram of condolence, President

Jiang Zemin and Prime Minister Li Peng saluted Mr. Nixon as "a politician with strategic long-term vision and political courage

Chinese television began its Saturday news programs with the report of Mr. Nixon's death. The New China News Agency de-scribed Mr. Nixon, who visited China five times after his historic February 1972 trip, as

In other reaction from around the world: • Prime Minister John Major praised Mr. Nixon "for his tireless work for a better understanding between East and West."

"an old friend of the Chinese people."

• Prime Minister Yitzhak Rabin said Mr. Nixon had defied the world by supporting Israel in the 1973 Middle East war. "Israel lost a friend. I personally lost a personal friend," Mr. Rabin said.

• Prime Minister Morihiro Hosokawa praised Mr. Nixon's efforts to improve post-World War II relations, particularly the 1972 return of its southernmost island, Okinawa. Vietnam's Foreign Ministry had only a one-sentence reaction to Mr. Nixon's death: "May he rest in peace."

Whether you're trying to reach another country overseas, or call back to the U.S., Sprint Express* can help. Just dial the access code of the country you're in to reach an English-speaking Sprint operator. You don't even have to be a Sprint customer. All you need is a U.S. local calling card or WorldTraveler FONCARD. If you're calling the U.S., you can even call collect. But next time you call, use Sprint Express. It can make foreign countries seem a little less foreign. 1040317

000-137

CALLING ONE FOREIGN COUNTRY FROM ANOTHER IS NO

633-1608 001-800-777-1111 Angentina Australia 008-551-110 Australia 0014-881-877 022-903-014 1-800-389-2111 878-11-0014 Relize (Hotel) Belize 4717 per phon

1-806-877-8000 1-800-623-0877 000-8016 △8miish Virgin Isl. 1800-877-8000 Cambodia (Pinnen Penk) 80-01-01 Certain restrictors apply where country to country calling is invalidable. Listing subject to change. For current numbers customer service or additional numbers call the Synrat Access Number of the country you re in, or 1-800-877-4648 whate in the U.S. Bold denotes country to country calling any Use Global Calling 2911 number & PNICARD before a several before country to country calling availability. A FONCARD before several copie Call local operator for assistance. FONCARD before called a several copie. Public phones may require several copie Call local operator for assistance. FONCARD before called u.S. termination only. In some areas, set the local operator to connect you to the Sprint Operator phones, push red button, sed for tone then did 02+ Available of military phones only. Available in military phones.

/+China 986-13-0010 Colombia-English Colombia-Spanish 980-13-0110 + Costa Rica 080-900-01 + DCvprus 0042-087-187 ▲ Dominican Ecrasky + El Salvador 9868-1-11284 +France + * German 008-001-411 + Greece +Guatemala ▲ Honduras

001-800-1213000 800-1877

108-13

177-102-2727 + Italy + Japan + Japan 172-1877 0066 $55-K77 0800-12 * Korex 009-16 550-2USS ‡Korea 550-FONE +Korea Kuwak 800-777 +Liechtenstein 155-9777 √ Lithurmin 8+197 0800-0115

66+800-01-877 + Malaysia Mexico 1-806-55-2001 New Zealand Nicatagna O Nicatagna (M + Norway Parterna ▲ O Paraguay √Peru Philippines (ETPI stations only)

Philippines m.m. 105-16

0x00-121 800-0016 95-800-877-8000 19+0087 06+022-9119 +Netberlands Amilles (101-800-745-1111 000-999 02-161 050-12-877 008-12-800 /Philippines |PhilCom|

NSNT/LR77 1-800-877-8000 -Puerto Rico 01-890-0877 +ΩRomania +ΩRussia 155-6133 +Seipso +ΩTissian and R 235.0333 b 1-235-0333 1800-15 Saudi Arabia X000-177-177 0-809-99-0001 400-44-00L3 △$L Locia + Sweden + Switzerla 020-799-011 155-9777 0080-14-0877 O Taiwan 001-999-13-877

United Kingdom ...... 9500-890-877 United Kingdom err 9800-890-877 \( \Delta\) United Kingdom 9500-800-800 1-800-877-8666 - U.S. Virgin Islands 1-800-877-8000 > Urnguay + Vatican City Venezuela-English 800-1111-0 Venezueki-Spanish 800-1111-1 Sprint

+ Turkey 60800-1-+ United Arab Emirates 800-131

Nixon: A Political Odyssey

Watergate Will Remain

If not the dominant politician of his time, he was surely the most durable. It thus came as something of a mild surprise, when he died Friday at the age of 81, that Richard Nixon had somehow failed to survive time itself.

It is, of course, the multiple offenses associated with Watergate for which Mr. Nixon is immediately remembered: the "dirty tricks" campaign, the conviction of so many of his associates for perjury and obstruction of justice and, finally, his own resignation to avoid an almost certain impeachment proceeding. This betrayal of the public trust remains the granite flaw that forever bars Mr. Nixon from the pantheon of great presidents.

Yet he endured after that disgrace, just as he had survived President Dwight Eisenhower's doubts about his fitness to be vice president, a narrow loss of the presidency to John Kennedy in 1960 and a humiliating defeat in his try for the California governorship in 1962. By sheer will he clawed his way back to a semblance of respectability, turning himself into an elder statesman and an adviser to presidents.

Throughout this cycle of victory, defeat, disgrace and resurrection he provided Americans with a lodestar for their political beliefs: they admired or detested him, but there was very little neutral ground. Future historians will find it hard to ignore a man who so transfixed his contemporaries. But what to make of him now?

With one or two exceptions, contemporary chroniclers agree that Mr. Nixon was at his best on the international stage. Foreign policy was unquestionably his first tove and there were ootable triumphs, most famously the opening to China and the first strategic arms agreement with Moscow. But the SALT-1 treaty was not without serious flaws, and his tortured exit from Vietnam remains hugely controversial; history may give him and his chief strategist, Henry Kissinger, a more mod-est grade than they have awarded themselves.

Conversely, most students have tended to underrate his domestic achievements. As Tom Wicker observes in his book on Mr. Nixon, "One of Us," the 37th president was hardly a visionary or crusader. He was, instead, a shrewd pragmatist with exceptional antennae and the ability to turn public discontents to

From Shame to Stature

Only weeks after Mr. Nixon resigned the presidency in 1974, he became very ill and was believed to be at the edge of death. For an organization such as The Washington Post, which had played a part in pursuing, reporting and editorially denouncing the activities that eventually forced him out of office, and which had incurred both his wrath and his various attempts at retaliation, it was daunting to try to figure out how we could now sit down and write an obituary appreciation of his career. But Mr. Nixon was spared - and so, in an exceedingly minor spin-off of his good fortune, were large segments of the American press he so detested, who did not know how to bid a civil farewell to a man they had so recently and for so long been fighting with and who were writhing in discomfort at the prospect of having to do so.

The 20 years that have gone by since then have certainly not narrowed, let alone obliterated, the unbridgeable gap between those of us who believed —and continue to —that the Watergate offenses for which Mr. Nixon was punished were sinister and dangerous, and those who believed — and still do — that he was unjustly hounded from office.

But those 20 years have afforded a little merciful distance and detachment and made it easier for the late president's antagonists to see his career in a longer perspective. Bill Clinton, who fancies himself the "Comeback Kid" and who has shown an undeniable gift for resilience, is as nothing in this respect to Mr. Nixon, who throughout his life showed an incredible capacity to pick up and start over. It was in fact an abiding worry and joke among Democrats from the days of his earliest political setbacks that Mr. Nixon - seemingly rejected once and for all - would be back; and astonishingly, he always was.

This took guts. A man whose actions and remarks over a lifetime in politics had revealed, even for a politician, an unusually anxious, uncertain, engulfing concern with his reputation, his image, his accordance of respect by his contemporaries and by history, was always willing to risk further ridicule and humiliation in his efforts to start over and gain back lost ground. This he would do in the aftermath of political disasters that would have caused almost anyone else to give up and go home. The audacity this reflected turned up in his particular achievements in office, as well as in some of the domestic initiatives he supported at least for a time but did not complete. The opening of the U.S. government to China after decades of nonrecognition and in the face of great political hostility on the part of the public (which earlier Mr. Nixon had done much to feed) is always cited as Exhibit A in this regard.

But often as not the recital ends at that point, and there is no Exhibit B. This is wrong. We would add the near-equal achievement of opening up the U.S. government to much expanded diplomatic dealings with the Arab states of the Middle East. It is often forgotten that until the late Nixon years, relations between America and all of those states were hostile.

political advantage. The results were sometimes contradictory. Mr. Nixon's "Southern strategy" in 1968 and his appeals to a restless white middle class in 1972 helped popularize racial appeals as a national campaign tactic. At the same time, seeing little choice, he ordered the Justice Department to continue dismantling the dual school system in the South.

Though he was no more an activist on the environment than he was on civil rights, Mr. Nixon correctly sensed a growing public ap-petite for a cleaner America and made that concern the centerpiece of his 1970 State of the Union address, months before the first Earth Day. His support made it easier for Congress to pass two seminal pieces of legislation, the Clean Air Act of 1970 and the Clean Water Act of 1972. Mr. Nixon also sought to reshape the nation's welfare system in much the same manner Bill Clinton proposes today; with a little more effort and a lot more help in the Senate, he might have done so.

But policy issues do oot account for our fascination with a man woo combined insecurity and ambition in explosive measure and was equally capable of unexpected kindnesses and staggering vindictiveness. Nor do issues of policy or ideology explain why, at the height of his powers and facing a weak opponent in George McGovern, he encouraged a pattern of illegal behavior that ultimately destroyed his presidency.

A provisional answer may be found in a phrase Mr. Nixon often applied to himself:
"At bottom, I am a political man." He used these words proudly, as if to mock the intellec-tuals and moralists he despised, but in the end they might well serve as an epitaph. For if they were meant to suggest a talent for maximizing political opportunities, they also implied the absence of any guiding moral compass besides a burning dedication to political survival.

Mr. Nixon would have found such an assessment too narrow, but any fair reading of the record soggests that Watergate was only the endgame of a career in which he lavished as much energy on ocutralizing or destroying his opponents as on cultivating allies. Add to that a perfect memory for real and imagined insults, and it is possible to see why he sanctioned the activities that brought him down. -THE NEW YORK TIMES.

Mr. Nixon also engaged boldly with the Soviet Union and undertook to carry his party along as with his China initiative on journeys it did not much care to make (although none of this sped or smoothed his ability to achieve the end be sought in Vietnam).

Similarly, there were in Mr. Nixon's presidency at least dalliances, and sometimes more, with a variety of domestic reforms on welfare, on medical care and on the environment, among others, that were bold for the time; some of them look even better now in the light of subsequent right-wing reaction and left-wing mousiness in government. In his presidential years, despite some people and some policies that pointed the other way, Mr. Nixon ended up playing a raw game of racial politics, not unlike the McCarthyite indulgences that marked his earlier career. And for all his 1968 campaign pledge to "bring us together," he was too often and too readily given to "enemies list" type politics, a weakness for which he eventually paid a higher price than the objects of his animus did.

But that was not the sum total of the man or his handiwork. Along with the dark side and the resentfulness, Mr. Nixon had a large and maginative concept of the American presidency and what it could accomplish, a concept that not all of his successors have shared. He was willing to think big and take big risks on some notable occasions. To the immense annoyance of those of us who spent so much time locked in combat with him, Mr. Nixon always liked to say that he was "not a quitter." The extraordinary, redemptive journey be undertook from shame to stature in the last two decades of his life proved that he was surely right about that. -THE WASHINGTON POST.

Other Comment

Perhaps History Will Abide

While Watergate will out be forgotten, Mr. Nixon's skill in managing what could have become the life-and-death struggle of the Cold War is valued by many historians. Mr. Nixon was more progressive than his Republi-can successors on civil rights issues. The Clinton welfare reform proposal contains elements of Mr. Nixon's family assistance plan, which was torpedoed by conservatives.

t oever admired Mr. Nixon. I thought it hypocritical of him to denounce Harry Truman for using rough language that was similar to Mr. Nixon's own private talk. I was appalled by Mr. Nixon's destructive, Red-baiting campaigns. f wanted him to end the war in Vietnam. I wanted him to acknowledge that Watergate was wrong. But I share the sadness of his admirers. He was a shy, complicated man who fought his way to the top from unlikely beginnings. As president, he was a visionary diplomat who made the world safer. As an ex-president, he was a patriot who shared his wisdom with his successors. Perhaps history will be kind to him, after all.

- Lou Cannon, in The Washington Post.

International Herald Tribune ESTABLISHED 1887 KATHARINE GRAHAM, ARTHUR OCHS SULZBERGER

RICHARD McCLEAN, Publisher & Chief Executive JOHN VINOCUR, Executive Editor & Vice President

 WALTER WELLS, News Editor
 SAMUEL ABT, KATHERINE KNORR and CHARLES MITCHELMORE, Deputy Editors . CARL GEWIRTZ, Associate Editor ROBERT J. DONAHUE. Editor of the Editorial Pages

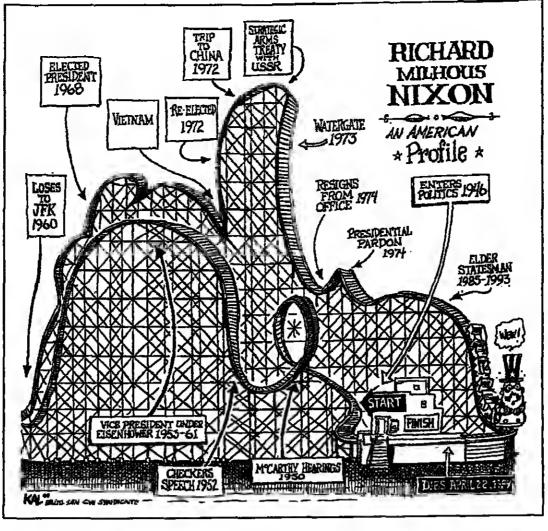

■ JONATHAN GAGE, Business and Finance Editor • RENÉ BONDY. Deputy Publisher • JAMES McLEOD, Advertising Director

JUANITA L CASPARI, International Development Director • ROBERT FARRÉ, Circulation Director, Europe

Directeur de la Publication : Richard D. Simmons

International Herald Tribune, 181 Avenue Charles-de-Gaulle, 92521 Neuilly-sûr-Seine, France. Tel: (1) 46.37.93.00. Fax: Circ. 46.37.06.51; Adv. 46.37.52.12. Internet: IHT@eurokom.ie

The Melancholic Toll Of Ambition's Fervor

By George F. Will

what its combination of triumphs and tragedies, any life defined primarily by tenacity must seem, at the end, a story of some bravery but even more melancholy. In Richard Nixon's long slog through various valleys of humiliation, to political triumph and disgrace and partial rehabilitation, there were many episodes of glory, but a constant griminess. His political life turned on five Dwight Eisenhower jeopardized by financial dealings of a sort not un-common at the time, Mr. Nixon, steadily more cynical, saved himself with the "Checkers" speech before the largest relevision audience in history to that time.

In 1960, he lost the presidency by a sent the Watergate committee a

As Elder Statesman, Remember Him Kindly

WASHINGTON — In the last two decades of his long and turbulent life, Richard Nixon worked hard at becoming the global elder statesman of his time despite the disgrace of Watergate.

He had succeeded in that final grand endeavor at the hour of his death Friday night.

For America's 37th president, foreign policy was ission in office, solace and salvation in defeat Mr. Nixon's active engagement abroad and his generally well crafted foreign affairs books and speeches could not erase the stain of his involvement in the nation's most notorious obstruction of justice case. Nor was Mr. Nixon naive enough to think they would - that he could "rehabilitate" himself in U.S. politics by elder statesmanship, an intention frequently imputed to him by critics.

His endeavor was different, I concluded as I listened to him give several major talks on foreign affairs and read his books in recent years. Mr. Nixon set out not to recall his foreign policy accomplishments, but to enhance them with the nonpartisan, constructive unofficial diplomacy he pursued after resigning the presidency.

As a result, his foreign policy accomplishments are likely to loom larger in history than they otherwise would. His policy failures in Vietnam and in securing a lasting detente with Moscow shrink, while his successes in China and the Middle East take on an extra glow in light of his campaign to be The Foreign Policy President of this century. In contrast to his overly enthusiastic embrace of Leonid Brezhnev, it is hard to fault Mr. Nixon's clear-eyed appraisal of the decisive events and per-sonalities of the final years of the Soviet Union and the opening phase of the Russian Federation. He

N EW YORK — The most re-markable thing about the debate over health care reform in the United States is how little has been Policymakers address every flaw

in the system except its most grievous one: Americans live less healthy and shorter lives than people in most other industrialized countries.

sional competitors will not bring about the improvements in health that lie within grasp. We need new ways to make sure everyone gets the handful of services proved to pre-vent disease and extend life.

Ton few people get the vaccina-tions that prevent infections and the mammograms, pap smears and ex-aminations that can detect cervical, breast and colon cancers while they are still curable. Nor do most people with high blood pressure or elevated cholesterol receive effective treatment that can prevent strokes and heart attacks. These cancers and cardiovascular diseases account for half

The Clinton proposal recognizes the importance of promoting good health and preventing disease, but it banks on the most expensive and least effective of its policy options of all deaths in the United States.

The Clinton plan and its congressaid about health.

By Jim Hoagland

prodded George Bush on helping Boxis Yeltsin at a crucial moment in 1992. After his most recent trip to Moscow, he had valuable advice to offer the Clinton administration on overhanking aid to Russia and broadening contacts in the ex-Soviet Umon.

I heard him summarize those views three weeks ago in Washington in what turned out to be his final extensive foreign policy presentation. For 90 minutes, the EI-year-old Nixon stood before a group of 30 of us and without any notes delivered a compelling, persuasive analysis of Mr. Yeltsin's current predicament, Japan's future, Eastern Europe's security preoccupations and other foreign policy topics.

The Nixon shrewdness so apparent in his dealings with world leaders — and so absent in his dealing with the crimes of Watergate — glimmered particularly through his remarks about the Russian extremist politician, Vladimir Zhirinovsky, Mr. Nixon portrayed the Russian as an overreaching opportunist ready to say anything to win votes.

Mr. Zhirinovsky's anti-Jewish ravings were in large part electoral calculation, Mr. Nixon said. What seemed far more real and heartfelt were the extreme anti-Muslim sentiments Mr. Zhirinovsky voiced in their meeting but which he has not emphasized in public. The Zhirinovsky phenomenon probably reached its highwater mark in December's elections in Russia, Mr. Nixon believed. Mr. Zhirinovsky benefited from the vacuum left by the jailing in October of Alexander Rutskoi and other Yeltsin opponents. Their release after the election means there is a conservative anti-Yelt-

A U.S. Health Corps Can Do the Prevention Work

By Michael Alderman and Donglas Shenson

to deliver the preventive goods: im-

Experience suggests that provid-ing such access does not in itself translate into the delivery of pre-

Forty-six years ago, the National Health Service was established in Botain to guarantee everyone access to a generalist doctor. While British health has improved, the gap that separates the most from the least fortunate has widened since 1948. Poor people have higher rates of virtually every disease, including those in which preventive services

Goaded by the persistence of preventable deaths, the British have abandoned the belief that guaranteed access to doctors assures the delivery of these services. They now pay doctors to focus on prevention.

But it is unclear whether this will do the job: Studies reported in The British Journal of Medicine in January revealed that efforts in the doctor's office to reduce the risk of stroke and heart attack have had Medical care systems do best in serving the sick. They have never little if any impact.

could make a difference.

proving access to doctors.

ventive services.

sin alternative that is also anti-Zhirinovsky. Mr. Nixon particularly emphasized to his audience America's need to take into account Russia's recent humiliation and determination to regain its recent humination and determination to regain its dignity. Respecting Russian dignity was in fact the key to efforts to crafting a stable new U.S.-Russian relationship, he indicated.

Losing and regaining dignity was a subject Mr. Nixon knew a lot about and recognized easily in the case of others. He had no chance to recover his dignity through domestic politics after Watergate. was only operating on the world stage as a private citizen that he could do that, as he had after ns defeat by John Kennedy in 1960.

Mr. Nixon's final remark to his Washington audience was simultaneously puzzling and revealing. As he sat down, he recalled "that it is exactly 47 years since John F. Kennedy and I arrived in Washington to serve in Congress together," at a crucial moment in defining America's role after victory in World War II.

Why recall Mr. Kennedy before this group? An aswer offered by others there who knew Mr. Nixon far better than I: The former president wanted to emphasize that he and Mr. Kennedy, while political rivals, shared a common view of America's role in the Cold War world and of the need for active, engaged American leadership in foreign affairs.

Mr. Nixon's last great endeavor was to persuade his current successor and his countrymen that, despite the end of the Cold War, the oeed for American leadership in foreign affairs remains clear and constant. History, which must judge him harshly in many other ways, will remember him kindly for that.

The Washington Post.

As long as America places the responsibility for prevention in the hands of those who encounter only a small part of the population and whose aim is to cure rather than deter disease, the most powerful weapons against premature death will never be effectively used.

Responsibility for the public's health must be established. Guaranteed access to care for all is a commendable objective. But arguments about cost, physicians' fees, regulation and tax consequences threaten

If America continues to focus on to obscure the real purpose of care.

ways to finance the treatment of dis-eases rather than on ways to prevent them, the opportunity to improve the nation's health will be missed. Reform must be about better health.

not just better access to doctors.

The two are out the same, and should not be confused.

Michael Alderman is chairman, and Douglas Shenson a professor, of the department of epidemiology at the Montefiore Medical Center/Albert Einstein College of Medicine.

They contributed this comment to

The New York Times.

memo containing an exact quote from a conversation with John Dean, the committee staff might never have thought to inquire about a taping system and he would have completed two terms. But anyone thinking that Mr. Nixon deserved a better fate from Watergate should remember his silence as his brave daughter Julie criss-crossed the country defending him against charges he knew to be true.

He was an intelligent man despised by intellectuals. A man with a gnawing sense of his inferior education, he nevertheless brought into his admin-istration two Harvard professors as foreign policy and domestic policy advisers — Henry Kissinger and

Daniel Patrick Moynihan - and he also enlisted the services of other ex-traordinarily talented intellectuals, including George Shultz, James Schlesinger and Arthur Burns.

If one takes as a simple but service able measure of modern liberalism's program the expansion of the central government's role as society's supervisor, Mr. Nixon's administration was more liberal than any, other than

CAPITA

Bond I

To All

~

78-78-

₹ X.

200

12. . . .

....

1 . . .

.

2007

22

5.7725

X:--

z 7 - "

WASHINGTON - No matter

close calls. In 1948, he had the right hunch about Alger Hiss. Watching the Washington establishment rally around Mr. Hiss, Mr. Nixon honed his cynicism and stoked his resentments.

In 1952, his place on the ticket with thin margin and perhaps by fraud. In 1968, 18 years after he had last won an election on his own, he won a 43 percent victory. And if in 1973 his lawyers had not Lyndon Johnson's, since World War II. In the Nixon years, the federal government created the Environmen tal Protection Agency and the Occu-pational Safety and Health Adminis-tration; it began racial quotas and set-asides; Mr. Nixon favored an enormous "industrial policy" project, the federal funding of the supersonic passenger aircraft; he proposed a guaranteed annual income; he instituted wage and price controls, the most sweeping intrusion of the state into society since the New Deal; he was smitten by John Connelly, a Tory Democrat with a zest for gov-ernment domination of markets.

Mr. Nixon's largest achievement was the opening to China. But as the architect of détente he probably pro-tonged the life of the Soviet Union. And although he fancied himself at daggers drawn with the nation's intellectual clites, he joined the foreign policy clite in making a fetish of arms control with the Soviet Union. That project was impossible until it was unimportant: impossible because of the Soviet Union's hegemonic aims. then unimportant because the Soviet Union was imploding.

There were many episodes of glory, but a constant griminess.

Mr. Nixon was spectacularly ill-suited by temperament to become president in the late 1960s, a moment of extreme cultural fragmentation. Traditional political preoccupations with economic redistributions were being supplanted by anxiety about the disintegration of the cultural unity of the postwar period. Lacking an articulable defense of the cultural values under siege, be became a vessel in the House of Representatives, where his ascent to national prominence began with his confrontation of Mr. Hiss, his career was closed by the Judiciary Committee's impeach-ment hearings. His remaining 20 years were spent using his reputation for statecraft to regain some of the public's respect, and even the affection that often accrues to the tenacious.

Uotil his forced retirement from active politics, the acids of resentments had ulcerated his personality until self-pity was its strongest fac-ulty. Politics is mostly talk, a lot of it small talk with strangers, at which Mr. Nixon was never comfortable. Rarely, and never contentedly, employed other than at politics, he measured out his life in forksful of chicken à la king with contribotors and county chairmen. That is not good for the soul.

In his nationally televised farewell to his staff in the East Room on Aug. 9, 1974, he read Theodore Rooseveit's words about the death of his wife: "And when my heart's dearest died, the light went from my life forever." That equation of the loss of political office to the death of a loved one was terrifying testimony to the toll ambition can take on character, Washington Post Writers Group.

What Price America's Moral Failure in Bosnia? Disillusion at Home

tive care to an entire population. As the British experience suggests, it will take more than a raise in physicians' pay to ensure that everyone gets the services they need.

better. America should abandon its reliance on doctors to achieve prevention. Just as local school authorities are responsible for providing primary and secondary education to all, a public health corps built on local health departments could take responsibility for deliver to each individual, sick or well, the clinical procedures that count. Most can be provided by trained technicians, with norse and physician supervisioo. The cost would be a tiny fraction of the trillion dollars the country spends each year for medical care, and the payoff in improved health would be huge.

The Clinton plan acknowledges the importance of an effective public health service and includes ini-tiatives to streamline community-based activities. But these things are hardly central to the plan, which

An accountable authority would a community's prevention needs.

Perhaps the United States can do azde, Zepa, Srebrenica, Sarajevo, Tuzia and Bihac, Help has been slow.

B UDAPEST — When American politicians and generals discuss Bosnia, they often have Vietnam oo their minds. Their warnings about quagmires, mission creep and the shortcomings of air strikes relate to Vietnam and the lessons that should have been learned from it. But they are ignoring the most relevant lesson: A government that is deceptive and acts immorally will undermine its credibility with the governed, particularly the younger generation. Every generation has its watersheds. For George Bush's generation, it was World War II and the Cold War. For Bill Clinton's, it was Victnam and Watergate. I am 33 years old, which nestles me amid Generation X and the yappies, and for us Bosnia is turning into a watershed of disillusion. President Clinton, by opening himself up to justified criticism about bypocrisy and appearement, is deepening the apathy of younger Americans who want a government they can respect and believe in.

It might be true that most members of my generation could not find Bosnia on a map, let alone Gorazde. But you do not need to understand Balkan politics to realize that the U.S. government has failed to accomplish the bare minimum, which is to do what it says it will do on an issue that it has defined as one of good versus evil. The goal of rolling back the Serbs was long ago abandoned, but at least, we were assured last year, America and its allies at the United Nations would protect six "safe areas" - GorBy Peter Maass

The sad story of Bosnia's demise presided over by America and its al-lies, is not new. The imminent fall of Gorazde is just another nail in its coffin, hammered into place by the Serbs and observed by the rest of the world. But because Gorazde's fall has received spectacular media coverage, and in the obvious disarray of Mr. Clinton's laughable policy for containing the Serbs. Americans are getting a subversive, if perhaps accurate, message on the evening news: Their goverument is incompetent and immoral. Distillusion is not new to my generation. We have had Watergate, Oliver North and the Iran-contra affair, some bad times in the job market and, more recently, Whitewater, But even during my hypercritical days a decade ago as editorial page editor of the student newspaper at the University of California at Berkeley, I thought the gov-ernment could do good things. But now Bosnia. The foreign policy experts talk about America's loss of credibility on the global stage. I worry about something more intimate, about the loss of credibility between America's government and its governed. An important bond is being frayed. This increases my worries about the future of my country.

My hometown, Los Angeles, has endured sufferings in the past year that are almost biblical — fire, floods. earthquake. Its nonbiblical tribulations include high unemployment, gruesome crime, race riots and urban decay. Is America in a tailspin? I don't know. Nobody does. But we all know that it needs to get moving again. That cannot happen unless people have hope, and unless they have a government that they trust. I am living overseas, so it might seem unwarranted for me to talk about "my" generation. But I visit America often enough to stay in touch. Thanks to the wonders of satel-lite television, I watch American network news before going to sleep - 1 probably see it more often than my peers in the United States. I am also part of the cyber crowd, so every day I log on to CompuServe and browse through the Global Crises bulletin board, a computer talking shop for such world issues as Bosnia.

When people post messages on the Global Crises bulletin board, they have undramatic headlines such as "Serb Attack on Gorazda." The messages are often interesting and provocative. During the past few days 1 noticed that new people, not the "regulars," were posting messages. Gorazde has touched them. There was an musual headline on a long message posted by a newcomer who couldo' believe America was standing on the sidelines. The headline was simple; Pain So Deep in the Soul."

The failure to protect Gorazde crystallizes and deepens the American government's failure in the past two years (a failure that was nursed into life by a Republican administratioo). President Clinton could have stood up to the Serbian attack on Gorazde long ago and, in a small way, refired our trust in government to do the right thing, or at least try to. He managed to regain a bit or credibility by staring down the Serbs over Sarajevo earlier this year. But with Gorazde, he fell flat. The disillusion grew with each Serbian shell that hit Gorazde's hospital.

The writer reported on the Bosnian war for The Washington Post in 1992 and 1993. He is on leave to write a

IN OUR PAGES: 100, 75 AND 50 YEARS AGO

1894: Uniontown Strife

NEW YORK - A serious disturbance is reported from Uniontown, Pa. A coke-worker on strike having been arrested, a body of lifty women went to the police-station and de-manded for his release. This being refused, the women fiercely attacked the sheriff's posse, who were compelled to use their weapons. A number of women were felled with clubs or beaten with rifle stocks, others received bayonet wounds. The situation in the town is described as alarming. 1919: Italy and the Slavs

PARIS — Sem Benelli, the Italian poet and dramatist, has written for the Herald the following comments on President Wilson's manifes-to for Italy: President Wilson evidently considers our people as on the plane of an African colony, dominated by the will of a few ambitious men; and with the greatest ignorance of our history, he does not seem to know even that this war was waged by the whole Italian people against those enemies whom Mr. Wilson now shields and protects with all his affection and strength against us. Those enemies, yesterday, were called Austrians. To-day, the Austro-Hungarian Empire having disappeared, they call themselves Yugo-Slavs — that is, Southern Slavs. But they do not cease by that fact to be less Slav and, therefore, less enemies of Roman and Italian civilization, which the Slavs for centuries have worked to destroy.

1944: American Thrust

ADVANCED ALLIED HEAD QUARTERS IN NEW GUINEA -[From our New York edition.] American troops who landed early [April 22] in the Hollandia area in the first Allied penetration into Japaneseheld Dutch New Guinea are advancing rapidly from Tanahmerah Bay, the westernmost of the three landing points, it was announced today [April 25] by General Douglas MacArthur.

North Smar Industrial Sec 2009 110 2009 110 Valines ... Finance

Asiz Paci!

INTERNATIONAL STREET CUR Good Rates

: 14 Other Dollar Value

Retos

CAPITAL MARKETS

Bond Investors Are Blind To All News but Bad News

By Carl Gewirtz

nai Herald Tribune ARIS - European bank analysts are reassessing the depth ARIS — European bank analysts are reassessing the dopper of the gloom pervading bond markets and concluding that there will be no quick escape from the fear that is eroding prices. The extent of the pessimism was exposed when bond prices across Europe slumped after the Bundesbank cut its money-market interest rate by one-eighth percentage point after the previous week's quarter-point cut in its floor and ceiling rates. What normally would have been good news for bond markets was transformed into a disaster last week as investors used the seemingly good news as a chance to unload.

There are lots of people who have been badly burned this year and are ready to use any opportunity to sell what they still own," a U.S. banker said. Investors 'are ready "It looks to us as if investors who fundamentally believe Euto use any opportunity ropean bond prices will rise are being forced to get out because to sell.' they have reached pain thresholds and cannot afford to keep bolding paper in a market that cootinually goes against them," a Swiss banker commented. Adding discomfort is the increased volatility. Although volume in cash markets is everywhere reported to be relatively modest, activity in futures markets is robust with daily price movements in the benchmark Deutsche mark market now averaging half a point, nearly double what the market was accustomed to.

This situation is directly linked to the reassessment under way of growth prospects in Germany and the impact faster-than-expected growth will bave on short-term interest rates.

News that Economy Minister Gunter Rexrodt expects growth this year possibly exceeding 1.5 percent, up from the earlier forecast of 1 percent, was not welcomed; the futures market now prices the low in short-term German rates at 5 percent in September. (The finance minister. Theo Waigel, made a similar comment over the weekend.) By end-year, three-month money is priced at 5.17 percent. The current rate is 5.44 percent.

"It's a super-sensitive environment," one analyst observed. "There's a beightened sensitivity to what faster growth will mean for bond yields following the dreadful first-quarter experience of the United States and Britain."

Joanne Perez at Banque Indosuez in Paris noted: "Pessimism over the longer-term evolution of interest rates provides a major obstacle to a sustained recovery in European bond markets." New-issue activity remains subdued; the daring few who approach the market are mostly confined to short-dated paper of five years. Germany's Landeskreditbank Baden-Wilrttemburg, or L-Bank, tapped the market for 2 billioo DM with five-year notes in a global offering, the secood ever io this market. The global formula allowed a larger-than-normal size, assuring trading liquidity that is especially prized these days. "Buy-and-bold investors are just not there." one manager commented, "so liquidity is at a premium."

Family and Business at Kohlberg

International Herald Tribune, Monday, April 25, 1994

leveraged buyout firm founded by Jerome Kohlberg, who also was one of the founders of Kohlberg, Kravis, Roberts & Co. James Kohlberg, 36, is now managing partner of the firm, which is based in Mount Kisco, New York, while Jerome, 68, continue full-time as senior partner. James Kohlberg shared his views on the buyout business with Susan Antilla of The New York

Q. What do you make of all the hype about the yet-to-be-seen information highway? A. There's no question there was a lot of hype, And more than hype, people were paying for revenues that were in someone's imagination — it's still a fantasy. As a businessman, I don't know how you value that — how you pay for that. When you look at the people who have made massive fortunes in different industries, from Sam Walton to Bill Gates, none of them started out with this grand vision of what the world would be like in 15 years.

The Dollar

Just Can't

Get Going

By Carl Gewirtz

International Herald Tribune

nario that the foreign-exchange market was supposed to be waiting for; A cut of one-eighth percentage point in German money-market rates, following the previous week's quarter-point decline in floor and ceiling rates, and a quarter-point

This was the material to get the dollar started on its long-expected cyclical rise against the Deutsche

Dealers certainly thought so, But when they realized they were the only ones in the market they retreated - and so did the dollar, It ended last week trading at 1,6882 DM, below the previous week's closing level of 1,7145 DM. "It's all been fully anticipated," one disgruntled trader explained.

The market bas been so focused on the dollar's potential upside, everyone is so bullish, that there's oo momentum behind any upward movement," said Michael Burckhardt at Hessische Landesbank in

The major disappointment, observers said, stems from the rela-tively timid size and drawn-out timing of both the U.S. rate increases and the German reduc-tions. But analysts also cited a number of other factors to account for the market's disillusion with the

An upward revision in likely growth this year in Germany, rais-mg questions about how low inter-

· Concern about the widening U.S. current-account deficit, which is expected to add some $200 billion this year to the stock of dollars

Dollar sales by European and Asian central banks unrelated to

See DOLLAR, Page 11

held ontside the United States.

dollar. These include:

est rates will fall.

Frankfurt.

increase in U.S. rates.

PARIS - It was the dream sce-

Q. You mean they found something people needed right away. Like pots and pans? A. Pots and pans. Or a software program that would run a computer. I don't mean to suggest that those men don't have vision, because vision is an important part of being successful. But so are pots and pans and the people who need them now.

Q. So you are running the firm now? A. Yes. I have the title of managing partner, but it really is run as a team.

Q. How have your investors done?
A. Our record is north of 50 percent average annual return from the time the fund started in January 1988 with $305 million. Q. And now you're starting a new fund? A. Yes. We're going for $250 million and are over 90 percent invested. Q. What's been happening with the com-panies in your first fund?

A. We took four public in 1993 (ABT Co.,

ABC Rail Products, Northwestern Steel & Wire and Welbilt Corp.) and did one second-ary offering. We sold a fifth one — Crossland Mortgage. Crossland was one of our quickest exits. We bought it for $80 million in December 1992 and are closing the sale in two weeks at $132 million.

Q. How do you pick companies? A. When we first started, we had the traditional criteria that all the investment companies talk about: stable companies with stable cash flow, good historical cash generation, lots of assets. But over time, what we've added to that is the ability to invest in more troubled situations - companies whose balance sheets are overleveraged or who have gotten into trouble for other reasons.
Q. What's been Kohlberg & Co.'s biggest

A. ABT, a building products company that we bought in October 1992 for $95 million, and took public in June 1993 at $15 a share. And I'll tell you before you even ask that our worst was Colorado Prime Corp.

Q. What went wrong at Colorado Prime? A. Oh, a lot of things. The primary mistake frankly was extending a bridge loan that relied on a "highly confident" letter from

China Expects 17% Inflation, Missing Target

BEIJING — An economist working for China's cabinet has forecast that nationwide inflation will hit 17 percent this year, missing the government's 10 percent target. In an article Saturday in the offi-cial China Daily, Ma Jiantang, an economist in the State Council's Development and Research Center, also predicted that prices in 35 large and medium-sized Chinese cities would jump by an average of 22 percent this year.

Earlier this month, a State Statistical Bureau report estimated that China's economy would grow this year by 11.5 percent, well above the 9 percent target set by Prime Minister Li Peng in March.

The combination of high growth and high inflation threatens to undermine China's economic reforms, Mr. Ma said in the article.

"Checking further price hikes and maintaining price stability is vital to the success of China's reform and economic development this year," he said.

In a related development, the People's Daily, another official or-gan, reported Saturday that the State Council would ban intures trading in steel, coal and sugar to prevent speculation on these commodities from fueling inflation.

A State Council notice forbids all futures contracts in sugar and steel with a delivery date after Oct. 1. It calls for a similar ban on coal

China's economy last year grew 13.4 percent, and nationwide inflation ran at 13 percent for the year. In the first three months of 1994, that rate shol up to an annual rate

24.5 percent in major cines. The government responded to the increase by capping prices of basic goods out of concern that inflation could fuel social unrest. Mr. Ma endorsed that policy, say-ing the government should delay plans to lift price controls for crude oil, electricity, freight transportation and housing rents. Chioa had planned to allow companies to raise the price of these products this year in an attempt to attract domestic and foreign investment to these industries and alleviate shortages.

The China Daily Business Week-ly said Sunday that Beijing was considering allowing foreign in-vestment in the manufacture of large electrical generators. Westinghouse Electric Corp. and Signess AG are reportedly eager to take np the challenge. Many of China's existing generators are imported, but at great ex-pense, and officials quoted in the report said boosting domestic generator production through foreign investment was the only way out of the supply crisis. Separately, the China Daily reported Saturday that labor unions would enjoy expanded rights in state enterprises under new official guidelines

An All China Federation of Trade Union document defining the role of unions under a "modern enterprise system" stipulates that they are to be empowered with rights involving labor contracts and to be given representation on the board.

The document is to be submitted to the State Conncil.

(Bloomberg, AFP)

The reins have been passed this year from father to son at Kohlberg & Co., the

World Bank Backs Asia on Trade

By Alan Friedman International Herald Tribune PARIS - A strongly worded

call for Europe to "embrace, not fear" expanded trade with the prosperous emerging economies of East Asia is to be issued in Brussels on Monday by Gautam S. Kaji, a World Bank vice president in charge of the region. In the speech, an advance copy of which was obtained by the International Herald Tribune, Mr. Kaji contended that Europe's fear of losing jobs and competitiveness to low-wage manufacturers in countries such as Singapore and Malay-

The World Bank official, putting his finger on one of the most politically sensitive issues in world trade, said that enhancing trade ties with the region offered "the best longterm prospects for job growth and economic security in Europe."

He said Europe could not legislate its economic security and should accept that the low-wage nations of East Asia would eventually offer new export markets and opportunities for investment in public works and environmental technology. Mr. Kaji rejected what he described as the European Union's "feeling that the developing countries of East Asia bave an unfair advantage, that they are not play-ing by the rules." He said it was "anxiety" about competition from East Asia that inspired recent beated discussions among members of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade about linking trade rules to wages and working conditions. The speech is in many ways a should reduce their tariffs. But he concluded that "the world is big enough to accommodate both a See TRADE, Page 10 reply to countries such as the United States and France that have been urging links between workers' rights and world trade. This link, considered a pretense for protec-tionism by officials of several East

Asian government was urged by

Vice President Al Gore of the United States during his speech on April 14 at the signing of the Uru-guay Round trade accord among

Mr. Kaji conceded that there was

"some ground" for concern that Europe, with lower trade protection than Asia but higher wages and bet-ter working conditions, may be subsidizing East Asia's economic suc-cess. He also said East Asian nations

125 GATT members.

Expatriates Pan for Gold in the New Prague

By Henry Copeland Special to the Herald Tribune

PRAGUE - Maura Griffin is the Sylvia Beach of her generation. Together with four partners, the 29-year-old former Associated Press reporter owns and operates the Globe, a combination case and store for second-hand English-language books that opened in Prague last July.

Packed floor to ceiling with books and wall to wall with yoong expats, the Globe recalls the disheveled buzz of Miss Beach's Shakespeare & Co., the Paris bookstore that served as bank and bookshelf for denizens of the Lost Generation. Although the Globe's bestsellers are Henry Miller and Ernest Hemingway, its generation is not lost. Ms. Griffin's patrons wear Gore-Tex, not berets, and they are more likely to be writing business plans than fiction. A back-cover notation on an Economist left by one Globe patron sums up their dreams: "$15 million x $300,000 - $4.5 million." The Globe is just one of a constellation of establishments opened in Prague by Americans, most of them under 30. There's Red Hot & Blue, Jo's Bar, Buffalo Bills, and, for anyone looking for a beer and big-screen television, Sport Bar Praha. According to the United Nations Eco-nomic Commission for Europe, foreigners established 3,900 ventures in the Czech Republic through the third quarter of 1993, plugging vacant market niches, the legacy of Eastern Europe's centralized econor In 1989, Czechoslovakia's private sector accounted for only 4 percent of gross domestic product, compared with 29 percent in Poland and up to 22 percent in Hungary. according to figures compiled in the 1993 Annual Economic Review of the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development. With so much ground to make up, Czechoslovakia's private sector catapulted into hyper-growth after 1989, swelling 40 percent a year, a rate four times the average for other private sectors in the region.

"A conspicuously large share" of foreign investment in Eastern Europe appears to have gone into the service sector, particularly tourism, because of low start-up costs and the prevalence of demands unfilled by state monopolies, the EBRD noted.

Indeed, 31-year-old Scott Otto, owner of Sport Bar Praha, said he often serves people like himself, young entrepreneurs who have come to Prague to try to provide "services that people here oeed, but don't know that they need,"

"A lot of young Americans come in, have a beer, and we compare ootes," he said. One guy imports athletic gear, another brings in bicycles, a couple of guys from San Francisco are trying to start a businessservices center." Others have started an employment agency, a pure water vendor, and a software company.

In October 1991, Mr. Otto quit his job in New York as a corporate finance consultant at Ernst & Young to move to Prague. He spent three months learning Czech, then started looking for business opportunities. He considered opening a tennis resort. Instead, Mr. Otto built his sports bar, modeled on an establishment near his apartment in New York. He raised $200,000 to renovate a space that now contains four televisions, two pool tables, a basketball machine, a dart board, two bars, 20 tables and an athletic clothing store.

Another entrepreneur, Glenn Spicker, came to Prague in the summer of 1992 "with a van, a couple of bikes, a computer and a lot of ideas." Behind him lay an unfinished grad school paper on privatiza-oon in Czechoslovakia, ahead of him, a 15year lease on 200 square meters (2.150 square feet) of prime real estate just off the city's central square.

Now 15 Czechs work for the 28-year-old American, serving New Orleans-style food at Red Hot & Blues, bis 60-seat establishment. Waitresses pull down nearly as much in a week as Czech doctors earn monthly, Mr. Spicker said. He and his parmer are still learning the tricks of their trade, and they only recently realized that a cash register can help clock customer traffic.

The Globe's owners, mostly former journalists, are also learning about business. They called on friends with business degrees for help writing their business plan. The group miscalculated badly, Ms. Griffin said, projecting sales of two books an hour. In fact, 1,000 books were sold on opening day and sales have since settled at about 20 books per hour. While the Globe depends on its oonnative patrons, at Sport Bar Praha, which opened last August, half the patrons on an average night are Czechs. Before the bar opened, Czech friends warned Mr. Otto, "people here don't go to a bar to watch sports. They didn't realize that was because there was no place to go."

Articles in this series appear every other

Deutsche Bank Takes the Offensive

By Brandon Mitchener aional Herald Tribune

FRANKFURT — After two weeks of being bashed about its handling of loans to a missing real estate magnate, Deutsche Bank AG plans to bash back on Monday, even as prosecutors go through the bank's files on the affair.

Hilmar Kopper, the bank's chairman, as well as two fellow board members, Georg Krupp and Ulrich Weiss, are to face the press to 'explain the facts of the Schneider case from the bank's point of view and the consequences for the bank," according to an invi-

Judging from previous com-ments, the bank will assert that it was tricked by Jürgen Schneider and his wife into lending them money well in excess of their busi-

Mr. Kopper has already conceded that there may be "systemic problems" to solve, and angry Dentsche Bank shareholders are demanding the resignations of those responsible. Politicians, meanwhile, are proposing new limits on the influence of banks in the German economy. Senior members of the opposition Social Democratic Party and the Free Democratic Party, the junior coalition partner in Bonn, said over the weekend that both the banks' shareholdings in other German companies and the banks' representation on their boards should be

Although the proposals were immediately dismissed as electionyear politics, they have put the bank on the defensive.

One of the main questions to be answered is bow much Deutsche Bank knew before the Schneiders disappeared, leaving it and about 40 other institutions holding more than 5 billion Deutsche marks ($2.95 billion) in IOUs backed by property that may be worth less than half that total.

that the bank had questioned Mr.

of assets and habilities in February, According to a spokesman, the possibly contributing to his feeling of being found out."

According to a spokesman, the bank immediately contacted key associates of the magnate at his ing of being found out."

The bank had stopped lending to main holding company, Dr. Jürgen Mr. Schneider in the summer of 1992 after deciding it had "lent Mr. Schneider enough," Mr. Kopper told German television.

The bank had stopped lending to main holding company, Dr. Jürgen Mr. Schneider AG, who had received a similar letter. "They invited us to come out to Königstein," the spokesman said, where bank and company officials company of the second of the magnate at his main holding company. spokesman said, where bank and company officials compared notes at the Schneider headquarters for > German media have described the discussions as a "search" of the Schneider headquarters, a description that the bank's chief spoke man, Helmut Hartmann, denied. When our team had a question files, or showed them to us," be said. "It was never a search."

See DEUTSCHE, Page 11

Schneider about "unconvincing while he went on vacation to avoid positions" in his annual statement stress.

of assets and habilities in February, Acc

Previously, officials of Deutsche Bank and other creditors had said they had no reason to suspect Mr. the next four days. Schneider of wrongdoing or even being in difficulties until April 7, when a courier delivered a farewell letter dated April 4 that was addressed to Mr. Weiss. In the letter, Mr. Schneider In the letter, Mr. Schneider they couldn't answer, they went asked for a two-year holiday from into the next room and looked into interest payments and an emergency loan of 80 million DM. He also more or less suggested that the Nonetheless, a spokeswoman for bank, his biggest single creditor, assume anthority for his businesses

MARTIN CURRIE GEFINOR FUND MANAGEMENT COMPANY Société anonyme

Registered office:

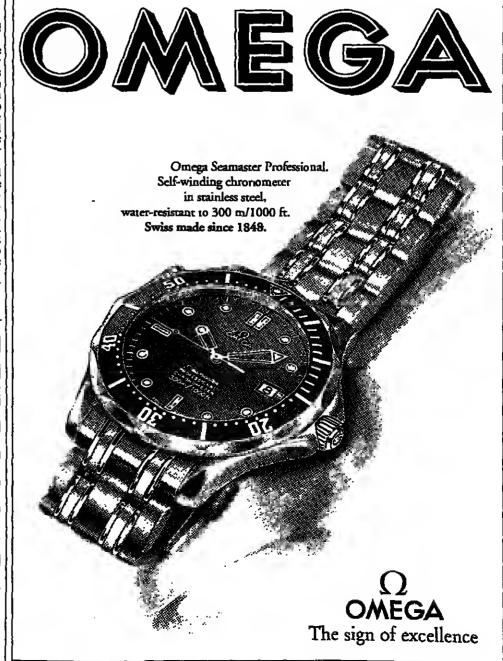

15, avenue Emile Reuter, Luxembourg R.C. Luxembourg B 21 167

NOTICE TO THE HOLDERS OF SHARES IN SCOTTISH WORLD FUND

Following the change of ownership in the Management Company, article 1 and article 19 of the Management regulations of Scottish World Fund has been amended by the replacement of the reference to Gefinor Limited, Nassau, Bahamas by the reference to Gefinor Bank Limited, Grand Cayman, and the prospectus has been updated consequently.

Luxembourg, April 20th, 1994.

Martin Currle Gefinor Fund Management Company S.A. Société Générale Alsacienne de Banque Luxembourg Branch

International Herald Tribune

stocks from 25 countries,

compiled by Bloomberg

Week ending April 22,

Business News.

daily closings.

World Stock Index, composed

-init at Homi

1307 1007 1 ECU 1 SDR Currency
Me2, pess
N. Zealand 3
Norw, krose
Phil, pess
Polish zioty
Port, escudo
Ross, rubis
Soudi rival Sing, 5 Per $ 248.00
1.727
102.93
31.36
3158.01
0.693
2.994
0.297 Per 1 1,3994 1,7409 7,34 27,45 22,463 173,14 1792,90 3,7495 1,5597 S. Afr. rand
S. Kor. won
Swed. krone
Taiwan 5
That bets Turkish Uro
UAE pitrhum Per 5 0.9901 1.393 11.909 1130.01 1.6789 29.62 6.631 3.3815 Apptr. schil. Brozil Croz.

Cross Rates

60-day 1,3813 103,48 38-007 1,4894 1,6948 1,4356 49-day 1,4880 1,4946 1,4378 98-day 1,4572 1,4575 1,4372 Sources: ING Bank (Amsterdom); Indosuez Bo

CURRENCY RATES

Mr. Kopper revealed last week

U.S. Boom Boosts Orders for Tools

Bloomberg Business News

WASHINGTON — American machine tool orders rose 25.8 percent in March from February, bolstered by the strong U.S. economy, the Association of Manufacturing Technology said

On a year-on-year basis, the increase was 4.4 percent. Orders for a 23.5 percent decline from Janumachine tools, which cut and shape ary, previously reported as a demetal for carmakers and other industrial companies, are closely watched by economists as a gauge of factory output and business in-

Tool orders totaled $346.80 million during March, up from $275.65 million in February.

"Domestic orders continued their strong pace, giving us the best first quarter since 1980," said Albert Moore, president of the trade group. "New capital spending fore-translate into a good 1994 for the Demand for U.S. machine tools is weaker outside the country because of economic slowdowns in Europe and Japan and because of competition.

The February figure represented crease of 22.1 percent.

By category, orders for metalcutting tools increased 25.8 percent in March from a month earlier, to $231.25 million. Orders for metal forming tools rose 25.9 percent, to

Shipments increased 12.5 percent in March, to $304.0 million while the backlog of orders, which tracks machine tool makers' ability to meet demand, increased 2.8 percent. to $1.598 billion.

At G-7, U.S. Presses for Growth

WASHINGTON - The United States pressed Japan and Germany to do more to stimulate their domestic economies as finance officials from the world's seven richest industrial countries conferred Sunday on the threat to global growth posed by rising interest rates.

Finance officials and central bank presidents of the Group of Seven - the United States, Japan, Germany, Britain, France, Italy and Canada met behind closed doors at Dumbarton House in Washington's Georgetown district.

The G-7 talks were being held in advance of the annual spring meetings of the 178-nation Interna-tional Monetary Fund and its sister lending agency, the World Bank.

While IMF economists are forecasting that the global economy in 1994 should turn in its best performance in five years, that is due primarily to unexpectedly strong growth in the United States. The IMF has actually revised downward its expectations for growth in Japan and Germany.

Treasury Secretary Lloyd Bentsen said in advance of the talks that Germany should cut interest rates and Japan needs to do more to stimulate domestic demand to improve the global economy's growth prospects.

Mr. Bentsen was particularly pointed in his comments about Japan. The administration has been pressuring Japan to make a tax cut permanent and take other measures to boost domestic demand as a way of reducing America's record $60 billion trade deficit with that country.

Finance officials from other countries are concerned about the recent jump in long-term interest rates in the United States that was triggered by credit tightening on the part of the Federal Reserve

U.S. officials have insisted that financial markets have overreacted to the Fed's small tightening

In advance of the group meeting, Mr. Bentsen held a series of one-on-one talks Sunday morning with officials from Russia, Japan and Germany.

A Treasury official, speaking on condition that his name not be used, told reporters that Mr. Bentsen had a "useful discussion" with Finance Minister Hirohisa Fujii of Japan in which Mr. Bentsen had pressed the Japanese to go further with government stimulus measures.

Mr. Fujii told reporters that he had stressed to Bentsen the significance of the stimulus measures already taken by Japan.

TRADE: World Bank Supports Asia on Jobs Link

Continued from Page 9 thriving East Asia and a strong European Community." The two regions, he said, need each other.

Comparing Europe's "trepida-tion" about the threat posed by East Asian economies to the choice the European Union faced when it admitted Spain and Portugal, Mr. Kaji said: "Look at the consequences since then, both for the European Union and for those countries. Their trade and gross domestic product have steadily climbed - and so has the Community's."

■ Latin Americans Bridle

Foreign Ministers from Latin America and Europe pledged Saturday to jointly protect human rights and tackle social problems to stating: "The Rio Group ministers foster development, but the Latin reject the unilateral application of Americans firmly rejected any link any political, economic, social and between these sensitive social issues and trade, Reuters reported market access in international from São Paulo.

"We're very clear on this, that it's not appropriate to establish any kind of conditionalities," said Diego Parades, the foreign minister of Ecuador.

"Free trade, not conditionality, is the best way to help the Brazilian worker," said Celso Amorim, foreign minister of Brazil.

Latin American concerns over attempts by Europe to tie trade access to prickly issues like human rights, child labor or workers' rights were apparent during a twoday meeting of European Union and Rio Group ministers that ended Saturday. It was the first meeting of two large North-South regional groups since the historic signing last week of the Uruguay Round world trade

The declaration issued at the end of the São Paulo meeting reflected the Latin American position by trade relations.

Theodoros Pangaios, Greece's alternate foreign minister, said that Europe could not abandon its con-take Latin America's position into account when considering trade with the region.

Addressing fears in Latin America that the region might be in danger of losing its past favorable trade position with Europe, Mr. Pangalos said the European market was त्रवक्षात्त्व <sup>द्रा</sup>

fied Coup

...

A\*. .  $s \cdot \Delta V$ 42.00

open for business.
"The European Union is the freest trading partner in the world today," he said. According to European Union figures, Latin American exports to Europe fell to 22 billion European currency units ($25.14 billion) in 1993 from 25 billion Ecus in 1990. In contrast, European exports to Latin America jumped to 23 billion Ecus in 1993 from 15 billion Ecus

> For investment

information Read The MONEY REPORT every Saturday

in the IHT

WEEKLY INTERNATIONAL BOND PRICES

Provided by Credit Suisse First Boston Limited, London, Tel: 322 40 00. Prices may vary according to market conditions and other factors. April 22 April 22

Dollar Straights

Con Mai Price Yld Trsv

Supranationals

Div Yld 1005 High Low Clse Chee Stocks

101 (3) 101 (3) 101 (3) 101 (3) 101 (3) 101 (3) 101 (3) 102 (3) 103 (3

Div Yid 1994 High Low Cise Chipe Stocks.

经 # 301/2 30 95% 871/2 05% 54% 54% 54% 105/6 Db Fin Ny Jon Denmork Aug 25 5.22 +84 5.57 +145 5.76 +147 7 95% 44% 18% 95% 88% 88% 88% 8205 8205 85% 36% 37% 37% 55% 71% leagh Mills Action Juni Todis Juni Todis Juni Todis Juni Todis Juni Todis Dec Todis (PT Dec Todis (P 528 +142 721 +54 Philips Cr Jus. Pro Really Jon 99% 71%

Div Yid 100s High Low Clae Chops

NASDAQ NATIONAL MARKET

ended Friday, April 22.

Div Yid 1005 High Low Cise Chipe Stacks

| Section | Sect

| The color of the

Div Yid Tools High Low Cise Chee Stocks

مكنامنالئحل

New International B

Compiled by James E. Connell			Bond		Issues
Paris By James E	Connell					193065
Saucr	Amount (millions)	Met.	Coup.	Price	Price end	Terms
Floating Rate N	0000				Week	14.5
Union Européene de CIC	$200	1997	0.125	99.88
Halifax Building Society	£100	1998				Over 3-month Libor, Noncofieble, Fees 0.15%, Denominations $10,000. (Kidder, Peobody Int'L)
31 international			0.25	99%		Over 3-month Liber, Noncollable, Fees 0.20%, (J.P. Morgan Securities.)
De Nationale	£150	1999	0.1875	99.725		Over 3-month Libor, Callable at par from 1997. Fees 0.4625%, (Kleinwart Berson Ltd.)
Investeringsbank	¥ 10,000	2001	0.395	100.30		Under 6-month Liber. Minimum coupon is 3.6% until 1997, maximum is 5.3% until 1999, From 1999, the notes become rized-Coupons						collable at par and pay a 5.3% coupon. Fees 0.30%. [Mitsubi- shi Finance Int].]
PT Astro Int'I	*100
Saden-Wucrnemberg	$125	2001	9%	99.90		Noncollable, Fees 1%. [Chase Investment Bank Ltd.]
r-Linduce MA	ow 5'000	1999	6	99.20		Noncollable global issue, Fess 0.25% (Deutsche Bank AG, J.P. Morgan, Salomon Brathers.)
Coisse Centrale de Crédit Immobilier	FF 1,500	2002	6	92.83		Noncellable. Fungible with outstanding issue, resing total to 4 billion frames. Fees 0.355. (Credit Lyomois.)
Crédit Local de France	DR 350	2004	6¾	991/4	-	Reoffered or 98.575, Noncollable, Fees 1%, (ASN ANSO Bank
Abbey National Treasury Services	m. 150,000	2004	9%	100,30		NV.)  Collable at par from 1996, Fees 2%, (Credita Italiana.)
Toyota Motor Credit	ITL 250,000	10
Sweden		1999	83%	101.657		Noncolloble, Fees 1%%, (Deutsche Bank AG Landon.)
	C$ 200	1999	81/4	101.245		Reoffered or 99.62. Noncollable. Fees 19/9. (Daiwa Europe Ltd.)
Suedwestdeutsche Landesbank Girozentrale	y 20,000	1999	3.85	100,15		Noncollable. Fees 0.25%, [Merrill Lynch Int]

DOLLAR: Circumstances Conspire Against Currency

Continued from Page 9 the Bank of Japan's efforts to keep the ven from appreciating. Central banks "have been strong sellers over the past eight or nine days," noted Rainer Marian at Credit Suisse in Zurich. The selling has not been speciac-ular, Mr. Burckhardt observed. But a couple of million, constantiy," he added, has become a weight on the market. Traders offer a multitude of explanations for the sales. Some say the banks are selling on behalf of the Malaysian central bank, which is supposedly still unwinding losing positions built up by its former management. Others suspect there is a rehalancing going on in Europe aimed at reducing holdings of dollars in favor of marks. Whatever the motivation, dealers agree that such selling jo a market already lacking conviction has greatly diminished volatility. That outcome alone could justify the central-bank actions, as officials nave greater control in markets where price movements are relarively small. "It makes their interventions more influential," one analvst comments.

Regarding current investor demand. William Dudley at Goldman, Sachs & Co. in London conhave not increased sufficiently nor cent next year. have German rates decfined ments. "There are no big portfolio shifts into the dollar under way," heavy due to the widening trade deficit, means that those who are acquiring dollars "require a risk premium," Mr. Dudley added. "To hold dollar assets means you have to expect the dollar to appreciate." And at current levels the dollar does not appear to offer that perspective, be said.

"The dollar is not so undervalued as is popularly assumed," he said. He noted that estimated measures of the dollar's purchasing power parity of around 1.90 DM "vastly overstate where the dollar should be," In his view, that parity is somewhere around 1.75 DM and given the increased risk premium on the dollar trade at some discount."

"The market is slowly coming to

DEUTSCHE: Schneider Defense

Coatinued from Page 9 the Frankfurt district prosecutor's office, which is now investigating the Schneiders for fraud, said it was "disturbed" by Deutsche Bank's access to privileged information and that it would begin searching Banker Sues Deutsche the bank's files on Monday.

Despite exposure totaling 1.2 billion DM to the Schneider group, a loose alliance of companies owned by Mr. Schneider and his wife, Deutsche Bank has taken pains to distance itself from its debtor. "Deutsche Bank is not the financier of the Schneider group," it said in a statement on April 13, one day before it filed suit against the Schneiders for fraud.

Mr. Hartmann said Mr. Kopper had oever met the developer. "Mr. Schneider didn't come and go in every board member's office," Mr. Harimann said. Out Mr. Schneider himself, in his letter 10 Mr. Weiss, wrote about a close relationship: "Deutsche Bank, along with its mortgage banking subsidiaries, has the biggest snare or our rotal balls don't the form the sum in question.

most important ongoing projects (Bernheimer Palais, Hotel Rose and Borsencenter). In addition, Deutsche Bank has the most farreaching information about our as

Two newspapers, the Wiesba-dener Kurier and the Darmstädter Echo, said Saturday that a retired chief of a regional German bank had filed a legal complaint against Deutsche Bank with the Frankfurt state prosecutor, according to a Reuters dispatch from Frankfurt.

Fritz H. Haase reportedly alleged that Deutsche Bank "failed to meet the minimum requirements" for checking and dispensing loans to the Schneider group. Spokesmen for Deutsche Bank and the Frankfurt prosecutor's office had no im-mediate confirmation of the suit.

The weekly Der Spiegel said that Deutsche Bank had let 240 million DM that Mr. Schneider had held in Switzerland slip through its lingers by acting too slowly. A spokesman confirmed the bank was trying to gest share of our total bank bor-

The Case of the Misbehaving Yield Curve

By Floyd Norris New York Times Service

NEW YORK —A funny thing happened when the Federal Reserve Board set out to raise interest rates this year. The ones they wanted to raise went up only grudgingly. But others zoomed skyward.

Call it the case of the misbehaving yield curve. Short-term rates have moved less than the Fed seemed to have wanted, while long-term rates rose more. Moreover, rates on corporate and municipal bonds have risen more than those on Treasuries. None of this is what was forecast, either by the Fed or by most private economists. The logic was that with inflation obviously not a big threat, a Fed tightening would reassure iovestors and loog bond rates would not go up nearly as much as short rates.

In fact, the rise in short rates has been almost grudging. The Fed has pushed up the federal funds rate — the rate banks charge

Kidder Says

body & Co. has said that it discharged a second trader for concealing losses, a sign that broader problems were emerging at the se-

The trader, Neil Margolin, was the second person to be dismissed by Kidder after being accused of Mr. Margolin's concealed losses,

Kidder said late Friday, amounted to about $10 million. They said that the hidden losses did not result in losses for any Kidder customers or other brokerage firms.

The latest incident is minor,

compared with the plot that Kidder disclosed a week ago after it dismissed Joseph Jett, the head of the firm's government securities trading desk. An internal review of trading practices found that he had conducted an elaborate trading scheme to create $350 million in fake profits and conceal $100 mil-

Still, the two episodes, coming in quick succession, raised questions about the quality of the supervision

Mr. Margolin, who had been at Kidder since 1986, worked on the firm's interest-rate swaps desk. A

Kidder executive said he had been dismissed on Thursday after he "confessed to wrongdoing."

Helen Keehner, a Kidde spokeswoman, said the concealed losses totaled less than $10 million.

The shortfall, she said, would be serves," and not require a special charge against earnings of either

Kidder or its corporate parent, was separate from the scheme that

Mr. Jett was said to have engi-

Kidder said the Margolin case

General Electric Co.

of trading practices at Kidder.

llicit trading activities.

curities firm.

bon in losses.

2d Trader

on loans to each other — by three-quariers of a percentage point, to 3.75 percent. But three-month Treasury bill rates have climbed only about three-fifths of a point, and the increase in the rates that banks pay to savers has been much less than that, in some

U.S. CREDIT MARKETS cases well under half a percentage point Meanwhile, rates on longer bonds are up one percentage point, and in some cases more. Both the bond and stock markets have taken hig hits since the Fed acted. But last week both markets took the latest Fed tightening with more aplomb than they had the previous two.

The bellwether 30-year Treasury bond ended the week yielding 7.23 percent, down from 7.29 percent at the end of the previous week. as its price rose, although the return is about one percentage point higher than it was before the Fed started tightening. At the other end of

had to sell, and sell fast.

mortgage loans, when rates turned up, as rates are no problem.

cast: 12.2 percent.

 April 27 Amsterdam Control bank annual press conference.
Cologne Bayer annual meeting.
• April 26 Assistantam Contral bank

publishes annual report.
Frankfurt Bundesbank council meeting.
Paris Final tourth-quarter gross domes-

· Earnings expected this week ACX

Tachnologies, America West Arrines, Ashland Coal, Capital Cities/ABC, Check-ers Drive-In Restaurant, Consolidated Ed-ison, Eaton, Kaleer Aluminum, LG&E Energy, M/A-Com Inc., Manpower, Martin Marretta, Mirege Resorte, Oshkosh

cue plan for nation's eight alling banks. Cupartino, California Apple Computer CEO Michael Spindler and Novell Inc.

CEO Robert Frankenberg detail new stra legic relationship,

B'Gosh., U.S. Surgicel Corp. • April 25 Washington h

the maturity spectrum, the two-year note long as the bonds were not sold. Now, as the yielded 5.58 at the close of Friday trading, up from 5.47 the week before, as its price fell. losses are generally reported in any case, so om 5.47 the week before, as its price fell.

The stock market lost a mere 12.79 points, there is less incentive to hold on when the to 3,648.68, as measured by the Dow Jones bond market turns down.

Mr. Kaufman cootended that the way The markets' muted reaction to the latest rates are behaving is unlikely to have much Fed move may reflect the lack of alternative impact on the economy. A new recession investments.

would be much more likely if short-rates Mutual funds are seeing less cash flow out were in danger of getting above long-term because the banks, confronted with uninspirates, and the fact nothing like that is hap-ing loan demand, see no reason to bid for pening is very good news.

That has oot stopped some on Wall Street funds. Instead, they bope to push up their profit margins a bit — a fact that may yet from starting to worry that the Fed is going help to give new life to bank stocks.

That has oot stopped some on Wall Street from starting to worry that the Fed is going to keep rightening until it strangles economic belp to give new life to bank stocks.

On the other side, the rise in long-term growth. Evidently, they believe that while interest rates reflects a number of market low interest rates took a long time to help the realities. When rates started to rise, a lot of economy, higher ones can quickly kill it.

managers with leveraged bets on lower rates bad to sell, and sell fast.

Such fears will eventually be proved wrong. When that happens, do not be sur-A few years ago, accounting rules let prised if the stock market mounts a big rally banks hide losses on bonds, not to mention as investors conclude that higher interest

Dismissed By Steve Lohr New York Times Sernice NEW YORK - Kidder, Pea-

This, at a time when the outflow from the United States remains

Jim O'Neill at Swiss Bank Corp. in London further argues that the upward revisions in expected German growth this year mean that 'there is a basic reassessment about Germany under way. It's not the basket case on competitiveness that most people thought; it's on the verge of a significant reversal, with growth increasing and inflatended that "U.S. interest rates tion headed lower, to below 2 per-

"Once the mindset is broken on enough" to pull additional money into dollar-denominated invest-into dollar-denominated invest-inacy in lowering interest rates," Mr. nacy in lowering interest rates," Mr. O'Neill said. "It has carried the German economy though a massively difficult period of transition and the rewards are starting to show up. The market is being forced to reassess the Deutsche mark."

> "In an environment where the market is worried about inflation." says Mr. O'Neill, "there are only three central banks in the world that can be trusted: the Bundesbank, the Swiss National Bank and the New Zealand authorities."

While Mr. O'Neill maintains a long-held opinion that the dollar will trade down to around 1.60 DM by mid-year - a view now more widely shared - other analysts continue to argue that the mark's strength is transitory and will be reversed once the full amount of U.S. increases and German reductions in interest rates become visible later in the year.

This is the view of Norbert Walter at Deutsche Bank in Frankfurt and Avinash Persand of J.P. Morgan & Co. in London. They argue that the market - judging by the performance of interest-rate formes prices - has lost its bearings. The prices show that three-month interbank rates in December are expected in he 5.14 percent on marks and 5.79 percent on dollars. That is a spread of 65 hasis covered by "normal operating repoints in favor of the dollar, down from a differential of 90 basis But the Morgan forecast has

German rates well below 5 percent and U.S. rates approaching 6 pernecred on the government desk.

After Mr. Jett was dismissed. where interest rates are headed, the Kidder also suspended six other employees, who have not been identified. dollar will be free to push higher," Mr. Persaud asserted.

This week's topics:

BusinessWeek

O The Sharp Rebound In Europe's Corporate Profits

O Can Mandela Satisfy Townships And Business?

O The Debt Crisis Isn't Over For Emerging Markets

Now available at your newsstand!

BusinessWeek international

14, av d'Ouchy, CH-1806 Lausanne Tel. 41-21-517-4411

For subscriptions call UK 44-628-23431 Hong Kong 852-523-2939

O Digital Pioneers Are Creating A New Industry

O Italy: Can Berlusconi Untangle His Web?

The Week Ahead: World Economic Calendar, April 25 - 29

A schedule of this week's economic : financial events, complied for the inter

Asia-Pacific

 April 25 Hong Kong February retail Tokyo Japan Automobile Manufactur ers Association tendences teams venicial production. Singapore Unkys, the U.S. computer maker, wite armounce the establishment of its regional headquarters in Singapore. Earnings expected Cil. Holdings, Guangzhou investment, Shanghas Petrochemical.

 April 26 Sydney John Crabb, managing director of recycler Simsmetal, to address Securities Institute of Australia. on the industry's future. Toligo Industrial Bank of Japan to re ship Mortkawa to give an inaugural press snio Morttawa to gwe an integrate press conference as chairman of the Faderation of Japan Bankers Association. Estings expected. Alled Industries In-ternational Arthoid Holdings, IMC Hold-ings, Stone Electronic Technology. • April 27 Camberra: Consumer price index for March quarter, Frencast: Rise of International Arthoid Processis Rise of International Arthoid

0.5 percent, for armual gain of 1.5 percent in year. Hong Kong Shares in Cheerful Hold-begin trading on the Hong Kong stock exchange. Tolgo Japan Automobile Manufactur-ers Association announces Manufactur-Tokyo Ministry of Trade and Industry releases March retail sales and Industrial leases March retail sales and industrial production figures.

Earnings expected Allied Properties (HK), Chine Travel International Investment Hung Kong, Guergdong Investment, Lion Natium, Taington Browery, e April 28 Casberra Australian average weekly earnings for February quarter, Engages Elicibit des

Forecast: Slight rise. Hong Kong March provisional mer-chandise trade ligures. Tokyo Management and Coordination Agency announces March unemployment rate, Tokyo area consumer price index for April and nationande CPI for hisrch. Earnings expected foday Allied Group, Dynamic Holdings, Hongkong Toy Conter International, Maanshan Iron & Steel.

• April 29 Adelaide John Morschet, managing director of financial services and property group Land Lease Corp., to address Securities Institute of Australia on riding the economic roller-coaster. un rizing the economic roller-coaster.

Hong Kang Herbert Hul, executive di-rector and head of leating division at the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, to speak on the role of the Hong Kong stock market in raleing money for China and other parts of Aeta.

Europe

Expected this week Frankfurt-Franklart March IA-3 from fourth-quar-ter base. Forecast Up 14.0 percent in month.

Frankfurt February trade balance, Forecast 6.7 billion deutsche marks surplut in month. February current account, Fore-cast 2.5 billion DM deficit in month. Freekurt Merch Ito business chris Brussels April consumer price Forecast: Up 2.3 percent in year.

Frankfurt April national cost of living -Preliminary, Forecest Up 0.2 percent in month, up 3.0 percent in year, Earnings expected. Arbed, Siemens. April 25 London First-quarter pra-firminary gross domestic product. Fore-cast: Up 0.7 percent in quarter, up 2.8 percent in your. Luxembourg EU finance of ence on Schneider property. Madrid Closing date for bids for Benexto.

• April 26 Frankfurt Six leading German seconomic institutions present their toring report on the seconomy. Lendon April Contederation of British Industry monthly and quarterly undustrial trends survey.

Earthags expected Akzo Nobel, Sears PLC, Mercesse-Bonz.

Sentile Bosing annual meeting.
Toronto International Business Exmings expected Ale

der, Borden, Grumman, Lyondell Patro-chemical, Nasional Steel, Ost Industries, Sears Canada, Stanley Works, Time Warner, U.S. Healthcare. • April 28 New York The Conference Board releases us survey of consumer be product.

Copenhagen Tele Denmark A/8 shares to be listed on Copenhagen Stock Eschange, American depositary receipts listed on New York Stock Exchange. is expecting to set a base price for the sale of state-owned autine Aeropostal. North Branch, New Jersey Merck annu-Earnings expected Impensi Chemical April 29 Copenhagen Danish mar-kets closed for general prayer day.

Parts March unemployment rate. Fore-al meeting. Chicago Amoto annual meeting.

Chicago Amoto annual meeting.
Earnings expected AFLAC, Airborni Freight, Aldus, ComputSA, Computavi
sion, Freeport-McMoRan, Freeport

- April 27 Washington nual meeting.

Deltas Exxon annual meeting.

Attanta NationsBank annual meeting.

meeting.

Estnings expected Alleghery Ludium.
Ambac, SCE, Dotasco, Electronic Data Systems, Ford, GMAC, GM Hugnes, Guil
Canada Resources, Jefferson Pilot, Kansac City Southern Industries, 3M, Murphy
Di Allegheron, Cold, Navanner, Mindry Noricik Southern, Oryx Energy

April 28 Washington Initial esti-mate of gross domestic product growth meeting. Earnings expected Alberto-Culver, A.T. Cross, General Motors, Imasco, Interna-tional Flavors & Fragrances, Internan. Bowes, TransCanada PipeLine April 29 Washington U.S. agnou ture prices for April.

Washington March new home sales.

Washington March personal income and spending.

SAFRA REPUBLIC HOLDINGS S.A.

LUXEMBOURG

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN by the Board of Directors of the Company that the Annual General Meeting of Shareholders of SAFRA REPUBLIC HOLDINGS S.A. ("SRH") will be held at the Hotel Royal, 12, Boulevard Royal, Luxembourg, on May 11, 1994 at 11.00 a.m.

for the purpose of considering and voting on the following matters:

Chairman's Statement.

Statutory Auditors' Report.

Approval of the unconsolidated financial statements of the parent company only, for the year ended

Discharge of the Directors and of the Statutory Auditors concerning their duties relative to the year ended December 31, 1993. Approval of the proposed reduction of US$ 1,131,633 to the reserve for treasury shares.

Approval of the proposed distribution of a dividend of US$ 2.75 per common share and carrying forward of the balance of the profit. Election of the Board of Directors and of the Statutory Auditors for a new one year term. All the Directors

Approval of the consolidated financial statements of the Company for the year ended December 31, 1993.

Approval of a proposal to create an Executive Committee of the Board to comprise Directors.

Authorisation to the Board of Directors to allow the Company to purchase up to 10% of common stock in open market transactions to be held in treasury.

The Board of Directors

Last Week's Markets

All Reures are	os of close	of traditi	g Friday	Money Rates
Stock in united States 0.1 Indus.	dex 95 Apr 22 3.648.68 199.25	Apr 15 3,661,47 194,24	-0.35 % + 2.58 %	United States Oiscount rate Prime rate	Ap	22 300 6%	Apr 15 3,00 614 31/2
OJ Util DJ Trans. S& P 100 S& P 500 S& P 1nd	1,595.02 412.35 447.63 519.27	1610.25 411.31 446.18 518.01	+ 0.24 %	Federal funds rate Japan Oiscount Call money	2	134 1/16 3/16	1% 2% 23/16
NYSE CP Settledin FTSE 100 FT 30	247.95 3.133.70 2.499.30	247.65 3,168.30 2,507.40	-1.09 % -0.32 %	3-month Interbank Germany Lombard Call money	_	694 5.35 5.45	674 5.65 5.65
Nikkel 225 Germany	19,964.		-0.99%	3-month Interbank Britain Bank base rate		514	54
DAX Hone Kone	2,213.92 9,156.85		+0.61 % 3.98 %	3-month interbank	pr 15	5% 54 Apr 15	54 Cirtus
Hang Seng World	A06.30	608.20	_a21 %	London p.m. fix.$ 3	69.65	377.90	—1.95 %

Herald Cribune LIVING IN THE U.S.? NOW PRINTED IN NEW YORK FOR SAME DAY DELIVERY IN KEY CITIES 1-800-882 2884 (IN NEW YORK, CALL 212-752-3890)

USINA HIDRELÉTRICA SEGREDO DERIVAÇÃO DO RIO JORDÃO INTERNATIONAL BIDDING D-03 TURBINE-GENERATOR UNIT AND RELATED EQUIPMENT CALL FOR BIDS COMPANHIA PARANAENSE DE ENERGIA - COPEL informs that

The hidding documents, as well as the technical specifications will be available to the candidates from April 22 on, against payment in cruzeiros reals equivalent to US$250.00, at the following addresses:

80020-942 - Curitiba - Parana Tei: (041) 322-1212 - Ramai 541 Escritorio COPEL São Paulo Al. Santos, 1800 - 14o Andar - Conj. 148 01418-200 - São Paulo - SP Tel: (011) 289-1431

COMPANHIA PARANAENSE DE ENERGIA - COPEL

the international bidding is open for design, supply, transportation assembling and operation start-up of Rio Jordão Derivation Turbine-Generator and Related Equipment, located at Pinhão and Candói municipalities border, in the Stato of Parana - Brazil.

The minimum price type international bidding is open exclusively for iodividual or consortium grouped companies established in IDB (International Development Bank) member countries. The financing of the nems of the present hidding is in accordance with the terms of Loan contract n. 593/OC/BR.

Superintendencia de Obras de Geração R. Voluntarios da Patria, 233 - sala 504

At the time of purchase of the Bidding Instructions, the company shall present a letter containing its complete mailing address.

The bid delivery will be on July 13, 1994, at 3:00 PM, at 233 Voluntarios da Patria Street, 5th floor, Curitiba-PR. The Bidding will be ruled by: Law n. 8666, dated June 21, 1993; resolution set forth by State Decree n. 700, dated September 9, 1991; iDB bidding procedure and by further conditions herein stated and also in the Contract Documents.

Approval of a proposal to change the dividend policy of the Company to make interim dividend payments.

Miscellaneous and individual proposals.

are eligible and stand for re-election.

NOTES:

Any shareholder whose shares are in bearer form and who wishes to attend the Annual General Meeting must produce a depositary receipt or present his share certificates to gain admission.

A shareholder wishing to be represented at the meeting must fodge a proxy, duly completed, together with a depositary receipt at the registered offices of SRH at 32, Boulevard Royal, Luxembourg, not later than May 9, 1994 at 5 p.m. The shareholder may obtain the depositary receipt and if required, the form of proxy, from any of the banks listed below by lodging the share certificates at their offices or by arranging for the hank by whom his certificates are held to notify any of the banks listed that Any shareholder whose shares are registered will receive a notice of the Annual General Meetiog at his address on the register, together with a form of proxy for use at the meeting. The proxy should be lodged at SRH's offices in accordance with the above instructions.

The remittance of the form of proxy will not preclude shareholders from attending in person and voting at the meeting if they so desire. All the resolutions covered by the Agenda may be passed by a simple majority of all shares represented at the Shareholders may obtaio copies of the documentation listed hereunder:

2. The 1993 Annual Report including the Chairman's Statement, the Statutory Auditors' Report, the consolidated and parent company only unconsolidated financial statements at the Company's registered office and from any of the banks at the following addresses:

* Union de Banques Suisses, Bahnhofstrasse 45, 8021 Zurich

* Union de Banques Suisses (Luxembourg) S.A., 36-38 Grand-Rue, 2011 Luxembourg

* Republic National Bank of New York, 30 Monument Street, London EC3R 8NB

* Republic National Bank of New York (Suisse) S.A., 2, place du Lac, 1204 Geneva
Republic National Bank of New York (Suisse) S.A., Via Canova 1, 6900 Lugano
Republic National Bank of New York (Suisse) S.A., Via Canova 1, 6900 Lugano Republic National Bank of New York (Suisse) S.A., Stockerstrasse 37, 8002 Zurich

* Republic National Bank of New York (Luxembourg) S.A., 32, Boulevard Royal, 2449 Luxembourg Republic National Bank of New York (France), 20, place Vendôme, 75001 Paris Republic National Bank of New York (France), 2, avenue Montaigne, 75008 Paris Republic National Bank of New York (France), Sporting d'Hiver, 2, avenue Princesse Alice, 98006 Monte Carlo Republic National Bank of New York (Guernsey) Ltd, Sarnia House, Le Truchot, St. Peter Port, Guernsey, Channel Islands

Paying Agent of Safra Republic Holdings S.A.

Republic National Bank of New York (Gibraltar) Ltd. Neptune House, Marina Bay, Gibraltar

D. 6	Page 12	.                                    	INTER	NATIONAL HERALD T		Y, APRIL 25, 1994	Grp Name Wildy Grp Name	Wildy Grp Name Wildy Grp Name Wildy Grp Name Wildy Crp Name Wildy Grp Name Lost Chase Fd Name Lost Chase
~	MUTUAL FU  Close of trading Friday, April 22	Grp Name Wildy Grp Name Wildy	Grip returne was Grip returne was Folkome Lest Class Folkome Lest Class Folkome Lest Class Folkome Lest Class Folkome P.S. — 8	TYTE 1135 + 04 305-55 - 1500		Fd Norme Lest Cage Fd Norme Lest Cage InthAty n 16-48 85 SIFTA n 9-72 SI Good 20-52 01 TXTA n 9-93 +- 02 Sond n 20-25 +- 04 Volugent 13-13 05	ConAB† 11.89 17 GtOpAp 11.7	Vanauard 6,96 -,04
t	Gre Name Wildy   Gre Name Fd Name Last Chief   Fd Name Last	Bruce n 98.83 +.88 PrcM I 18.45 —.53 BrundsSt n 18.36 —.01 Premier p 8.96 —.01 WMM (8.64 & Bear Gp.	Grinc p 1732 — 15 FiduCap n 18.51 — 15 HYBd p 11.07 — 13 58 Wall Street HYBd p 17.03 — 11 Euro Ea 30.30 — 2 Strica 524 — 10 PacBsn 37.47 — 2	VA TF 11.37 + .02 2 IncPIA p 10.13 Frankin Med Tr. (dex 3 14.49 -	-03 FOAA 9.8829 5 GOA 18.3921 1 -19 GVSA 9.6137 M	30rid n 20.75 + .05   Voluet A p 13.1505   Voluet A p 13.1505   Voluet A p 13.1505   Voluet A p 13.1505   Voluet A p 13.1705   Voluet A p 13.1705   Voluet A p 13.1705   Voluet A p 13.1705   Voluet A p 13.1505	5 EUGRB 1 18.79 — 15 MANHA 10.7 1 Gringt 18.79 — 17 MANHA 10.7 2 Gringt 11.27 + 101 Pocgra 16.9 2 Gringt 10.29 — 103 Sturap 8.7 10 June 1 10.29 — 103 Sturap 8.7	7 + 05   Sedeca Pundss 7 + 05   Sedeca Pundss SEP 500 n 10.01 + 203   GldSh n 2.34 + 11 SEP 500 n 10.01 + 203   Growthn 5.51 - 07 7 - 02   Equity n 13.22 + 21   UST AB n 9.24 + 22   Growthn 13.12 + 17
	AAL Martuul: HYYdiinvA pa	Gottline np15.50—32 ST Bd 9.59 Gottline np15.50—32 ST Bd 9.59 Gottline np15.50—32 ST Bd 9.59 STUS P 9.84	Evigra n 13,93 — 11 FinHorGv t 10.51 + .0 Found n 12,48 + 04 FinHorMu 10.35 + .0	Globip 1383 +.06 CATEP 518	-01 Omega 16.19 10 1 -03 Phys 11.02 +-02 M -08 StcA 7.64 07 E	TR Eq. 12.37 +.01 NaBond 9.11 +.02 ork Tweete Pos: NathF6 15.35 —13 Equity 9.53 —.06 NaSwith 10.64 —.0	invGB1 10.27 +.02 Equits nt 13.3 Autim8: 10.17 +.06 Equits nt 13.2	5 + 1.5 GNAMA n 9.31 + 51 Sequence areas: -0 - 40 9 + 57 Growthn 18.2733 Fourth n 18.28 - 13 Fourth n 18.27 - 13 Fourth n 18.27 - 13 Fourth n 19.37 - 13 Fourth n 19.38 + 13 Fourth n
	MumBd p 10.58 ± .05 MumBB p 9.9 SmcQShk 10.10 — .07 P009A p 11.2 P009B p 11.1 P009B p 11.1 TEHYA p10.7 B058B n 14.32 — .03 TEHYB p 10.7	6 + 45 USOvs np 7.72 _ 10 Uhi nt 13.34 + 23 11 _ 07 Burnhomp 19.82 + .05 VolAdT 19.1008 4 _ 08 CASRBY n 31.39 _ 10 WWINCX 8.62 + 312 8 + 54 CASRBY n 31.39 _ 10 WWINCX 8.62 + 312	Muni- n 10.22 Equat n 10.32 +.0	Premout Poods:   Gidbol   1284 - 13	-15 Wrigha 888 -19 A -86 PixBi 1029 +03 M -01 FOABt 9.85 -27 F -01 GCoBt 1824 -21 F -03 GVSB1 9.60 -01 I	orkelfWatch Pdc.   Neutropper Berro:   Peulty 9.88 + .11   AMT Bd Inl 4.4602   Red Inl 4.	ResEBt 17.06 — 02 FXCh fin 10.5	5—04 Salaman Bross Secur 19.32 — 11 Addrin 7.4 — 15 Cpn 17.84 — 45 FARn 19.37 — 17 Cpn 17.84 — 15 Cpn 17.84 — 16 Cpn 17.84 — 16 Cpn 18.65 — 27 Cpn 18.65 — 2
Tina CC: Sile	Graem 15.07 — 01 TXE 18 p 11.0 Graem 31.98 — 20 TXASA p 9.7 HQ Bd n 15.60 + 1.44 Urila p TXF8d n 17.32 + 1.89 Americas Pund	77 + 34   CoeDev n25.59 - 1.07   TC Cor1   11.65 - 23 78 + 34   Pasimen   10.00   -1.01   TC ince   10.11 - 14 79 + 36   Mutin   77.25 - 36   TC Lat   11.73 - 59 58 + 11   Coimos p   12.85 - 23   TC North   9.21 - 38 58 + 11   Coimos p   12.85 - 23   TC North   9.21 - 38	Exign/16 p 7.51 — US   AMUNESO INC 10.39	יו שדב מיבוש ויאל – במיוואו או שמואו ויו	1.02 PTXFB: 10.79 - 02 MA 1.02 StG8: 7.46 - 07 C 1.05 TXFB: 9.45 - 03 C 1.02 GiOpC: 18.29 - 22 N 1.03 TXFC: 9.45 + 03 Ma	Avisec 9.40 + 01 Avis 7 10.22 + 01 Avis 7 10.22 + 01 Sthin A 9.45 + 01 MyCDC in 9.70 - 00	'IUSGVBI 9.35 — DO GROKETE II./	+.02 (Schweb Publis   Storburs Public   10.40 + 04
m M	Gwthin p 10.09 — 07   CopinRip 32.3	2 + 04 S&P900 n 10.69 + 06 Dicpl 24.03 — 30	Growth 12,85 - 37 First Arms Frenchs HGCP64 10.25 + 32 AshAl tox 10.18 + 32 HIYBd1 10.37 - 0.5 Batton p 10.45 Armsdt 11,78 + .01 Equity p 15.56 - 11 FB Lexicons Equity p 15.56 - 11	Fundamental Funds:  CAMUNI IN PLE 1.13  NY Mun IN PLA  US Gov n 1.77	.03 FOACT 9.86 29 FOACT 9.61 01 GVSCT 9.61 01 GV	Sein 9.99—04 UmmBdn 9.51 Seinc 9.52 + 501 NewAlter 28.81 — Al Seinc 9.52 - 501 NewOrd in 11.60 — 50 NewCord in	DVGDP 19.75 20 GVDB1 11.3 EUG1D 9.87 03 HTY10B ftm 8.13 GKGID 10.35 12 IntGII 7.8
car :	Utilinc p 11.73 + 24 CapWidp 15.5 AHA Funds: Euber p 1.53 Belan n 11.88 - 0.4 Felin p p 17.5 Fulf 9.69 + 12.7 Govt p 12.4 Lim 10.16 - 0.1 Gwiff-id p 25.5	8 02 Ariel 28.00 - 24 Delaware Groups 8 04 ArielAp 21.63 - 25 Trend P 12.57 - 23 5 12 Globist 17.72 - 10 Yolus P 19.99 - 28 4 + 01 Groups 16.55 + 08 Delays P 24.73 - 29	CopApp 10.99 — 06 Fxdinc ox 10.66 — 01 Fxdin 10.09 + 03 GovBd ox 9.12 — 03 Info 10.04 — 10.04	Inti 189.44 — A4 Precitit 2 7.63 = PocBos 186.56 — 31 Progres p 4.51 = GE Filhus $8.5: Select p 9.02	-36 KIARF 9.7901 S -09 Kidder Group: S	5T Inc n 9.80   BdImCA 11.50 + A1 Stock n 9.7507   CATF Ap 7.40 + A2 VolEq n 9.8910   CapGrA p 14.2810 others n 14.4206   GlobG Ap 11.3807	Hilnod   8.49 - 105   Poising 18.39   tryGD   10.27 + 102   STGBB 8.59   NYTXD   10.40 + 101   Munarz   11.58	1   SWICHARD 9.54   10   Tracter 10.62   1.2
m m dı	AM PUNCS:  AGGV P 9.69 - 02 IncoFd p 11.5  Agrey P 24.46 - 34 ReBd p 13.5  Bold p 15.24 - 79 IncoA p 18.1	0 1 04 SocBd 16.14 +.07 Intti€q P 12.30 +.06	US Short 9.9501 FstBaskG 9.31 + .02	Incommen 11.15	-04 Emilikta 10.8307 E -03 Emilikta 10.8107 E GBEGE n 15.73 18	Equity (pm13.25 + J) ( GYSCA P 11.11 11.12 15 GWSTAA P 9.92 25 GWSTAA P 9.92 25 GWSTAA P 9.93 36 Hinca P 9.93 36 Hinca P 9.93 36 Hinca P 9.93 36 Hinca P 9.93 37 LydTrm A 12.02 37 LydTrm	USGD P 9.34 — 06 MUNIN 1 10.73	7 + 1.0 CERSON 18.40 - 10 Inferim 10.11 - 12 AddRIGVB 17.56 + 18 CA TFAP 16.46 + 18 CA TF of vt	Gosco 9.48 - 10 NewPerp 14.9 Grins 1 10.69 - 14 SmCoW p 22.4 Grins 1 12.73 - 14 TouExpt p 11.4 HYIGAP 9.59 - 04 Takex p 15.2	2 + 06 TXT-LTS 16.27 + 10.5 TFSS P 7.9 - 10.5 1 + 10.5 TXT-LTS 16.27 + 10.5 TXT-LTS P 12.07 + 10.5 1 + 10.5 TXT-LTS P 11.07 + 10.5 TXT-LTS P 12.07 + 10.5 TXT-LT	Divec p 11,15 +.10   First investors   Diver   11,15 +.10   BiChip p 15,01 —.06   Interestors   Solution   5,94 —.00	GEPunds:	### GBFAB 11.95 + 93 MAGBFAB 11.96 + 94 MAGBFAB 11.96 + 94 MAGBFAB 11.98 + 94 MAGBFAB 11.78 + 94 MAGBFAB 11.	ergerFd pt3.13 + 06 MgssT A p15.71	PonGlob n 10.84 + JI   MURAMAT 11.2	5 + 36 GSmCo 15.8904 CnritD 9.2215 FSY(84 P 9.8110 FSY(85 P 9.8110 FSY(85 P 9.8110 FSY(85 P 9.8115 FSY(85 P 9.81 P 9.8115 FSY(85 P 9.81 P 9 li $.	IntiE p 12.67 —.08 WshMut p17.01 LimM p 9.96 —.02 AmGwth 9.31 MuS p 0.13 +.02 AHertin n 1.21	1 -04 MulnCA 14.79 +06 US 6-101 11.1575 1 +05 CopGrB 14.69 -08 Jopann 26.72 -15	MaTF p 10.32 +.03   Groinc p 4-40	GTT MYST: SIMIGVT P 7,75 4	- MUNISOA 11.06 - 11 8	3cfA 11.55 — 04   NewUSA p 11.43 — 15 3csVIA 23.13 — 14   Nicholus Group: 	Bonded BAC + 62 Structor 11 %	2 + 36 Letamer 1930 - 48 Gytinea 12.18 - 31 PATFA P18.78 + 37 7 + 34 MATXH 13.29 + 37 Gytinea 12.18 - 31 PATFA P18.78 + 37 1 + 34 Mediff n 13.73 + 33 Grich 8.14 - 39 ST GAP 8.39 - 10 8 + 36 MMB 8.40 + 33 MyTra 18.79 - 35 ST GBP 8.39 - 10 10 + 35 MMB 8.40 + 33 MyTra 18.79 - 35 ST GBP 8.39 - 35 ST
tt fi	Summit   9.27 - 36	3 - 01 MuincBt 14.77 + 06 Fixth 191.28 - 03 5 - 17 CopMkidx n10.89 + 04 GRBd 100.21 - 12 CopitalEq n 9.51 + 03 Govtn 102.11 - 04	Permant 13:13 — 07 Permant 13:13 — 07 Permant 21:48 — 08 USA mp 11:06 — 10 Permant 23:46 — 34 Permant 23:48 — 24 Permant 23:48 — 25 Permant 23:48	Amer p 18.04 — 26   CapGri 12.61 -   EmMkt 15.31 — 22   QualSik 13.67 -   EmMkt 15.77 — 22   US Gut = 0.57		Donsuit p 12.60 — 08   NichLid n 18.02 — 27 DHTIA 7.88 — 07   Nicholos Applegate DINVGA 11.17 + .02   BalGthB 12.10 — 17 DHTA 11.21 + .02   CoreGthA 12.05 — 13	Equity A 15.52 —	7 + M PATGYN 1935 + M NYTEAR 7.89 + M3 TXFHB 1447 - M1 2 + 15 PacCape n 1534 - 09 NY TEC 7.90 + M3 TXFHB 1447 - M1 Qualifyn 1532 + M Symalicape 8.00 - 20 US GWB 1455 - M3
20 4	AdiAtto 9.90 —.01 Ambitish 19.32 AdiAtto 9.90 —.01 Ambitish 27.32 IntiAtto 9.51 —.03 Ambitish 17.32 IntiLig 9 10.60 —.02 Anbitish 11.69	2 – 02 EmgGrn 11.52 – 33 LCophii 12.31 – 53 7 + 56 Grwith 11.24 – 17 Pockim 14.67 – 63 2 – 05 Coppleton 9.43 + 15 USLgVol 10.38 – 07 1 + 05 Coppleton Grant USLgVol 10.38 – 07	EXCEPTO 1 69/69 — 31 SPECSO 11.44 — 16 Fights in 10.37 — 12 Specify 17.62 — 13 FST is in 8.86 — 102 ToolSupply 9.87 — 57 FSTO 27.09 — 43 ToolSupply 9.87 — 57	Europe p 10.68 — 04 (mvesos: EuroB 10.61 — 06 Dynm p 12.08 — GvincA 9.08 — 16 Emarth on 11.31 —	01   tot p 13.4403   E	Tropa 15.43 — 15   Coregoritho 12.59 — 15    Europa 15.42 — 35   EmeGra 11.82 — 27    EmeGra 19.45 — 31   EmeGra 11.75 — 21    EMA 9.84 + 3.6   EmeGra 13.94 — 14    EMA 13.22 — 3.6   IncGra 13.94 — 14    BAIA 13.25 — 3.6   IncGra 13.94 — 14    BA	MUMUA 10.57 + 135 Both 11.55 USGWA 9.53 + .01 Giffsith n 11.5 USGWA 9.53 + .01 Incurre in 9.65 Both C n 11.01 - 135 Skick n 10.75 Both C n 11.01 - 135 Skick n 10.75 Both C n 9.44 + 1.01 Putnem Feather Amgov p 8.45 Gyrimc C 9.5201 AdiAp 10.21
	CopGrn 10.00 — 07 AZ TF 10.27 Grincon 10.06 — 06 CO TF 10.20 Income 9.68 + .03 H1TF 11.20 ASM Fdn 9.64 — 02 KY TF 10.36	GVIDC 4.78 Bootin 45.24 - 17 + .04 MedRs 17.57 - 23 Incomen 11.30 + .02 ) + .06 NZigno 11.02 - 18 Stock n 52.3441 ) + .03 NJggon 7.62 - 14 DomSociol 12.01 + .07	FITSS P 10.06 — JI VA IFP 12.16 + 3.0 FITSS P 10.04 — JI First Mut 8.74 — 22 FsightS P 10.34 — JI First Ometho: FsightSS P 10.34 — JI Equity no 10.24 + .11 FST n 24.81 — 14 FxGnc nx 9.81 — JZ		.08 Bainedin 9.50 +.06 G	Company   Comp	Interton 970 -01 Bigvap 47
E 4	ASM Fdn 9.44 — 32 Accessor Funds: 107 F 10.34 Accessor Funds: 0 PT F 10.34 Accessor Funds: 0 PT F 10.34 Accessor 11.85 — 0 Accessor 11.85 Accessor 11.85 — 0 Accessor Funds Accessor 11.85 — 12 Balancen 9.41 Accessor 11.85 — 12 Balancen 9.41 Balancen 9.41	+.03 Balanced 9.89 —.05 SmCpVal n 10.53 —.13	GrimalS n 10.97 — 01   FPDVASt p 12.49 + .03 GrimalS p 10.97 — 01   FPDVASt p 12.49 + .03 FPMuBd p 11.03 + .02 FPMuBd p 11.03 + .02 FPMuBd p 11.03 + .03 FPMuBd p 11.03 + .03 FPMuBd p 12.49 + .03 FPMuBd p 11.49 + .03 FPMuBd p 11.03 + .03	Pacif P 13.19 — 21   Selincm no 6.23	40 infies 12.77 —06 in	MINEGA 11:32 — 10 US GVA p 9.76 + 01  ALMUA 9.76 + 06 NeinvGr n 24.07 - 14  ANNO 14 16 22 + 04 NeinvGr n 16.24 - 05	MIMIC 10.56 + .05 CONVEYT P IB.61 Mused C 10.29 + .02 CPAT 41.61 SmCop C 21.05 — 52 DWGrp 9.46 Provincia 16.44 + 23 DWGrp 12.66	7—12 TXEX 7.04 + .06 AppdAu n 8.77 + .03 AdmST n 9.5203 6 + .02 Ultra 4.46 - 18 Primates n 14.05 - 10 AsseAn 13.00 + .07 107 Selected Femals: Seed n 22.0922 Convert n 11.0318 11 Application 12.0922 Convert n 11.0318
	AcmFd 12.96 — 16 Edition 7.41  district p 20.59 — 22  Arthogol p 10.08 + 23 Arch Funds: 10vCRet p 9.03 + 23 Boll  gress Advant:  Govt np 9.20 — 31 GovCorp 10.77  Gwth np 16.15 — 12 Grottor 12.49	+ #3 Gev/Obelo #2.1	Minicap n 11.23 + .M   Fixther T 9.03   Minicap n 11.27   Minicap n 11.27   Minicap n 11.27   Minicap n 11.23   Bot n 11.43   Bot	Pocifis 13.11 21 TxFree mp15.45 + StratA px 10.45 31 Tech n 22.19 - StratB x 10.45 31 TorRth 17.75 + Tele8 16.18 02 USG of mp 7.27 + Telecom 16.27 02 Uffin 9.85 + Widwp 16.64 23 VcEq 16.99 +	-05 StrgYd 9.6109 N .07 LebertY 7.46 + .05 N .07 LebertPer n 10.4606 N .11 Legg Masson: N .11 ArnerLd P 9.66 + .02 N	otAmar14.52 — 50 Negribera Funds Aninsa 7,96 + 103 Fixta n 9,73 + 103 Austrica 9,89 — 6Fexta 10,00 — 00 Austrica 9,90 + 104 incEan 9,76 — 17 Allottia 10,16 + 107 incTean 10,00 + 101 UMA 10,57 + 1,06   IncTean 10,103 — 11	Pormosus 31.69 —84 SnPsA p 13.44 Posodeno Gruppe Bolferra 20.76 + 31 SuGA p 13.44 Growth 14.97 + 97 Fedin p 27. NRV 50 16.28 + 14 FLTyA 8.49 Poxworld n12.15 + 12 GeoA p 13.44 Poxysopa n11.63 —92 GEOAA px 14.64	+.01 USGOV on 4.04 +.03 Segistone Funds: 01 USGOV on 4.04 +.03 Segistone Funds: 02 COPF4A 144427 Grid on 1.05
: ,	HY Bd p 9.73 — 14 MoTF 11.10 Inco np 12.38 — 92 US Gov 10.49 Austrian n 9.79 — 52 Altentrous p 10.76 Altentr	+ 4.0   Chesterth   13.12 — 17   Editind   12.28 + 2.6   1 + 3.0   Chestrh   13.81 + 5.5   Fl. Inth   13.02 + 3.2   Checkling in   42.13 — 16   GMMA rip   4.52 — 3.2   Checkling in   4.13 — 3.6   GMMA rip   4.52 — 3.2   Checkling in   4.15 — 3.6   GMMB p   14.54 + 3.5   Checkling in   4.54 + 3.5   Checkling i	FideBly Advisor: Especk 28.20 + .06 HiggITFB p18.34 + .06 Espelin: 15.12 + .06 HiggITFB p18.34 + .06 GibResc 16.3314 AvnBeff n 9.41 + .06 Govern p 9.25 + .02 NCMunc 1 9.61 + .04 GrwChop 025.42 + .12 USGWIB p 9.32	WidwB 16.53 —24 ImpPlinp 9.06 — Gobell Pende: myPRV 12.81 + ABC p 10.08 —02 ImvPrGVIB 19.22 Asset pp 22.32 —27 IstelFd np 14.53 — CorvSc pn 11.40 —.11 JP Growth 16.22 — Ednc p 11.33 —04 JP Income 9.927 —	.02 Gytind np 10.08 P - Hiyid p 14.40 — 11 P .08 invGr np 9.86 + .01 P .06 McTF p 15.48 + .03 S	17MnA 11.10 + .04   Fixth n 9.88 — .03 -0cA 22.22 — .21   Intigres n 10.81 — .04 -24 AtA 10.93 + .06   Selegan 9.93 — .02 -25 Physics n 9.93 — .15 -15 Physics n 10.08 + .03 -15 Physics n 10.08 + .03 -15 Physics n 9.94 -15 Physics n 9.94	PenchTBd 9.58 — JII GRGAP 9.33 PenchTEs 9.46 — OM GrinA p 13.11 PenCop A 5.59 — JI HB/MAP 25.37 PANJUN p 10.94 + JIS HYAAP 12.48 PANJUN p 10.94 + JIS HYAAP 13.81 Performence Fds 10.77A p 4.81
:	AsianGrn 8.4908   CAjns 9.96 Band n 9.8903   GviSec 9.99 Crowth 10.1511   Groinc 13.43 Grwinco 10.7104   Natium 10.86 InfiGrn 11.24   BB3.T Funds:	Colemial Funds: Grinc n 16.14 – 23 -01 interp e 17.25 – 2.84 Grinc n 16.14 – 23 -23 Col TE A 7.86 + 71 ms/Mun no 17.55 + 12 + 186 Col TE A 7.27 + 130 interfer n 17.27 + 130 -23 FedSec 10.45 – 01 interfer n 15.12 + 32 -24 FedSec 10.45 – 01 interfer n 16.12 - 32	HI Mu p 11.73 + 02 USG-MC r 9.52 HYYdg n 11.35 - 0.07 HYYdg n 11.35 - 0.08 HYGG p 14.73 - 0.08 HYGG p 14.73 - 0.08 Value? n 17.24 + 0.06 LSG TER p 9.97 + 0.04 Value? n 17.24 + 0.06 HYGG P 10.57 - 0.08 FYSICE n 19.56	GlintCP n 9.81 — 94 3PM, Institt GlCorw n 10.26 — 86 66 nd n 9.54 GTIel P 9.47 — 172 Growth np21.75 — 10 EmpMxEd.845 — STC.096 (4.32 — 34 Intlictly n 10.51	TXFrint p 14.95 + 02 T .03 TotRet np 13.63 + .11 T -14 VotTr np 18.48 — 12 W .05 Lexington Gra:	T GIA p 8.27 — 122 Norwest Fonds: 'echA $12 - 485 AdRUST 9.01 — 02 X MA 10.43 + 1.05 Adrigova 9.01 — 02 VidincA 8.69 — 05 dures 9.45 — 01 GwitncTr 9.24 — 03 urented 18.87 — 16 GwitncTr 9.24 — 03 urented 18.87 — 16 GwitncTr 9.24 — 03	EqCarp 11.28 +.01   InvAp 7.74 Eqinsin 11.28 +.01   MinhAp 8.77 InFI Cp 9.97   MoTXII 9.94 InFI in 9.97   MITXII p 8.91 MCpGrin 9.40 —.12   ManhAp 8.71	i — 01 GREINGO 10.02 — 02 Struego index — 02 FTC = 1 7.5 = 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1 1
A	SmCo5r 10.02 — 22   Solf n 9.01 Iger Funds: Greinct n 10.90 Growth! 19.84 + .07   IndGoVT n 9.83 IndGoVT n 9.84 MidCoGr t 11.40 — 16   SiGovT n 9.78 MidCoGr t 11.72 + .02   BEA Funds: SmCop1 20.97 — 13   EMKE t 20.78		Overeign 12.75 - 44 STFI p 9.55 - 48 Stratic p 19.73 + 16 Inft p 12.76 - 19 Fidelity Institut: Expect 28.43 + 47 Quotic p 12.46 + 11	Galaxy Pands: SmallCon 10.11  AssetAll n 10.57 — 0.1 SelEsty n 10.60 + C7 Mu n 9.67 + 0.3 Graveth 10.64 + EgitVot 12.52 — 0.6 Income 9.65 +	01 GNMAn 7.97 +.01 B Global n 13.68 —14 B	Incorner	STFI   182	Hard   Mess Fixa 7 and 1 and 2   Discover 1 & 19 - 322   Idox 1 10 15 15 11   10 15 15 11   Idox 1 15 15 15 16   Idox 1 15 16   Idox 1 15   Idox
^	Aliance Cape Aliance p 6.41 — 06 Stylictur p 15.62 Solam p 13.34 + .05 Stylictur p 7.68 Solam B 1 14.87 — 07 SUBGIA p 11.57 SondA p 12.89 — 24 SUBIGA p 11.43 Chetylor 10.50 + .01 SWY Hamalton	-29 MATXA 7.5803 NvLdr 32.8163 -24 MITEA 6.78 +.02 NVTTXmp1127 +.02 -01 MN TEA 7.00 +.02 NY Tox n 14.79 +.08 -10 NdResA 122515 NYTEP 17.56 +.02 F -11 NYTEA 6.9001 Peopled 15.38 +.05 ONTEA 7.07 +.01 Peopled 15.38 +.05	EqPlin 15:21 + MI TolkTSh P1289 + .19 UBlin 10:5802 TolkTSy P 9.44 + .04 UBlin 10:5802 Volue P 11:1501 Floisty Invest: Agr1F m 11.45 + .02 AATEop 10:56 + .05 Advarn 14.4011 AATEC P 10:56 + .05	General   Gene		izapfell 17.18 — 13   Viziufeft 16.88 — 19 Lahile I 7.03 — 07   Naveen Fonds: Lavifeft 11.17 + 0.3   CA kms 10.18 + .10 [2778 I 11.27 + .03   CA vizi 10.13 + .06 Kmolle p 15.59 — 15   FL Vizi 9.85 + .06 Burole I 14.86 — 0.3   kmskum 10.28 + .06	PerffCG n 12.0712   OhT XII p	1 + 01   REDIT RA
	CpBdB p 12.80 — 23 E9lnc n 10.68 CpBdC p 12.80 — 23 Intgovt 9.56 Court p 16.51 + 02 NY TE n 9.92 GbSA p 11.16 — 14 Bebson Group: GovtA p 0.03 + 01 Bond L n 13.4 GovtA p 8.02 Bond S n 9.86	—14 SmSk p 17.34 —33 ShinGv r 10.99 —02 + 0.91 ShinGv r 10.99 —0.04 ShinCv r 10.02 —0.03 Tincon 10.02 —0.03 Tincon 10.02 —0.03 ShinTv r 12.02 —0.03 Tincon 10.03 —0.03 ShinTv r 12.03 ShinTv r 1	AMSGG n 13.46 — 08 AZTEA P 10.38 + .03 AMSGG n 10.74 — 0.9 CTEA P 10.16 + .06 Botonc 12.70 — 08 CTEA P 10.16 + .06 Buech 34.79 + .05 FL TED 18.38 + .02 Buech 34.79 + .05 FL TED 18.38 + .02 GATEA P 10.21 + .04 CA TED 11.38 + .01 GATEA P 17.67 — .04	STEG 9.92 Fixing 9.25 — SmCoEq n11.77 —18 Fund n 18.92 — TE Bond n10.48 — 0.3 Grititic 14.16 — GoviBot 9.91 — 1.40	.01   Eginca p 11.0209   F	edsech i 9.47 — 01   MD Vol 9.79 + 02 1.MB i 9.86 + 03   MA Ins 97 + 04 46 FB i 1435 — 05   MA Vol 9.50 + 06 46 GB i 9.44 + 02   MI Vol 10.04 + 04 7.AIB i 13.06 — 06   MI MBC 9.01 + 06 1846 i 9.06   MI MBC 9.01 + 06 1846 i 9.06   MI MBC 9.01 + 06	CyfoSer 17.54 +.03   TFInB1   14.61   EstyOpp 7.2504   Texasp   Bill   Growth 20.4409   USGVAp 12.71   Hayleid 0.5710   URRAp 9.25   Ingrap 9.3106   Vstnap 7.14   Ingrap 9.3105   Vstnap 7.14	1 + JT PATIXA 7.72 - J2 Total n 22.32 - 30 Idicins n 22.46 + 14.02 CAHYTIXA 6.38 + J1 SumAnnerfore Fides n Aud-HYD 103.35 + J04 MucHild n 12.92 + J01 CAGTIXA 6.55 + J06 Bridaseta p 14.27 - MucHild n 12.92 + J01 MucHild n 12.92 + J01 MucHild n 10.38 - 31 MucHild n 11.93 + J04 MucHild n 11.93
	GavtC P 8.02 Enterp2 n 16.74 Groinc P 2.29 Entrp n 16.24 GwthC 19.9503 Gwth n 12.62 GwthB P 22.5009 inti 16.40 GwthB 1 19.9507 Shodow n 11.95	-44 UBA p 12.62 + 27 USTSn n 15.23 - 03 -05 CA TE B1 7.69 + 51 Dreyfus Connistock, -12 CT TE B1 7.77 + 52 ConVolA 11.43 - 24 -06 PedscB1 10.45 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -11 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.42 - 23 -12 CT TE B1 7.75 - 10 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -13 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -14 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -15 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -15 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -16 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 23 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 ConVolA 11.43 - 01 -17 FL TAB1 7.25 - 01 -17 FL TAB1	Consider of 77.14 — 14 IntTEP 18207 Constant 14.39 — 97 XYTEAP 10.43 + .04 Constraint of 9.44 — 04 KS TEP 9.75 + .00 Congrs in 14.70 + 47 LATEAP 10.45 + .03 Contra 12.79 + 47 LATEAP 10.45 + .03	SWRWG 12.1 — 19	04 Hiln9dC11071 . G	#2V81 1046 - 97 NY Ins 1011 + 05 #2881 1463 - 28 NY Vot 10.15 + 06 #10181 1281 + 14 OH Vot 10.11 - 06 #1081 1698 - 01 PA Vot 9.97 + 05 legbys 1 147 - 06 VA Vot 9.95 + 06	Inti 1258 — 67 Adil 1 1026 Mulifia p 1246 — 10 Asida 1 13,86 Mulfia p 1244 — 10 BiGMB 1 4.77 Stockfd 13,22 — 17 CATXB 1 8,25 TEBd 10,93 + 103 ConvB 1 18,55
	Grinde 2.28 Toxifis in 0.68 Grinde 11.59 — 06 Toxifis n 10.68 Grinde 15.58 + 03 Umab bn 10.91 InsmCP 9.58 + 03 Umab hrtn 9.28 InsmCP 9.58 + 03 Umab hrtn 9.28 InsmCP 9.58 + 03 Umab hrtn 9.28 InsmCP 9.58 + 03 Umab hrtn 9.28	+.02 Funds 1 7.97 —.06 PristavO tx 9.29 —.10 +.02 Geas 12.00 —.07 Durytus Premier:01 Gwms 1 13.8 —.21 CA Muna 12.61 +.05 CA	Christian 13.1622 Mile A pil. 27 + 18.6 Destinyi 127.61 + 117 Mile A pil. 27 + 18.6 Destinyi 127.61 + 117 Mile C pil. 28 + 12.6 Destinyi 127.61 + 11.6 NCTEA pil. 10.7 + 11.6 Destinyi 11.7 - 10.6 NYTEP 9.62 + 1.03 Pil. 61 Mile Pil. 22 + 1.04 Pil. 61 Mile Pil. 22 + 1.04 Pil. 61 Pil. 62 + 1.04 Pil. 61 Pil. 62 + 1.04 Pil. 61 Pil. 62 + 1.04 Pil. 61 Pil. 61 Pil. 62 + 1.04 Pil. 61 Pi	Glenmede Princes Equity n 12.65 —16 Discust 8.55 — IntiGov n 10.15 — Growth p 15.58 + Intin 13.42 —,10 Racone 12.55 + Munint n 10.10 _ LTGVA p 8.61 SmCap n 13.84 —,15 MA TE   11.66 +	D3 Liberty Financial: M	Milegis 11.26 —, 10 OVS Princis IHOS 12.65 —, 18 Companda 19.48 —, 19 ciamas 14.47 —, 56 Emigrata 19.11 —, 22 NAMB I 10.40 +, 11 Govtseca 19.41 — MIMUBI 9.76 + 5.65 Contract 12.91 —, 25 NAMB I 10.22 +, 04 Contract 22.35 +, 23 NAMB I 10.22 +, 04 Contract 22.35 +, 23	105046   151306   DVMBF   12.05   10.50   9.29 + .01   EUGRB   12.24   12.05   12.24   12.05   12.24   12.05   12.24   12.05   12.24   12.05   12.24   12.05   12.24   12.05   1	-02 Growthp 16.26 -15 V5GwA 8.32 -01 CHans II 10.39 +04 V5GwA 8.32 -01 CHans II 10.39 +04 V5GwA 8.32 -01 CHans II 10.39 +05 V6GwA 9.832 -01 PAlms II 10.79 +02 V6GwB 9.833 -01 PALms II 10.79 +
9	Mrtg8 p 8.62 — 02 BeillentsSehla, Knie Mrtg8 p 8.62 — 02 Diverson 12.26 Mrtg1A p 8.62 — 02 Intlien 6.11 Mrg1A p 9.74 — 01 Intlien 8.73 Mrg1A p 9.74 — 01 Beird Franks: Wrg1TC p 9.74 — 01 Adijne 9.90	ser: IntGrB 10.07 - 1.00 FL Muna 14.88 - 0.6 - 12 MATXB1 7.58 - 0.01 Gibinty An 1523 - 0.44 - 10 MotResS 172.22 - 14 Gibinty B 15.10 - 2.5 - 32 NY TXB1 6.50 + 0.01 GramoB 1 14.17 - 0.02 OH TXB1 7.07 + 0.01 GramoB 1 14.18 - 0.02 - 0.01 StribB1 4.7 - 0.02 - 0.01 StribB1 4.7 - 0.02	EmpGror I 6.10 + 4.31 OHTE Ap I 1.18 + 4.02 Emr/Mst I 6.35 - 1.6 PATEAP I 10.66 + 4.02 Equinic 31.92 - 11.7 TeAp 10.78 + 4.95 Eq in 18.41 + 4.05 Unita P 10.11 + 1.5 Eq in 18.41 + 4.05 Unita P 10.11 + 1.5 Eq in 18.41 + 4.05 Unita P 10.11 + 1.5 Eq in 18.41 + 4.05 Unita P 10.11 + 1.5 Eq in 18.41 + 4.05 Eq in 18.41 + 4.	Otreeinta 9,74 — 01 MgTEB 11.24 + GoldenockDR 93 + 01 MgTEB 11.67 + GoldenockDR 93 + 01 MgTEB 11.67 + GoldenockDR 94 MgTEB 11.67 + G	06 US GOV X 8.86 — 06 M 03 Um x 10.99 + 06 M 01 LTMF IV P 9.75 - 02 M 01 LTMTTM PX 9.84 — 06 N	Nniss   7.96 + 0.3   Ockman   14.47 - 13 Int.lids   9.89   Oberweis 20.18 - A1 Walnus   9.90 + 0.4   OceanTis p 10.42 + 0.22 Notits   10.16 + 0.3   Oritiny   9.54 - 0.4 JANS   10.59 + 0.5   Oritiny   9.89 - 19 YMAS   11.10 - 0.22   Oritiny   19.17 - 1.6	Emg/ME4 th.63 — 14 Grin&f 13,01 Equity n 1896 + .02 Hith® 1 25,11 CoxApp n 21,57 — 25 HrVdB 1 12,05 IntREq n 11,19 — 08 Income® 1 6,78 Pillende G 12,00 — 27 Inv® 1 7,70 Pillende Gre: AAAT 87,70	-03 Secuelon 54.41 -03 httlEq n 13.34 -04 SPServr 22.02 -14 LuConGr n9.49 +10 SPTechn 17.36 -07 Mother n 11.47 +.07 LuConGr n9.49 +10 SPTechn 17.36 -07 SEP Mid n11.32 -08 SPServr 22.02 -14 LuConGr n9.49 +10 SPTechn 17.36 -07 MtgSkd in 9.84 +.07 LiSero n 14.41 +.15 SPServr 22.02 -14 LuConGr n9.49 +.00 SPServr 22.02 -14 LuConGr n9.49 +.00 LuconGr n9.49 +.
	AMIGC 9.82 BIChip p 18.05 WITH 1 1.84 01 Coppee p 22.67 WAS A P 8.43 0.06 Bankers Trust WAS A P 9.95 + 9.5 Instead 9.61 WCAA P 9.95 + 9.5 Instead 19.28	- 14 TXENB1 13.15 + .04 MID AMMA12.4904 - 21 TEINS1 7.78 + .02 MI MUDA 13.31 + .06 USG/B1 11.54 + .00 MIN MUDA 13.76 + .09 + .01 USG/B1 6.4801 MIN MUDA 13.78 + .07 04 UNBB 1 12.62 + .27 MUB-08 1 13.98 + .07 04 MUB-08 1 13.18	Europe 19:52 – 84 Bond np 19:40 – .01 Exchird n 9:21 + 84 Gibin pn 9:31 – .01 Eddird n 18:91 – .03 Growth np 13:13 – .17 Fifty 10:24 – .05 Multid fan 5:37 + .01 Growth np 13:40 – .12 Emploine n 18:04 – .12	Intitied 17.15 —10 SecCose 7.01 Muraline 13.58 + 0.03 SerineA for 7.23 — SelEq 15.29 + 0.03 SerineB 7.22 — SernoCap 19.72 —22 ToxiEx for 10.45 + Description of the control	05   Fendin   22.66 — 20   Ol 05   Utilin   10.28	CMB1 10.12 +.07 Olympic Trush HMS1 10.4107 Belanced n15.8002 ccB1 21.4220 Equiron 15.2315 AMB1 10.93 +.06 Infin 16.9230 hmsB1 12.7109 LowOurn 9.98 +.01 TGB1 8.7702 Jone Grager	ARS III 7.16 — 23 Muni81 8.74 ARS IV 7.29 — 31 MUNS61 8.81 AUS I-A 6.96 — 31 MUNCH 8.73 AGUSIV 7.11 — 32 MYTX81 8.74 ARS I 7.36 — 32 OTC 81 10.33 ARS I-A 7.09 — 32 TYE-KB1 8.74	+ 01 TAG + 01 TAG + 01 TAG + 02 TAG + 01 TRAK Feader
h h	VuCACP 9.95 + .02 invinited 13.82 · MuFLCP 9.16 + .09 invUnit n 10.07 CATA 12.59 + .06 invEqix 10.22 WillCAB 12.59 + .06 iBoronAst n 20.62 · WillCAB 19.99 + .03 iBoronAst n 20.62 · WillCAB 19.99 · .00	01 Botonce n 17.2801 NC MuA 12.79 +.02 +.14 Cornštk n 14.8305 NC MuB 1 12.78 +.08 +.06 Fixed n 12.73 +.03 NY MunA 14.10 +.08 12 Gov! B.1802 NY MunA 14.10 +.03 Grift n 25.1722 OH MuA 12.74 +.04	Gločal n 1216 — 21	GovAg 9.89 —.01 EnvmA p 8.36 — ShrffF 9.94 +.01 GlinB 1 8.84 — ST Gov 9.79 —.01 GlobA p 12.93 — Govelf Funds: GlobB 1 12.77 — DvbBd 8.85 —.11 GlinA 8.84 —	13 Growth n 12:34 — 14 Sc 07 Grein n 12:35 — 11 St 09 IntiEq n 12:35 — 27 7 5m Cop n 13:00 — 27 7 07 Lord Abt Counsel: Ut	DVBH 1 523 - 09         AsetAll p 9.01 - 0.2           HDVBH 1 224 - 11         BluCevA 12.67 + 0.9           echel 5.03 + 0.8         DscVelA 12.25 - 0.3           X MBJ 1 10.24 + 0.6         EstimbbA 1 12.95 - 0.3           Bib 1 10.24 + 0.6         EstimbbA 1 10.97 + 0.9           Bib 1 10.24 + 0.6         EstimbbA 1 10.97 + 0.9	ARS n 7.20 02 USGVB f 12.67 AdRUS 627 02 Utilis f 9.25 AdRUS1 7.04 03 Voyel 10.08 CoUtil 7.04 13 Voyel 10.08 CoUtil 7.34 +,18 Geometrative Grou	Showman Fels-Invest
A .	WUNJEP 9.27 + 0.23   BOSCYN   15.22  WUNJEP 9.27 + 0.23   Fizzel   1 9.95 WUNJCP 9.27 + 0.23   VI   mt   12.76 WUNJCP P 9.28 + 0.3   BoyFonds institution WUNJCP P 9.28 + 0.3   STYLER   9.77	+.10 IntSkn n 13.06 —,17 OHMuB 1 12.74 +.03 Mumin 11.94 +.05 PA MumA 16.05 +.07 +.03 Speci n 19.33 —.30 PA MuB 1 16.05 +.07 PA MuB 1 16.05 +.07 TX MuA 20.48 +.13 Govi 10.47 —.01 Groine 15.35 —.06 VAMuB 1 16.10 +.10	Instruct   11.24 + 1.03   GovTR   P   8.26  1   Instruct   1.024 - 1.02   Growth   P   25.77 - 1.13   Instruct   17.28 - 1.6   Inflict   17.28 - 1.6   Inflict   17.28 - 1.6   Inflict   17.28 - 1.6   Inflict   17.28 + 0.4   Inflict   17.28	BmoAkt, 15.42 — A3 GlobPax 15.65 — GlGvin 9.17 — 15 Green 17.25 + InflEq 12.41 — J1 GoldA 15.07 + PrcStq 9.10 + 9.17 GoldB 1 15.05 + SmCos 15.96 — 14 PocBos 14.69 — GvtEqiyn 22.44 — 16 RagkA 20.94 +	23 NorTFTr 4.56 + 03 Mer 02 US Govt 4.65 - 02 As 22 Lord Abbelt: 21 Affilid p 10.23 - 10 Fil 05 BondDeb 99.36 - 07 Gr	Relince	GNAMA 12.95 + .01 BostGrof 10.44 HiYld p 6.1304 BostGrwiniz.88 MogCop 12.11 + .01 Bosshum015.03 57.MMU 7.4603 Bosshum015.17 Shrift p 6.6902 Quest For Volue: CATE 10.52	+.07 IntGviTr nov.69 _03 Ferror p 246 _03 Introl 9.50 +.01
	NMUAP 9,90 + 02 Bond n 9,77 NMUC n 9,90 + 02 Equity 10,46 NMUC n 9,90 + 07 BoyFunds trivest; NAGVA 8,85 — 18 STYletd n 9,77 NAGVC 8,84 — 18 Equity n 10,46	Growth 14.87 -0.09   broyfus Strobesic 0.04   Murib 13.29 + 0.5   Gr/p 23.68 - 5.6   0.07   23.68 - 5.6   Gr/p 23.68 - 5.6   0.07   23.68 - 5.6   Growth 23.57 - 0.03   0.07   Fxdit 10.31 + 0.02   Irv A 20.14 - 3.2   0.04   Growth 10.55 + 0.01   Irv B 1 19.96 - 3.2	LotinArti m12.85 —48   U.S. Gyt 9,18 —01   LjdMun 9,37 ±.05   Fortness Issyst: LowPr 17,22 —19   AdiRtt 9,73   MI TFn 10.88 ±.02   GISI m 8,74 = Mocsellon 88,97 = 27   Munitot 10.53 ±.07	Gradison McDonald:   RgBkB1 20.88 + EstVal pn 22.26 - 26   J Huncock Sovergie Govinc p 12.65 - 01   Ach A 11,90 + 1,00   TF p 12.58 + 0.6   AchB 1 11,83 + 1,00   DptVal p 18,13 - 01   BolB p 10,10 - 1,00   GH MN TE 9,00 + 0.6   BolB p 10,11 - 1,00   BolB p 10,11   DptVal p 10,10   BolB p 10,11   DptVal p 10,10   BolB p 10,11   DptVal p 10,11	Eq 1990 p 13.69 — 11 Co 05 Fevelup 12.36 — 17 Co 04 Giffo p 12.56 — 04 Co	H. He StateSt.  100 April 1.06 - 103  100 Ap	BotGrAn 10.240.6 Fund 12.01 EdABAn 11.752.24 GEG 13.97 EdGrAn 10.410.9 GrincA 9.61 EdinA 10.700.1 InvQin 10.39 FxdinA 9.98 + 0.1 NYTE 10.50 IntrnGvAn 9.96 + 0.1 NYTE 10.71	+.96 Central 12.52 - 14 World p 13.29 - 17 Bond p 19.51 - 19.52 - 18 SinGvinn 9.63 - 19.53 - 1
P P C S S S	ProfritA p11.30 — 16 Beac Hill 29.31 ProfritB p11.22 — 16 Beac Hill 29.31 Suss A p 21.99 — 44 Beachmark Funds LT Mila p 8.94 — 04 Balanced n 9.91 Tr Mila p 8.94 — 04 Balanced n 9.91 Beach p 25.90 + 2.95 DivGrA n 10.23	+ Al   InfE=1   13.46 — 3P   Dupree Mutuoti:   15.76 — 3P   Dupree Mutuoti:   15.76 — 3P   Dupree Mutuoti:   15.77   Dupre	Aktrind nr 33.24 + .12   OHFort p 10.97 + .06   AA TF n 11.21 + .03   Ufar 1 12.45 + .13   Aktresec nt 0.4604   44 Wolf Eq. 6.29 + .03   Aktrese n 1.24 + .03   Fearum Pands; NY HY n 1,22 + .03   Fearum Pands; NY HY n 1,23 + .03   Fearum Pands; NY HY n 1,24	GHN01TE 10,10 + .04 BondA fp 14.58 — Greensprog14.08 —17 BondB 14.59 — Goordian Punds: brvA p 14.38 + AsiAlac 10.67 —.04 brvB p 14.17 + GBG fint 12.27 —.09 brvA p 9.51 — BondB 14.59 — 14.17 + GBG fint 12.27 —.09 brvA p 9.51 —	04 TXFrCat p10.49 +.04 Ga 05 TFFL p 4.74 +.02 Hs	InvstA 12.55 — 17   111 Corcs 9.74   111 vc 12.59 — 17   111 corcs 9.74   111 vc 10 vc 12.59 — 17   111 corcs 9.74   101 vc 10	M3MuA n 16.31 + 32   Opport 18.39   Strick n 19.56   Strick n 18.39   Strick n 16.05   Strick n 16.05   USGov 11.22   Eginc p 15.95 + 36   RBB Gvt px 9.84   Americ p 18.88   RCM Ford 29.31   Bond p 9.26 + 31   RSI Trist:	-10   FL.TIBA P 9/31 + 1/3   Templetina instit:   CopGr61 10.70 - 38   FL.TIBA P 11.50 - 25   Equity p 112.52 - 0.04   Equity p 112.52 - 0.05   Eq
An B B	Vidinc P 1.87 EqidxA n 10.48 insouth Funds: FocGrA n 10.26 solution 11.53 22 Integral n 20.17 lond 10.64 + d.1 Integral n 10.01 Equity 14.25 25 SmDur n 10.01	+.03 BdSfk p 11.49 +.03 Flex p 51.97 +.11 +.01 Growth p 12.0504 Incorné p 47.00 +.01 04 IncoPd p 8.74 +.03 Multiflx 39.2011 04 NW 50 p 14.1720 Eatlor V Classic: 	NewMikt n 9.41 — A5 ME Bind 10.37 + 22 NewMill 11.49 — 14 OrCSvr 10.33 + 102 OrT 22.63 — 98 Founders Groups On TF n 11.16 + 103 Bind 10.38 + 102 Ovrseq 28.27 — 15 Bind 10.39 + 22 1	Parkky 27.60 - 26 J& WBoi 12.68 - 5 Stock n 27.98 - 24 KS Mun 12.16 + 7 TaxEx 9.29 + 4.31 KS Mun 12.102 + 1. US Govt 9.79 - 272 Koufmon pr 3.34 - HTinsEq p 12.53 - 22 Kemper Funds:	01 TFTXP 9.82 + 64 Mg 03 TFPAP 4.89 + 00 Mg 02 TFHIP 4.83 + 02 Mg TFMI 4.81 + 00 Rs	### 200 - 02   Discript 9 35.44 - 40   Self 18 35.44 - 40   Self 18 35.44 - 40   Self 18 35.4 - 40   Self	CmGr P 15.1436 ActBd 26.24 Gold 7.1134 Core 34.17 Growth p 11.4133 EmGr 34.17 Income p 9.73 +.04 InfBd 25.33 Europe p 18.3801 STUF 18.08	+ M USGOVAP 9.75 — 27 ThirdAVV T465 — 15 Gring 7 29.24 — 24 IUSGOVAP 9.75 — 27 Thermson Groups 11.90 — 19 — 24 IUSGOVAP 9.75 — 27 Thermson Groups 11.90 — 19 — 24 IUSGOVAP 9.75 — 27 ThirdAVV T465 — 19 IUSGOVAP 11.90 — 29 — 24 IUSGOVAP 11.90 — 29 IUSGOVAP 11.57 + 28 I
An An	Action 1931 - 101 Sincola 1939 - 104 Sincola 1939 - 104 Sincola 1934 - 105 Sincola 1931 - 105 Sincola 1939 -	+.05 Incm x 10.1803 NottMump 9.26 +.05 LtdMar x 10.4504 Earlon V Marathote	Pocesos 18.44 — 17   Disc.v.p. 19.39 — 43   Purition 13.57 — 42   Frintring 25.76 — 24   Reolestin 13.79 + 40   Gavisec 9.17 — 17   ShiTBd n 9.12 — 38   Frintring 11.73 — 12   ShiTBd n 9.12 — 38   Species 17.42 — 38   Species 17.42 — 38   ShiTBd n 9.13 — 16   Species 17.42 — 38   ShiTBd n 9.13 — 16   Species 17.42 — 38   ShiTBd n 9.13 — 16   S	Hamilton 9.07 - Bluschip 8.27 - Bluschip 8.27 - Bluschip 12.17 - Bluschip	VatuApp p 11,22 19 Tx 12 Lutheran Bro: 11 Brothyd 9,13 09 Mids	MEXA 7.84 + 1.03   GlobErn p   10.07     19	Print/Ref pt 10.8 + .07 Colus 21.54 Print/Ref pt 10.8 + .07 Reform 5.15 Interfer 21.44 - 10 Readgrap 13.14 Print/Ref pt 10.15 Reads Funds 5T Inc 3.8801 Ca8 Bot 11.71 Carreep 11.86 + .06 DSI DV 10.51 LS Gyp 9.9001 DSI LM 9.54	Voltagini 11.34 + 32 Opora 27.66 36 Vinyeneur Fiss: -85 Voltagini 11.34 + 33 Opora 27.66 36 Vinyeneur Fiss: -86 VAMUT 11.645 + 32 Opora 27.66 36 Vinyeneur Fiss: -86 VAMUT 11.645 + 32 Opora 27.66 36 Vinyeneur Fiss: -87 VAMUT 11.645 + 32 Opora 27.66 36 Vinyeneur Fiss: -88 VAMUT 11.645 + 32 Opora
G Id	browth n 12.74 19 COTFS n 10.11  distribution 11.52 +.06 COTFS n 10.74	- Income 9.55 Chino 1 11.75 26 Tolket 14.88 05 FLLtdt 10.11 20 +- 05 Copley n 20.22 +- 34 MALtd 10.00 +- 00	Str.Sic n 18.75 — 16 Botenced 9.52 Str.Oppt 19.91 + 15 Gov/Sec 9.74 Trend n 54.67 — 77 MidCap 9.87 — 09 ISBU n 10.44 ChenBel 9.68 + 83	Bond 10.75 ± .02 Hiyletd x 9.61 — Condon 15.48 — Income x 8.25 — Growth n 12.38 — 13 Intiffund 10.37 —	OppGr 9.03 — 11 Le 14 MAS Funds: Le 15 Bakmoed n 11.20 — 02 OH 12 Emergr n 15.96 — 02 TF	RUSGWY 7.5: W/Y) 9 7.74 + 403 H7VIGA 73.65 - 13.15 GV p 10.52 - 0.11 H7VIGB 7.12.57 - 1.12 ShTSyA 18.4 + 0.6 H7T 7 18.5 + 23 H7VIGA 7.3.5 - 13.1 H7VIGB 7.12.57 - 1.4 H7VIGB 7.12.57 - 1.4 H7VIGB 7.12.57 - 1.4 H7VIGB 7.12.57 - 1.4 H7VIGB 7.12.57 - 1.6	WMINKE 1224 + 05   FMA SPC 14.26 -	+ 13 Skylam Feeds + 11 Skylam
An	nbassuder http://doi.org/10.29 - 10.29	-01 Editor 20.66 + 28 N. M. Hot 10.77 + 20 A. T. X. S.	Wride 13.40 + .11 Promote Group: Wride 13.40 + .02 AGE Fund 2.69 Add by Selects: Add 2.69 Add	Simpur n 9.00 OH F 9.46 + 1.00 Value n 12.77 — 01 Retirel 10.96 — 1.00 Retirel 12.60 — 1.00 Perion 10.14	HY Secs n 8.85 -De Fx	MA L. Marrel		+ 61 IncRett 9,49 + 9.1 Torpet 9,51 U.5 Gy 10,03 - 10,03 IncRett 17,51 - 97 Torpet 11,49 + 9.4 Widelet Allends 17,51 - 97 Torpet 12,02 - 27 Toffet 11,86 - 15
S	mrskr 12.80 11 NTF-L n 11.23 imCoGr n 13.34 10 STTrees n 9.81 - FFinl8d n 10.22 + .04 Tor 1995 n 9.875 -	+.01 intiGrAn 13:03 — 07 PALIDI 10:15 + 06 +.04 Votigos pn12:82 — 21 ARTIS 1 10:06 + 0407 CoweniGr 11:08 + 14 CotiNunit 9:52 — 0709 CoweniGr 11:09 — 22 COTIS 1 9:78 + 06 +.42 Crobs Husons: +.50 AstAlip 12:75 + 03 Equit 10:57 — 10 +.55 Equity p 13:64 — 02 Fig17:61 10:56 + 04 +.53 CR Alum 10:228 + 05 Fig17:61 10:56 + 04 +.53 CR Alum 10:228 + 05	AmGold r 20.41 — 1.11 Autor 22.54 — 76 Boldechr 23.71 — 11 Bridechr 21.64 — 10 CAHYBO p 9.66 — 01 CONTENT 20.98 — 22 CONTENT 20.98 — 22 CONTENT 20.98 — 25 CONTENT 21.28 — 07 CONTENT 21.28 — 07 CONTENT 21.28 — 07 CONTENT 21.28 — 07	Value p 22.57 — Jd Refired 9.10 — W17xF 9.70 + .03 Refired 8.37 + .)  EuroVi 10.19 + .01 Technol 9.80 + .7 14 — .  LAmrvol 9.11 — .90 Technol 9.80 + .05 PcBVol 10.19 — .13 Tofkern 9.70 — .  Wideld 9.67 — .05 U.S GVr x 2.7 — .			### 1.53 ### 1.53 ### 1.50 ###	-05 MuCQIA 12.22 + 04 Thermittury Police -07 MuFLA 12.25 + 05 Thermittury Police -08 MuFLA 12.25 + 05 Thermittury Police -09 MuFLA 12.25 + 05 Thermittury Police -09 MuFLA 12.29 + 05 Thermittury Police -09 M
ii S	1072015   12479   1072015   12479   108514   1248 - 11	FID3- 035	CstHour 17.96 —34 CTTF 10.71 DfAeror 17.85 —35 Cvrsec 11.95 —14 DevComr17.09 —23 DNTC 9.31 +.10	ConApp p 14.25 — 14 Divinc bx 5.88 — 1 Divinc p 9.95 — 04 Gvt tx 7.05 — 1	MITAP 11.28 -02 Mon	10MK 1381 -23 TOTRIA P 8.24 -11	Balds: 26.49 + 10 InfleqTr n12.72 - Eqinds: 31.60 + 12 SIGVFT 9.67 Grinch: 22.27 - 12 SmCapt 9.09 -	-02 Smith Borney BAC: CopApp 13.22 + 05 GlobPort 10.57 - 07 Indic 17.53 - 07 LA Mun 10.83 + 04 IntEgun 10.74 - 03 Indic 17.38 - 07 ISSO: 70.09 Indic 14.74 - 03 Indic 17.38 - 07 ISSO: 70.09 Indic 14.74 - 03 Indic 17.38 - 07 ISSO: 70.09 Indic 17.38 -
An An	COUNTY 10.05 _ 101 prix 10.91 -	-20 Valuen 10.57 - 10 MATXF+ 10.25	Energy 1 14.95 + .11 Edin(* 13.55 + .91 Edin(* 13.5	Bottone n 9.65 Strict 1 3.43 S	6 Gropap 10.74 — 05 Gro 4 Gvliap 8.67 — 07 ins 6 GvSap 8.51 + 07 ins 6 GvSap 9.47 + 02 Ste Hilncap 5.06 — 0.7 Sm	Perit in 15.17 +.10 VolStA p 14.05 —02 IEMAIC #4.25 —51 Overhand Express Striccol12.45 —28 AstAlia 11.45 +.05 Durg 1 9.89 —01 CATE A 10.81 +.03	MidGrL n 21.03 - 20   Tox Fitt n 9.75	-07 MuCld B 6.53 + .07  10 SmithfortyShram A 1 SmithfortyShram A 1 SmithfortyShram A 1 SmithfortyShram A 1 SmithfortyShram A 2
An S	ner Copinst CostA p 15.64 — 06 IntiVal n 16.85	-06 Gouttoen x 7 46 -03 PITYE+ 931 + 04	Heatith # 60.55 - 1.82 Horner # 1.93 - 1.82 Horner # 1.93 - 1.95 Horner # 1.95 1.95 Horner	Incoes 11.61 + 0.01 Growth 16.90 - 0 SoGreg n 13.40 - 24 HiVid x 7.89 - 1 HilliardGr 15.18 - 10 ST Gt x 7.13 - 0	2 Richap 1279 -11 Asi	CONGRA ISAS	Padin	12 AzMua p 9.12 + 34 Camp 1 10.98 - 12 Guerrites n 5.00 + 53 Camua p 15.07 + 54 Camua p 15.07 + 54 Camua p 15.07 + 54 Camua p 15.07 + 55 Camua p 1
Chaman	GAP 2424 19 Bolanced 10.01 -	-04 Arrivolt 21,4734 VATXF1 10,20 +.83 ColTxFr 1 12,47 +.87 WVTXF1 9,33 +.87	Poper 7 14.5649 Incuser 2.25 + .01 Precide 11.5203 Incuser 12.53 + .03 Incuser 2.25 + .03 Incuser 12.5403 Incuser 2.25 + .03 Incuser 2	Normstylled n 507 - 47	4 UniAp 7.16 + 35 Mary VoluAp 9.52 - 34 Em 6 WoGvAp 11:22 - 22 Fx WoGrA 16.05 - 25 IniS 6 WoTotAp 10.55 - 25 Mary 1 MuEdA 10.68 + 83 Mry 1 MuEdA 8.03 + 39 Mors 4 MuEdA 7.47 + 31 Ag 1 MuEdA 7.47 + 31 Ag	httm: 12.17 + .65   CopApr. 12.9706   nnCp.n10.4704   DiVLow n 11.2213   nnBd 10.49 + .01   EmergANd 12.5241   KoSop 13.1000   EnhEq n 11.55 + .10   Copapr. 11.24   Copar. 11.24   Copapr. 11.24   Copar. 11.24   Copapr. 11.24   Copar. 11.24   Copapr. 11.24   Copar. 11.25   Copar. 11.24   Copar. 11.24   Copar. 11.24   Copar. 11.25	Adjus 4.70 — 02 Growth p 25.43 + Splance 11.45 + .04 AktCop p 26.16 BICHG 11.03 — 04 SocAw p 26.51	-16 PGVGIAP 7.04 — 05 EITIGES 2.35 — 25 WSIZVERI 15.60 — 10 PGGIAP 7.04 — 05 EITIGES 2.35 — 25 WSIZVERI 15.60 — 10 PGGIAP 7.05 GGTIAP 10.77 — 10 PGGIAP 7.07 — 10 PGGIAP 10.77
Temmont	Gloca 1 5.28 — 02 STFbdnc x 7.71 . Gloca 1 5.28 — 02 STFbdnc x 7.71 . Gloca p 5.28 — 02 SC/Auni 10.61 . ExchPc 105.94 — .17 Blunchard Funds: GMgA p 12.16 — .01 America p 9.22 -	+.03 Divisin 1 27.45 +.011 Growin p 7.5212 Divin tx 9.7207 IncSos p 8.2306 Pi05 Eurot 12.51 +.03 MunBd 9.76 +.84 7	UNIT 35.67 + 78 MOTF 10.85 + 02 MossTF 11.36 + 02	Boldon pn 10.25 - 04 MIMUINS 9.09 + 0 Bondon 9.28 + 05 VotEgin 10.41 + 0	THE PERSON AND THE PERSON		Egitik ii 1291 + 05 kingrade Core Europe ii 1206 - 05 Equity 1274 + FEF ii 1362 - 17 Padin x 9.58 - El Instrintia 27 + 01 TNAuch x 9.58	AM LIGHT P 7.3 — 61 GVBCT 7.8 — 21 Ballny'n 17.8 — 14 Ballny'n 17.8 — 15 Ballny'n 17.8 — 16 Ballny'n 17.8 — 17 Ballny'n 17.8 —
99999	SyScA p 10.14 _ BdEndow 17.09	-15 PedSect 9.18 + 0.2 TrodGvt 10.38 - 20 HRhSct 10.07 - 34 TrodGvt p 7.01 - 04 (-0.11 HV)d fx 7.49 - 11 TrodTot p 8.42 - 20 (-0.11 HV)d fx 7.49 - 11 TrodTot p 8.42 - 20 (-0.11 HV)d fx 7.49 - 11 TrodTot p 8.42 - 20 (-0.11 HV)d fx 7.49 - 11 TrodTot p 8.42 - 20 (-0.11 HV)d fx 7.49 - 11 TrodTot p 8.42 - 20 (-0.11 HV)d fx 7.49 - 11 TrodTot p 8.42 - 20 (-0.11 HV)d fx 7.49 - 20 (-0.11 HV)d fx 7.40 -	CTHY nr 10.41 — MO TF 11.44 +.03   FL Mu m 10.53 +.62   MLTF 11.33 +.03   GNMA n 9.47 — NY Ins 10.77 +.03   Govin n 10.65 —.01   NY Tox 11.49 +.04   Highlin m 11.83 —.04   NC TF 11.43 +.04   MINAUN 1 9.77 +.04   Chlott T 11.92 +.04	Emerger pril44607 Keystonie (L.) +0 Keystonie (Govi pn. 9.9501 Cus811 15.190 Grince p. 13.810 Cus811 15.680 Institut 9.3306 CusK11 9.350 Aldcton p. 13.4912 CusK11 9.350 Aldcton p. 13.4912 CusK11 9.350 CusK11 9.350 Aldcton p. 13.4912 CusK11 9.350	5 MuMDA P1037 + 33 Fzc 5 MuMSA P 922 + 37 GE 6 MuNCA P 11.53 + 37 GE 6 MuNCA P 11.53 + 37 Intl 6 MuNCA P 11.55 + 32 Intl 7 MuSCA P 11.55 + 32 Intl 7 MuVAA P 11.18 + 32 Rec	Serv 13.26 — 00 TRUI 9.10 + 01   Serv 10.38 — 00   LewDurn 7.96 — 02	GNAA n 9.26 + J1   Robertson Studiens GBGV 9.52 - J2   Control n 11.89 - Growth n 19.37 - J6   Growth n 19.37 - J6   Growth n 15.37 + J4   Hyyd n 12.37 - J6   BdGrow P 12.18 - Hyyd n 12.47 - J7   Floring n 12.47 + J1   Floring n 12.47 + J1   Floring n 12.48 - J1   Floring n 17.52 + Fl	J.S. Speca p 10.16 — 16 Triest For Cred Un: Collinary p 17.27 — 10 C
9	SVSCCP 10.14 +.01 S(Chip 8.68 SVTB97 p 13.10 —.03 Margainc 9.46 SVTIB p 8.45 —.03 Strat801 9.76 SVTIB p 8.45 —.03 Strat801 9.76		AGRIMAIN 7/4 - 92  CAHY M 10.15 + 03  MININE 11.22 + 04  CAHY M 10.53 + 02  MO TF 11.44 + 03  FL Mu m 10.53 + 02  MO TF 11.44 + 03  MO TF 11.34 + 04  MO MU m 10.55 + 05  MO MU m 10.57 + 04  MO MU m 10.57 + 04  MO MU m 10.57 + 05  MO M	Cass	7 MuVAA P 11,18 + .02 Rec 8 MuWVA P 11,18 + .01 Voh 7 MIGB 9.06 - SCV 1 UmB 7.15 - Muhh 1 CopGB 11,2607 Muhh 8 ond B 12,78 + .07 Muhh 1 SnG B 17,0132 Muhh	14.55	IntiBid 9,77 — (22 LithNyp 3,22 + IntiBid 1 14.85 — 23 Redney Secure 11.95 — 15 Divin p 12,77 — Japan 1 12.9 — (1) Growth p 15,77 — Laten 1 5,71 — 21 IntiBid p 12,46 — Redney Respire	Agers 7 2.88 45   Current of Vision 11.56 4.97   Solins 5.22 - 0.5   Appret 1 (0.45 - 1.06   Current of Vision 2 - 0.07   Solins 1.06   Di Convest 1 (4.27 - 2.8   Solins 1 (1.24 - 0.9)   Solis Current of Vision 1 (1.25 - 0.1)   Divinis 1 (4.27 - 2.8   Current of Vision 1 (1.25 - 0.1)   Divinis 1 (4.27 - 0.25   Current of Vision 1 (1.25 - 0.25   Intigets V 9.75 - 0.25   Divinis 1 (4.25 - 0.25   Current of Vision 2.23   Current of Vision 2.23   Current of Vision 2.23   Divinis 1 (4.25 - 0.25   Current of Vision 2.23   Current of Vision 2.23   Current of Vision 2.23   Divinis 1 (4.25 - 0.25   Current of Vision 2.23
H	torb8 p 13.88 — 21 IBrndywn n 24.50 -	03   NTNS     11.41 15   FETTO/TP/SSB GC000:     1	NY HY m 10.29 + .02 SmcCnpGr 12.57 — 34 PAHY m 10.30 + .03 TA Gov 10.34 — .03 I Stdincn 9.39 — .11 TxAdHY 1.24 — .04 I	Unity 10.29 + 32 Author to 9.31 - 30 CAPIF 9.75 - 30 Idex 17.44 - 21 CPI28 t 9.77 - 0	Goldet 6.89 — 29 Maria GvMgB 1 6.52 + 01 Beq GvScB 1 9.40 + 02 Disc Hilling 1 5.06 — 07 Quo Intring 1 8.39 — 02 Shor	25/77 13,46 — 01 Growth 10,12 — 07 dried n 26,90 + 07 dried n 26,90 + 07 dried n 26,90 + 07 dried n 27 - 07	MidCopn 1424 — 18 Grin 10.51 —	Printa p   18.59   73   1.584   10.12   1.58   1.
_	ESCORTS & GUIDES BEIGRAVIA	INTERNATIONAL (Continued From	=-5-5	VIENNA"PARIS"MILAN"ZURICI Errozaniod Escari + Trovel-Sarvo; Call Vienna + 43-1310 63 19. MAHDGANY ANGELS OF LONDON ESCORI SEPICE	Muses 10.67 + 03 Equ OTCB 7.57 Pint Section 12.17 — 09 OH	Myl p 13.38 + 0.6 intTBdl x 9.22 - 0.3 intGovit x 9.67 - 0.3	Newford 12.24 — 39 November 11.22 — 19 November 11.25 — 27 November 11.25 — 15 November 11.25 — 15 November 11.25 — 15 November 12.25 — 15 Novembe	44 InvGdB+ 11.80 + 07 USGVShT 17.40 - 02 White The 10.27 + 05
и	ORCHIDS ONEON MAIIS ESCORT AGENCY CREDIT CARDS ACCEPTED	I CATOON EDATE		YVETTE LONDON	WoTotte 10 64 04 Profess		Serich 17.74 + 1.2   Serich 17.74 + 1.2   Serich 18.6 - 2.3   Amount 11.28 + 1.3   Serich 18.6 - 2.3   Amount 11.28 + 1.3   Serich 18.5   Amount 18.5   Serich 18.5   Seri	Company   Comp
U	N 071 F00 F007	HEIGHA FIUNAL ESCURTS Service - Warthwide S72-745-7896 New York, USA Moor Greft Cards CHEIGEA BOODER	FRANKFURT & A	PARK LANE ESCORT SERVICE 1 0 N D O N 1EL 0956 379219 or 0860 485236	Scinc n 8.91 — 95 Muli Sikipc n 9,91 — 91 NYL I Sikipc n 10.46 — 22 EAR SikAD n 14.67 + 94 Bon Mullic Pandis AssiAl 13.19 — 92 Indo Faginc n 9.83 + 93 Indo	L Novinstant 1.05 Field 19.72		20 Winelst 6.41 _05 Grwin 16.61 + 09 Intres 10.46 - 13
	FERRARI LONDON ESCORT ASSNCY AJOR CREDIT CARDS ACCEPTED	 VIOLET  Escari Servica ZURICH  PARIS Credit cords coccepted For Zurich call 077 / 63 83 32 er city: dial INTL +35 2/49 42 97	Escort Service Tel: 022 / 731 90 81	FRANKFURT & AMPPORT Except Service 7et, 069-33221,  PAR15 & LONDON*   RESTIGE ESCORT SERVICE  London (71) 374 5145	Minsecs 9,92 ST B MAMPright 9,70 Vote MAMPright 19,51 + 01 MSB Fd n 18,45 - 21 Magainnath Grip, AgG/A p 9,71 Au	10.22 - 0.01   Comingo   4.15 - 1.19   12.47 - 1.14   U.S. GV   9.50 - 0.2   12.19 + 0.01   Pacifica Febs.   APresmi   10.00 - 0.01   11.49 - 0.01   Pacifica   11.49 - 0.01	SoviPri 9.57 + 01 Sond np 10.02 + 10.1	77 SmBrShD in 7.9601 SmT18nd in 9.79 ii CliGrp 11.20 +.14 12 SmBrShG f 7.9101 TdFlii 9.04 +.03 Clime 10.2201 12 SmBrShG f 7.9101 TdFlii 9.04 +.03 Clime 10.2201 13 Gold 10.5625 TxEShn 12.19 +.02 World Funds: 10 Gold 10.5625 TxEShn 12.19 +.02 World Funds: 10 Cvstor 11.54 +.07 VABd 10.72 +.07 World Funds: 10 Cvstor 11.54 +.07 VABd 10.72 +.07 World Funds:
	O71 589 8200	For Zurick cords accepted for Zurick coll 677 / 63 83 32 er city: dial INTL + 35 2/49 42 97  Telephone 0850 62373  TOP FOR ESCORT AND GUIDE TB.: TOKYO (33 3388)	A AAT ARE ARE 1 / HOTTI UI / SLI IN 35	ESCORT & TRAVEL SERVICE Tel: 39-2 407 78 72	Maria   1.55   1.35	Section   Sect	Schop 11.07 + 0.4 ShiGvinp 9.22 — 1 Sond 10.73 + 0.4 Inflirid nph 10.22 — 1 Sop Acc 19.37 — 14 Inflirid nph 10.24 + 1 SmgGr 22.44 — 15 Inflirid np 9.45 — 1 Inflirid np 10.74 — 1 Spring np 12.44 — 15 Inflirid np 10.74 — 1 Spring np 12.44 — 15 Inflirid np 10.74 — 1
LO	Box	ri Agency 346 00 89 credit cards   TOKYO EXECUTIVE   Special Service. Credit cards   Tokyo Executive   Facut Service. Credit cards   Tokyo Executive   Tokyo	cards. ESCORT SERVICE SCORD 071-935-45	PARIS-SALZBG-SWITZ-BRUSSES Fine Escort Serves. Tel: Intl + 322-223-20-28 M U N1 C H • WEL C O M E ESCORT & GUIDE AGENCY. PLEASE CALL 089 • 91 23 14	NY Mun p 9.63 + .01 End Nothup 9.68 + .02 End Nathup 9.68 + .02 End Nathup 9.68 + .02 End Madessative: Chinga 1 9.6524 End	STA 10.76 - BY EMEAP 1487 - 10  SCHOOL 11.22 + 07 CONTAP 10.00 + 10  11.22 + 07 CONTAP 10.00 + 10  11.22 + 07 CONTAP 11.32 - 14  11.23 + 07 CONTAP 11.32 - 14  11.24 + 07 CONTAP 11.32 - 14	Annoped 12.19 — 0.6 Ealmox np 15.12 + 1.7 E 8d 11.50 + 3.6 KS TF 10.44 + 1.7 KS TF 1	16 invGiBid x 9.0702 incGro 11.7407 incGro 11.7407 incGro 11.7407 incGro 11.7407 incGro 9.5508 intivided 4.02 +.02 incGro 11.7407 incGro 9.5508 incGro 11.7407 incGro 9.5508 incGro 11.7407 incGro 9.5508 incGro 11.7407 incGro 1
-	071 266 0586  ELITE ESCORTS	ZURCH * SUSAN *	SEL SUPRÉME ESCORT SERVICE	FRANKFURT KOUN DUSSELDORS of creas, Escart Service, 089-473294	GrihA p 14.40 — 13 GAI GrihA p 9,22 — 13 GAI InitA p 26.84 — 06 GAI MainStoy Funds: InitA CDAD 1 18.93 — 24 InitS	TAN 10.33 + 45 GENAT 11.34 + 47 PM 'An 9.96 + 96 GINAP 10.31 - 43 PM 17An 9.96 + 96 GINAP 10.40 - 121 PM 17An 9.71 GYNAP 19AN 19AN 19AN 19AN 19AN 19AN 19AN 19AN	Finished to 10.79 + 9.0 CopAno 15.16 - 4 ov law Counset: SIFE Trust 3.99 + 1 on 15.16 - 10.71 - 10.5 SIT Funds: SIGNIN 10.82 - 0.0 Gridine 23.76 + 1 or 23.76 + 1	W Sticing 7.65 +.04 NYTE 8.18 +.06 InBtCn 15.06 +.09 InBtCn 15.06 +.09 InBtCn 15.38 +.04 VotStk 9.45 TGV5sc 6.3001 Negr8d n 10.3102 State 5.34 Sc 13.424 United Funds: SelBCn 17.45 SelBCn 17.4
M	AJOR CREDIT CARDS ACCEPTED  K 071 586 9298	TO OUR READERS IN VEV	VEY/MONTREUX AREA	TOKYO = " ESCORT SERVICE Mejor credit conds eccepted. Tel: [03] 3C6-4578. L O N D O N ESCORT AND GUIDE SERVICE TEL: 0860 791583	C786 t 7.81 - 16 PRE C786 t 7.81 - 25 MS Equity 13.52 + 95 MD Gabl t 11.51 - 10 MD Gavit 8.21 - MS NRSGaid 1 9.95 - 29 Mun	TAN 10.10   IMPGAP 10.27 + All FT IP 10.53 + Bl AMINA P 10.17 + 36 N TA 10.51 + Bl AT MAN P 10.17 + 36 N TAN 9.54 + 60 NYTRA P 10.40 + 38 A TAN 10.43 + 36 REGFAP 17.29 - 97 B	rdential Pands: Tog-Free p. 9.6 + .0 fich A 12.1416 US Gav 10.420 di At 9.5711 AggG-Tin 9.771 lockGv 9.7722 Boffrin 9.45 + .0 Alba p. 10.4422	4 Soft/VichBelat0704 Bond x 5.7707 TorRet n 12.08 +.05
_	PRETTY WOMAN " GREVA "PARS " Excert Service " 321 99 61	Hand-delivery is now available on a Just call toll-free	y of the IHT day of publication.	SWEDEN, STOCKHOLM ESCORT SERVICE TEL: 08 157821	Total 14.93	IAP 411 + 511 SmCooA 10.22 - 12 E IC1 411 + 511 USGVAP 7.35 - 36 E ITAM 411 + 511 USGVAP 7.35 - 36 E ITAM 411 + 511 USGVAP 1.35 - 36 E ITAM 7.73 - 511 ASSIST 11.21 - 13 G IN1 7.73 - 511 ASSIST 11.22 - 13 G IN1 7.73 - 511 ASSIST 14.76 - 33 G	SMAP 1336 —11 CDGGT 11,76 — A SMAP 1337 —10 INCST 9,97 + A INCST 10,45 + A INCST 10,	CATEM 10.07 INCOMP 24.18 - 29 ZSMAA 12.04 - 02 ZSMAA 12.04 - 03 ZSMAA 12.05 - 03 ZSMAA 12.0
_		osi cali ion-use	s. 1999/9/	MAYFAIR ESCORT SERVICE Gundstroot 26 the Hopaue, Holiston Tel: +31 (070) 3607976.	ShortGv n 17.01 — 27   50 T	'An 1822 + 122   Contrat 1641 + 110   G	^^A 10 8.77 + 0.02   SumbβEqi pn(1.67 — i	11 USGOW 14.54 + 03 ScTech 13.9527 ZSPB 10.94 + 04

F1!

TO OUR READERS IN ALBANIA

Hand delivery is now available
Just call: (42) 23 502
"Independent Albanian Economic Tribune"

How Bayer conserves resources by recycling:

There was a time when the importance of using raw materials efficiently was not appreciated to the same extent it is today. Many things that were formerly disposed of as waste are now recycled or have become the starting products for new materials.

For example, sulphur dioxide is collected in flue-gas precipitators and converted into sulphunc acid. Hydrochloric acid, a by-product of chlorination processes, is returned to the manufacturing cycle. Polluted solvents are reprocessed, and useful substances are recovered from waste water with the help of modem separation techniques. As a result, raw materials are conserved and the burden on the environment caused by emissions is eased.

Environmentally acceptable operations and responsible conduct are, to us, important steps forward in preserving the natural basis of life for generations to come.

We would be happy to provide more information upon request. Please write to Bayer AG, Public Relations Department (KI), 51368 Leverkusen, Germany.

Expertise with Responsibility

Hanoi Hungrily Eyes Grape Nuts and Kool-Aid

By Malcolm W. Browne New York Times Service

HANOI - Fifty American companies hoping to do business here have concluded the first U.S. trade fair in Vietnam since the war ended

Hundreds of thousands of curious residents paid 20 cents each to tour the booths, called Vietnamerica Expo '94, and sample a few wares. High school teachers sent their students to the Giang Vo Exhibinon Center to practice their English with the visiting salesmen, and the students often peppered the Americans with friendly personal questions four-day fair: Vietnamese visitors learned how to withdraw money (it it?" a disappointed student said. was fake) from American cash machines, and American entrepreneurs learned that Vietnamese are not fond of potato chips.

The exhibition had been organized before President Bill Clinton lifted the U.S. trade embargo on Vietnam on Feb. 3. As a result, company representatives had prepared to talk business and few had brought products for sale. At a General Foods stand, visitors gawked at packages of Grape Nuts, Kool-Aid and chocolate-drink mix. but there were no samples or sales.

their food if they won't let us uy Despite its long isolation from the United States, Vietnam is well acquainted with the electronic products familiar to most Americans -Japanese-made television sets, compact-disk players and videocassette players. Even in Vietnam's poorest, most remote hamlets, videotapes of Vietnamese movies and shows can be bought or rented.

Large quantities of Americanmade products have been smuggled into Vietnam, but they are expen-

About 2 million bottles of Coca-

"How do they expect us to like Cola arrived in the country each Pensi-Cola flavor concentrate the year through Singapore and Thai- day before the embargo was lifted land before the end of the embargo. and began distributing the drink an Laboratories in Hanoi are equipped hour after the White House anwith computers and analytical nounced the end of the trade ban. equipment made by Hewlett-Pack-This fair has been a learning > all bought through intermediaries at Timothy Edward Minges, general greatly marked-up prices. Vietnamese visitors, accustomed to state-controlled marketing under a communist regime, were startled the Vietnamese like sweetened by the vigorous competition at the things, barbecue-flavored corn fair. Pepsi-Cola, for instance, which chips and many other American is not as well known in Vietnam as snacks, but not potato chips." Coca-Cola, has moved quickly to capture a share of the market.

PepsiCo Inc. imported the first

ard Co. and other U.S. companies, experience for everyone," said manager of Siam Snack Co., a unit of PepsiCo based in Thailand. "We've learned, for one thing, that > Many enterprises offered services and goods aimed at improving Vietnam's roads and communications systems. At a display by Vietnam Investment Information Consulting Corp., which is based in San Diego and helped organize the show, visitors inspected models of a prefabricated bridge that can be quickly put across a river or canal to carry heavy traffic.

A Third Turkish Bank Is Closed

ISTANBUL - Authorities ordered the Turkish

Import & Export Bank closed on Sunday. The bank, known as Impex, was the third to he closed in two weeks after a run on deposits by customers fearful over Turkey's faltering economy.

Impex, owned by the private Eliyesil group, has assets of 8 trillion lira ($261 million) and specializes in trade finance and corporate banking. Its current owners acquired it in 1991 from the fugitive Turkish Cypriot businesman Asil Nadir, former chairman of the collapsed conglomerate Polly Peck International PLC.

The Treasury said administration of Impex was being temporarily transferred to the state-run Emlakbank to make legal payments.

On Saturday, Impex said that it did not have a liquidity problem and was meeting its obligations. It said its only difficulty was debt relations with a Swiss bank, which it did not identify.

The Treasury, trying to control an economic crisis marked by a sharp rise in interest rates and the lira's depreciation, said impex was the last of Turkey's 70 banks to be in trouble.

INTL

GROSPIRON

The int'l movers Around the world
corefully, safely

(Y) INTERDEAN

FOR A-FREE ESTIMATE CALL

PARIS (1) 39201400

REAL ESTATE

FOR SALE

As of today there is no other bank in the system that is in difficulty to meeting its obligations either.

in Turkish lira or foreign currency," it said. The private Marmara Bankasi Bank was barred from accepting deposits last Thursday, and TYT Bank received a similar order on April 11. The banks had reported significant uses in 1993 profits, attracting Turkish lira and foreign currency savings with high interest rates. But growing uncertainty since the beginning of Turkey's financial crisis in mid-January and loss of confidence in the banking system sparked a run on small banks. The dollar has gained 115 percent against the lira since January.

Last week, a legislative committee approved a bill on central bank autonomy, adding a clause to enable the central bank to extend credit to banks squeezed by sudden withdrawals in times of financial crisis.

Industry Minister Tahir Kose told the committee that the rush to withdraw deposits during crises threatened banks. "Even hig banks can't resist such sudden withdrawals. The clause in the law is a security valve." he said.

rootus & more, all over Paris from $620, ma. Tel 1-42025253, Fax 1-42063109

PARIS AREA UNFURNISHED

Embassy Service

YOUR REAL ESTATE

Tel: {1} 47.20.30.05

LITTLE HOUSE in the heart of Paris (7th), 160-sq.m. + large celtor. 100 sq.m. garden. 3 bedrooms, 2 bedrooms, reception rooms. To rent. Tel. 38 31 92 02 kind 16 first from Paris).

EMPLOYMENT .

EMPLOYMENT SERVICES

PORSCHE

MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS

subsidiaries in Asia. Fax New York: ]+1) 212-391-8298

EDUCATIONAL POSITIONS AVAILABLE

NGEISH TEACHERS, blingual, experi-enced, full-line, Legal or financial knowledge preferred. Tel: Cybele Langue - Paris (1) 42,89-18-26.

AUTO RENTALS -

AGENT IN PARIS

Media Mer.

Near

.....

2.0

L -

200

territoria.

£...

-0.1

Fatili

4 υĒ...

are in the

DET CO

المراجعة المرام

Programs

TT 7- -

nasda

FIDELITY SPECIAL GROWTH FUND Société d'Investissement à Capital Variable Kansallis House, Place de l'Étoile

B.P. 2174 L-1021 Luxembourg

R.C. No B 20095 DIVIDEND NOTICE

At the Annual General Meeting held on March 31, 1994, it was decided to pay a dividend of US$ 0.05 (cents) per share on or after April 28, 1994 to shareholders of record on April 7, 1994 and to holders of bearer shares upon presentation of coupon No 8.

Paying Agent: KREDIETBANK S.A. LUXEMBOURGEOISE 43. Boulevard Royal L-2449 LUXEMBOURG

SYNOPSIS OF PROPOSED PROCUREMENT

The United States Travel and Tourism Administration (USTTA) intends to contract with a qualified responsible firm to provide warehouse and customer order filling services for the distribution of the USTTA HOLIDAY PLANNER in France and Germany. The contractor shall directly receive and fill individual consumer orders for the PLANNER, and perform the same services for orders received from the U.S. Government and the European travel trade. The USTTA will provide the PLANNERS as Government Furnished Property (GFP) to the contractor for inventory and distribution free of charge. The contractor's cost of operations (warehousing, inventorying, cost of taking orders), and a reasonable profit shall be passed onto the individual consumer via the retail price of obtaining a PLANNER. The contractor may be required to transport GFP from current warehouse locations in Europe to its own facility. The contractor is required to have its operating facility in Europe.

interested parties should request a copy of the solicitation (number 52-SATS-4000-55) in writing from Mr. Max Ollendorff at the American Embassay (USTTA), 2, Avenue Gabriel, 75383 Paris, Cedex 08, France.

Harrods' Chief Exits Fighting

LONDON — Harrods, the London department store, has parted company acrimoniously with its managing director.

Harrods said Sunday that Peter Bolliger, the executive, resigned because be was going to be fired for "incompetence," while he argued that the owner, Mohammed al-Fayed, interfered with his work.

Mr. Bolliger, a 49-year-old Swiss national who bad held the job since and they have to know whom to report to."

He said of Mr. Fayed: "He likes to feel he is running the company totally by himself. He will even go behind a counter and cut salami." But Mr. Bolliger acknowledged that he resigned after receiving a letter

1991, was quoted in The Mail on Sunday as saying: "There are 5,000 staff

April 7 informing him of his imminent dismissal. Harrods said the reason for his planned dismissal was the "unfavorable" result of an audit of a Harrods subsidiary of which he was president and mismanagement of funds earmarked for the refurbishment of a

Deep Cuts for Olympic Air

ATHENS - Greece has put forward a drastic plan for restructuring the indebted Olympic Airlines, including early retirement for 1,745 workers and a four-year wage freeze, Transport Minister Ioannis Haralambous said on Sunday.

Mr. Haralambous, who announced the plan to the Olympic workforce and management on Saturday, gave some further details in a radio interview. He said 1,745 workers would have to take early retirement, 950 of whom would go in 1994, and wages would be frozen at 1993 levels for the next four years.

Mr. Haralambous said the program would be presented to the European Commission in May. Greece is boping to get permission from the Commission to write off Olympic's debt, estimated at some Mr. Haralambous, who became transport minister when the Socialists won national elections last October, said the restructuring would cost the state 427 billion drachmas ($2 billion). Other measures include an immediate halt to Olympic's Athens-Tokyo and Athens-Chicago service. In a second phase, Olympic would also halt flights to Australia, Canada, Amsterdam and Vien-

TO OUR READERS IN FRANCE

It's never been easier to subscribe and save with our new toll free service. Just call us today at 05 437 437.

We'll give you lessons you'll never forget.

If Spanish leaves you lost for words, you can enrol on a specialist language course at colleges throughout Spain. From the summer university of Santander to ancient university towns like Santiago de Compostela or the peerless Granada. Or in the big cities like Madrid and Barcelona . Either way, your education will go far beyond the classroom.

GREAT BRITAIN MOVING AGS ns, terroce, seo views. + conex, ns. £160,000 Tel: 44 (0)323 73622

SWITZERLAND

AND INTERIOR PESCETS

ALL CREW &

Sole to foreigners outhertood, our specialty since 1975 select PROPERTES & CHALES; in MONTREEK, VILLARS, LES DIABLEETS, GSTAAD, CRANS-MONTANA, VERSIER, etc., From SF. 200,000 to 3.5 min. REVAC S.A. 52, Monthrillent, CH-1211 Geneva 2 7el 4122-734 15 40. Feet 734 12 20

USA RESIDENTIAL

MAUL HAWAII, OCEANFRONI Coades. $20,000+ down/foil pres $140,000+ in-house financing in questying Cel 24 hours. Tel 808-665 0660, Fore 808-669-1228 USA

REAL ESTATE

TO RENT/SHARE

PARIS AREA FURNISHED

AGENCE CHAMPS ELYSEES

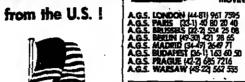

specialists in furnished apparaments, residential areas, 3 months and more.

Tel: (1) 42 25 32 25 Fee: (1) 45 63 37 09

INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFIED

Attention visitors

ANNOUNCEMENTS

If you enjoy reading the IHT when you travel, why not also get it at home? with a triently personal touch? Tel: Paris [33-1] 48 11 71 71 Same-day delivery available

Colf (1) 800 882 2884 |in New York cell 212 752 3890) Herald de Eribune in key U.S. cities.

MILA SCHÖRL The most refined of or lies, in ZURICH exclusively of WEINBERG's - leading men's store 13, Biohnholstr. 01-2/11 29 50 ALCOHOLICS ANONYMOUS English stooling meetings dolly. Tel: PARS (1) 46 34 59 66, NICE (53 93 44 39 29, ROME 678 0320, FRANKFURT 9774365. WORLD CUP TICKETS Change game fiches for sole, fax Tock USA 312-346-8434

READERS ARE ADVISED

SPAIN ANALLONCA, Villa, ½ ir from Poinca, 300 sq.m., 2 otres, pool, lorge rooms, 2 lorge terrotes, 2 garoges, Good condition, spectrocitor views, sec. 8, mountains, £189,000, UK 0252 877303

BUSINESS MESSAGE CENTER

that the international Headd Tribune council be held responsible for loss or damages incurred as a re-summers mentions a re-sult of transactions stem-ming from advertisements which appear in our paper, it is therefore recommend-ed that readers make ap-COMMERCIAL/BUSINESS FINANCE crolloble for my vigible projects worklands. Fast brief synopsis in finglish to Corporote Advances, 44-273-621300. Quale Ref; 71 propriets inquiries before sending any money or entering into any binding

OPPORTUNITIES

IRISH NON-RESIDENT COMPANIES £195

ideal tox-avaidance vehicles: low profile, tax free & European. Suit-able for trading, consultancy & other activities. For immediate service contact

Elich Marphy, Director, Soversign Company Services, 56 Facwilliam Square, Dublin 2, Ireland. Teh +353 t 6618490 Fex 6618493

AVAILABLE CAPITAL Sources of copital available for investments worklowde. Roal estate, business start ups or estimance. Long terms - best rates - broker fees paid and prolected.

Fac your proposal summary to: Far fixely luvesiteanth Green, Inc.

After Fleenidal Department Pass (507) 43 5035 (Passastra).

OFFSHORE COMPANIES
Free professional contuitations
Worldwide introportions
Immediate ovalidability
Full Confidential services

ASTON COMPORATE TRUSTEES LTD 19, Peel Road, Douglas, Isle of Mon Tel: 0624 626591 Fax 0624 625126

ACTIONAL GEORGE REF; TI OFFSHORE BANK with Class A figured, full treat-chord or tompercial bank powers. Text free venue, Immediate transfer, US $25,000, London 44 71
394 5157, Conodo 804 902 63/9

OFFSHORE COMPANIES: JPCR 1/5
-Church Street Douglas, let of Mars.
Tel: (8624) 62/552 Fras: (8624) 62/662
OFFSHORE COMPANIES. For free prochure or orbital Tel: London
44 81 741 1224 Fox: 44 81 748 6559 TAX SERVICES

2.5. TAX RETURNS prepared by FIRM CP AMERICAN TAX SPECIALISTS / occounters, Advice to prior year non-filers. Mr. Sigmon Tah (1) 42 81 18 46.

CAPITAL AVAILABLE CONFIRMABLE DRAFTS BACKED BY CASH

Issued in Your Name Confirmed by Mojor ke'l Banks to Prove Availability of Funds Backed by Private Investors

BUSINESS SERVICES LONDON ADDRESS BOND STREET. Flegant offices & all services Tal: (44-71) 499 9192 Fuos 499 7517

SAVE ON International Phone Calls

Now you can call the U.S. and save as much as 60% acceptated to face phone companies or calling and plans. Cell from home, office or hotels and avoid surcharges.

Available in all countries.

∰kallback Tel: 1/206-284-8600

Fax: 1/206-282-6666 417 Second Avenue West Scottle, WA 98119 USA Agent inquiries welcome

SERVICED OFFICES

YOUR OFFICE IN PARIS In ready when you need it, even for a copple of hours.

• Fully functional modern offices and conference rooms to rent by the hour, day, qualit, etc....
• Your locked or permonent base
• presige making address. All terroces gravity for the preside making address.

91, Fa SH-barner 75008 PARIS
Tel (1) 4471.3636. Fox (1) 4266.15.60 EIFEL TOWER OR EXPO PORTE DE VERSAULES
From studios lo live-room de los Doily, weetby or monthly Free shuttle service to Fundament and

PARIS PROMO artitigats to rent furnished or, not 8 Property Management Services Hache 75008 Paris, Fax I 45611020 Tel: (1) 45 63 25 60

YOUR HOME IN PARIS

ENTER URBIS
Lucury rentals & sales
31 rue de Manaeau, Paris 75008 Tel: (1) 45 63 17 77

Fecing Hotel CONCORDE LAFAYETE
Literations 2 rooms, IV; phane.
No agency tea. F4500.
Lease I month or more.
45, Bid Gourion St. Cyr., Pans 17th.
Tel: [1] 43 99 66 72 tyte, SAINT PAUS, in 17th century building, 3rd floor, elevator, large liv-ing, 2 bedrooms, beams, squeped tirchen, 90 gam, perfect condition, scottlement amounts

7th/6th Very special 1 bearson Chorn - Beats - Syle : Best neighbourhood in town Tel 1-47 53 80 13 Fex 45 51 75 77

MENT FROM DERGI AUTO WEEGEND. IT 515 SPECIAL OFFER 7 DAYS. IT 1000 PARIS TEL: (1) 45 87 27 04 LEGAL SERVICES Hondpicked quality apartments, oil sizes, Paris and suborts. CAPITALE PARTNERS Tet [1] 46 14 B2 ]1, Face NYONCE FAST. $295.00. P.O. Box 8040, Anchesti, CA 92802, Coll/Fox 074 968-8695 USA.

(1) 47 72 30 96.

NBURLY, RD DE LA SALESAYE, high closs, lorge reception, 3 believours, 2 boths, keye bolossy, on gorden, 165 sq.m. F20,000 net. Tel; 1-45 63 17 77. LOW COST FLIGHTS 4th, ILE SAINT LOUIS, elegant, superb. 75 stim, living + 2 bedrooms, fire-place, 1, year minimum. Free immed-ably, F11,000 pet, Tel, 1-45 25 75 36. ACCESS VOYAGES
One Way Remed Trips
York F780 F1995
1 F600 F720 PARIS BENVENUE chann, privacy with service & furnished rentals. 3 rights to 2 years. Tel 1-(2)24040 Fee 1-(2)24048 15th, near 7th, barge hing; 2 bed; 15th, near 7th, barge hing; 2 bed; 1com; 1c

New York
Loadon F600 F720
& 450 more destinations cround world by 40 different scheduled corniers.

- Restrictions ency apply
Tal: 1-40.13.02.02.2 & 1-42.21.46.94
Force 1-45.08 & 23.5
Ministra 2615 ACCESSYOTAGE
6 rue Plerre Lastest, 73.001 Parts
Metro = EER Charlett Let Halles
(Lic. 1.75.111)_asted place

WORLDWIDE Songial days

> Herald Eribune PLANNING TO RUN A CLASSIFIED AD?

FRANCE PICE Form, Tal.: (1) 46 37 93 85, Fore (1) 46 37 93 70. GERMANY, AUSTRIA & CENTRAL EUROPE Frontier, Tel.: [069] 72 67 55. Fox. [069] 72 73 10. SWITZBLAND: Puby. Tal. (021) 728 30 21. Fex: (021) 728 30 91 UNITED KINIGOCINE London Tel : (071) 836 4602 Teles: 202009, Fox: (071) 240 2254.

terre, vary secura. FF20,000, min. Tel: (1) 47 20 56 08 (mo:

NEW YORK Tel. [212] 752-3890. Tell free: [800] 572-7212. Teles: 427 175 Fax: [212] 755-8785 ASIA/PACIFIC

CURRENCY AND CAPITAL MARKET SERVICES

CURRENCY MANAGEMENT CORPORATION PLC ter Bouse, 77 London Wall - London EC2M 5ND Tel.: 071-382 9745 Fax: 071-382 9487 FOREIGN EXCHANGE & GOLD

24 Hour London Dealing Desk Competitive Rates & Daily Fax Sheet Gall for further information & brochure

EUROPEAN PRICEBUSTER

Call Anytime

Cau Signal

44 + 71 231 3556 Duff Forecasts and Market Myths for 1994 ne US dollar will soan deflation will continue; gold & most commodili wan I rise, Japan's economy & stock market will be weak. Vou did

O LIVE DATA FROM AROUND $10/DAY O

@ EOD Data for $ 5/Day @ © 130+ Software Applications @

NOT read that in FullerManay - The Identicality Investment latter.
Call Sylv Entires to example stud (and only) at Charling that,
I Swallow Strait, Landon, WIS 7(0, b): To Landon 71, 429,454 (17) in USO or Fey 71, 439,454 Consistent profits in futures are possible! Learn how to speculate like a professional in international futures markets

Call for free info: Gerling & Cie., 4, rue Pasteur, 75011 Paris, France Tel.: 33-1-43 86 01 12 - Fax: 33-1-43 86 01 43

FINTECH ASSET MANAGEMENT LTD: PROFESSIONAL CURRENCY MANAGERS Highly Rated Computer Based Technical Service

* Currency Fund Monagement (S.F.A. Membars) Corporate Advisory Services *14 Year Audited Track Record Call: Danald Lewis or Philip Jones Tel: (44) 753 842022 Fax: (44) 753 833229

For further details on bow to place your listing contact: PATRICK FALCONER in London

Tel.: (44) 71 836 48 02 - Fax: (44) 71 240 2254 Herald Eribune

湘泊金融 LONDON & GLOBAL FOREIGN EXCHANGE PLC PREMIER SPECULATION SERVICE QUOTE UP TO 100 MILLION USS r, Caingo House, 11 Bear Street, Landon WC2H 7AS Tel.: [071] 839 6161 Fax: [071] 839 2414

Future Source The real-time information system preferred by Institutions and now available to traders at home. Unrivaled coverage at an unrivaled price. Futures • Options. • FX • Energy • Commodities. • Metals • News • Full Charting & Technical Analysis from our Worldwide coverage • available via Satellite through Europe. Call FutureSource Tel.: +44 71-867 8867 Fax: +44 71-481 3042

·FOREX -METALS ·BONDS ·SOFTS Objective analysis for professional investors (44) 962 879764 Flennes House, 32 Southgale Street, Winchester Hants S023 9EH UK-Fax (41) 424 774067

Please call for a FREE copy of the market letter of your He choice.

FINANCIAL TRADERS, LTD. 280 Oser Avenue uppauge, NY 11788, USA Tel.: 516-435-4890 Fax: 516-435-4897

INTERNATIONAL HERALD TRIBUNE, MONDAY, APRIL 25, 1994

For New Champ Moorer, There's Life After Holyfield and Boxing. There's Life After Holyfield and Boxing to him.

Michael Moorer, right, pounded Evander Holyfield to become the first left-banded champion

By Gerald Eskenazi

New York Times Service

LAS VEGAS — Michael Moorer

is the new heavyweight champion of the world, but he was thinking of how nice it would be to quit.

Still partly concealed behind his ever-present dark glasses, Moorer disclosed Saturday a side that he has kept from the public through much of his career. It is a career that had peaked the night before. when methodically, but also in furious hursts, he wrested away Evander Holyfield's two heavyweight crowns with a majority deci-

"It's not important for me to fight next," said Moorer, "way or unify the title," he said. "I'm 35-0 people always want to know who with 30 KOs. I'm going to make you're going to fight next right after you've had a hard fight?" myself happy. All you do when you win is just make more money."

"I want to get into law enforce-forcement buff. He is a member of released Sunday. the Detroit auxiliary police. Sometimes, he goes along on police runs. haoder to win a heavyweight His entourage includes police of crown. Computerized statistics ficers, one of whom helped remove his wife, Bobbie, from his apartment last year during a domestic dispute. Moorer is separated and in a prolonged divorce battle.

His 20-month-old son, Michael II, is in the middle of the case. Moorer had been bitter all week that his wife would oot allow the boy to visit him in Las Vegas. "I want to get back to Detroit and see him," said Moorer.

There is nothing else oo his mind right now, he said. His body is battered, although oot as badly as Holyfield's.
"I don't know who I'm going to fight next," said Moorer, "Why do

After the fight, Moorer was And that could mean that, within a year or so Moorer, 26, will go back to school.

And that could mean that, within treated at a hospital for a bad bruise ou his left elbow, which might have a slight fracture. Holyfield, meanwhile, remained in the ment," said the champion, who has hospital overnight because of dehyhad three publicized brushes with dration and a possibly torn left rotator cuff. He also has a six-stitch But Moorer is also a law-en- cut on his left eyelid. He was to be

Moorer became the first left-show that Moorer landed an astounding 180 jabs to Holyfield's 36.

And it was those jabs that helped put him in possession of the World Boxing Association and International Property of the World Box of the tional Boxing Federation crowns.

Moorer, who will earn as much as $5 million for his victory, said he doesn't care about facing Lennox Lewis, who holds the World Boxing Council title, although some boxing observers express skepticism about Moorer's intentions. They think he may want an easy light against a lesser opponent before he thinks about Lewis.

In any event, boxing will remain without a single ruler this year for its most important division. Lewis had already signed to meet Holy-field in a unification bout in November, a bout that became moot with Holyfield's defeat. Moorer oow is the seventh fighter to claim all or part of the heavy-weight crown, going back to Mike Tyson in 1990. And it doesn't appear that there will be any unifica-

To Moorer, the title brings a re-sponsibility he hasn't always exhibited, despite his perfect record. "I doo't know if I can go through the burden. It just doesn't seem to carlier this year, knowing that the fighter frequently argued with his trainers about working out. Atlas even sat down on Moorer's stool after the eighth round Friday to embarrass Moorer into fighting more aggressively.

"He has problems taking control," said Atlas, "But after he got up from the second-round knockdown, he showed he cared."

And will Atlas stay now? "I guess so," he said, "Maybe. We'll see, Maybe I'll move on." But Atlas said he hoped that winning the heavyweight crowns would change Moorer, citing the boxing adage that winning the otle improves a fighter 30 percent.

Moorer, though, doesn't appear to have a passion for the perks or symbolism of being the champion. although he does acknowledge that there is a responsibility.

"It's the epitome," be said Saturday. "There's a lot of things that come along with it. I'll just have to be ready for it, I guess."

He didn't sound as if he relished

"I want to do something else," he said. "I could retire because of

Yet, he can be motivated, Atlas discovered early on in training that So when there were tough moments against Holyfield, Atlas screamed, "You're a Viking!" That motivated him, along with the unusual sight of Atlas sitting in his stool, shouting, "Do you want to change places with me?"

Passion? There must be plenty for a man to win the title. After his news conference Saturday, Moorer asked: "Why are they talking about Evander's shoulder? Why don't they respect me? Talk ahout Evander's shoulder takes away something from me."

He left Brooklyn, New York, when he was young and moved with his mother and five brothers and sisters to Monessen, outside Pittsburgh. When he began a boxing career, he moved to Detroit. The times he got into trouble was when he went back to Monessen, said his promoter, Bill Kozerski Jr. Kozerski said Moorer's police problems happened because people "settle differences in the street in arrested in a street brawl that pitted blacks against whites. Two years later, he was charged with bitting a police officer, who eventually sued him and won a six-figure civil suit. And in December in Detroit, words in a nightcluh led to a shouting match with two women and a fight with their escorts.

"You can't disrespect him," Ko-zerski said. "He'll walk away from it oow."

"That's behind him," said Ko-

His manager, John Davimos, said that the oew champion might really oot be caught up in symbol-ism, that be may be telling the truth about wanting a simpler life.

"I think his atotude is that Michael Moorer is oot in this for history," said Davimos.

• In a stunning upset on the undercard, Junior Jones Jones lost his WBA bantamweight title when he was stopped in the 11th round by his fellow American John Michael Johnson, Jones had been unbeaten

John John Molina of Puerto Rico, by a unanimous decision over Gregorio Vargas of Mexico, retained his IBF junior lightweight crown.

Nearing Florida, Yamaha French Sailboat Leads Whitbread Race

FORT LAUDERDALE, Florida - The yacht Yamaha was still leading as world-class sailing yachts approached the end of the fifth leg of the Whitbread Round The World Race. Yamaha, a Japanese-New Zealand Whithread 60 yacht, was reported just off the Bahamian island of Eleuthera, 238 miles (384 kilometers) from the finish line, race officials said Saturday. The yacht was expected to reach Fort Lauderdale on Sunday. Intrum Justitia was 117 miles behind, averaging 11.8 knots, a knot

"It's great to get into a bit more pressure," said Ross Field,

Yamaha's skipper. "I oever thought I'd say it, but I am happy to be rockin' and rollin' on our way home." Field added that during Friday's dinner oo board Yamaha, the crew consumed the last of their full rations. On Friday, members of U.S. Women's Challenge, the all-woman crew that had been in the race, filed a $15 million suit in U.S. District Court. The crew, along with a former crew member, Nance Frank, named Yamaha Motor Co., Heineken Breweries, Ocean Ventures

Management and the Whitbread Round the World Race in the suit. It charges that Yamaha and Ocean Ventures, co-owners of the U.S. Women's Challenge's boat, interfered with sponsorship negotiations with Heineken, causing the strapped team to withdraw on Oct. 30.

Shatters Mark

The Associated Press

SAN FRANCISCO - Isabelle Autissier called it a wonderful trip in a wonderful boat after she and her three-man crew sailed the French boat Ecurenil Poitou-Cha-rentes 2 into the San Francisco Bay on Friday night to end a voyage from New York in a record-shattering 62 days, 5 hours, 55 minutes.

The French vessel is a light monohull with a fairly small sail area. The ballasts were replaced by a bydraulic, laterally pivoting keel. Her rig includes a bowsprit that can also move laterally.

The previous record of 76 days. 23 hours, was set in 1989 by George Kolesnikovs of Canada and crewman Steve Pettengill. Earlier that year, solo U.S. sailor Warren Luhrs had done it in 80 days, 20 hours, 17

Autissier, 37, sailed with Luc Bartissol, 28; Pascal Boimard, 42 and Lionel Lemonchois, 33.

World Cup Tickets Back on Sale, in U.S.

NEW YORK - A four-day first-round, second-round and quar-"private" sale of single tickets for World Cup matches began Sunday in the United States, further con-ber, 800-769-1994, in the United fusing what tickets are, are oot or States, with a maximum of 10 tickets will be available for the soccer tournament that begins June 17. Although open to the public, only a limited ournber of people were informed of the sale through a letter from World Cup USA organizers, its senior press officer, Jeff Idelson, confirmed Saturday.

"It was intended to give people who were shut out in the first private sale, other members of the (U.S.) soccer family and people who have been calling the public information line about ticket availability," Idelson said.

The organizers have announced a Thursday news conference to detail plans to sell tickets made available by sponsors and FIFA-alfihated federations that had not exercised their right to buy all the tickets available to them.

Tickets for about 37 of the 48 for matches in Washington, Chica-Bernard Tapie, the team's presiirst-round, second-round and quargo, New York and San Francisco. dent, would cootest the federaper person per game allowed.

Idelsoo said the single-game private sale will end Wednesday and the public sale will begin "sometime after Thursday." On the other hand, U.S. travel agencies selling ticket packages appear to be finding that they have more unsold seats than expected. Premium packages that include hotel and air fares have found fewer takers than expected, eveo side the host country have found tickets hard to come by. Only in the last few days has World Cup allowed us to sell tickets without hotel accomodations," said Dennis Taylor, president of Pleasure Break, a Chicago travel though many delegations from out-

He said his agency still had seats go, New York and San Francisco. The organizers still have premiom packages for as moch as courts and likely, through the $10,000. A special package for the French National Olympic Comsemifinals and finals in Los Angeles remains available for $2,500.

• The deadline for World Cup teams to submit their 22-man ros-ters has been set at midnight, Central European Time, on Friday. June 3. The rosters are to be announced 12 hours later by FIFA.

 Lennart Johansson, the head of UEFA, said Sunday he supported the French federation's decision to relegate Olympique Marseille to the second division because of the bribery case involving the team, but said he was "very surprised that the judgement was so severe."

Now that the FFF has made its decision, we lift our suspension imposed last fall, Johansson added. "Thus, Marseille is free to play in the European Cups next season." Marseille's financial director, charge.

Alain Laroche, said earlier that Olympique's former general secre-tary, were barred Friday night from all future activity in French soccer. Three players involved, Jean-Jacques Eydelie of Marseille and Christophe Robert and Jorge Burruchaga of Valenciennes, were sustion's sanctions through the civil mittee, the only sporting appeal procedure open to him.

Tapie and Jean-Pierre Bernes, pended until July 1, 1996. That would keep Burruchaga from playing for Argentina in the World Cup.

• Eric Cantons, the Frenchman voted Europe's player of the year by his fellow professionals, made a typically flamboyant return from suspension with both goals in the 2-O victory over Manchester City on Saturday that re-ignite Manchester

United's flagging championship (AP, AFP, Reuters)

NASDAQ	NATIONAL	MARKET
--------	----------	--------

| 1848 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174 | 174

Marsellet's financial director, charge.

(AP, AP, Research BEF)

(AP, AP, Rese

wils or ਘ

199.

cour

Payi

San Francisco

Friday's Line Scores

Colifornia 900 504 905—6 16 9 Beston 121 909 101—4 11 1 Finley, B. Pakerson (8), Sampen 19), Lef-Finley, B. Potrerson (5). Santeen 19). Let-terts (7) and Mykrs: Viola, Harris (7) and Rowland, W.—Harris, 1-1, L.—Sampen, 0-1. HR.—Bastan, Cooner 131. Gekland 231 110 880—4 14 1 New York 349 291 18x—8 9 8 Dorling, Reyes (4). Nunez (7), Taylor (8) and Steinbach Diedo, Kamieniecki (3). Poli 17), Howe (?) and Stanler, W.—Komlenlecki, 1-0. L.—Reyez, 6-), Sv.—Howe (2), HRs—Oak-land, 2 teinboch (4), New York, D'Nelli (5), B.

Erickson, Willis (4), Trambley (7) and Wei-eck; Hentgen and Borders, W.—Hentgen, 3-1. —Erickson, 1-3, HRs—Toronto, Wnile 14),

010 401 000-2 4 1 301 000 45×-8 31 0

Sectifie 001 809 380—6 7 1
Settinarre 401 95:—6 7 1
Freming, J. Nelson 16), Kins 61, Gossoge
(7) and Hoselman; McDonald, Poole (7), La.
Smith (7) and Tackert, W—AcDonald, 40,
L—Ferming, 2: Sw—Le. Smith (2),
Freming, 2: Sw—Le. Smith (2),
Freming (2),
Freming (3),
Freming (4), Kandler (8) and Woller (8) and Woller (8) and Woller (8), Freming (7), Freming (7),
Freming (7),
Freming (8), Kandler (8), Kandler (8), Kandler (8), Freming (8), Kandler (8), Ka troti, Whitaker (4), Chicaso, Thomas (8), Ventura (4).

Kansos City 624 819 196—8 13 1

Aprier, Magnanie 161 Pictarda (7), Montgomery (9) and Macratine, Martine (4) Noverra, Sconion (6), Grosco (7) and Horper, Macheny (9), W—Crosco, 1-0, L.—Mantgomery (7) and Macratine, Martine (4) Noverra, Sconion (6), Grosco (7) and Horper, Macheny (9), W—Crosco, 1-0, L.—Mantgomery, Macheny (9), W—Crosco, 1-0, L.—Mantgomery, Macheny (9), W—Crosco, 1-1, L.—Mantgomery, Macheny (10), Macheny (11), Macheny (11), Macheny (12), Macheny (13), Macheny (13), Macheny (13), Macheny (14), Macheny (15), Macheny (15), Macheny (16), Macheny (17), Macheny (17), Macheny (18), Ma

| MATIONAL LEAGUE | C1. NISS—Cavelano, Nutray (4), 1 name (3), | Florida | 001 100 000—3 4 1 | Cmclineati | 001 870 202—4 4 0 | Hough, R. Lewis (7), Y. Perzez (7) and Santioge; Smilery, J. Ruffin (0), J. Brantiny (0) and Dorsett, W—Smiley, 2-1, L.—R. Lewis, 0-1, | Concept (2), | Corresco (6) and | Concept (3), | Corresco (6), | Corresco (

(4), Chicago, Thomas (8), Vert. Kiefer (7), Lloyd (8), Fetters (9) and Nilsson,

Colorado Los Angeles

Bullets Finish in Triumph, Unseld Quits as Coach

Wes Unseld announced his resignation Sunday after seven years as the coach of the Washington Bullets, immediately after his team finished its season with a 117-99 victory over the Charlotte Hornets.

When the game ended, Unseld announced to the crowd in Landover, Maryland, that this would be his last game as coach, and that he will return next year in a front office capacity. A Hall of Famer and five-time All-Star as a player,

SCOREBOARD

BASEBALL

AMERICAN LEAGUE

West Divis

MATIDNAL LEAGUE

,444 ,412

.556 .500 .389 .263

Major League Standings

Bullets were 24-58 this season. Knicks 92, Bulls 76: Patrick Ew- and Chicago the third. ing scored 25 points and New York used its rugged defense to win the regular-season NBA finale at historic Chicago Stadium.

NBA HIGHLIGHTS

copo, Soso 12).

New York 990 080 125—3 8 9

Son Francisco 980 080 601—1 3 9

B. Jones, Franco 191 ond Stimett; Partucal,

Burba (8) and Monworine, Ja. Reed (8).

W—B. Janes, 3-1. L—Partugal, 2-1.

Sw—Franco (4), HR3—New York, Gagui (1),

Reservice, McClan (2).

Burnitz 111. Son Francisco. McGee (2).
Peliodelphio 918 800 229—5 4 9
San Diego 901 945 61x—6 10 2 Philodelphilo 519 $00 225—5 4 9 5an Diego 001 $45 $1x—6 10 2 Baskle, Slacumb | 61, Andersen | 71, West (8)

Boskie, Stocumb 141, Andersen 171, West (8) and Doutton; Ashby, M. Davis (9), Hoffman (8) and Ausmus, W. Hoffman, 1-2, L.—West, P. L. HRs.—Philodetchia, Chamberlain (1), Son Diego, D. Bell 15), Plantier 141, Ausmus (2), Montreal 083 269 260—7 10 0 Los Ausetes 044 169 660—7 10 0 Los Ausetes 644 169 660—7 10 0 Rueter, Heredic (4), Show (4), Scott 18), Roias 19) and D. Fietcher, Spettr 181; Candidtii, McDowell 14), Dreitort 15), Gart (8), Worms 191 and Plazza, W.—Show, 1-1. Candidtii, 3-1, Sw—Roias (3), HRs—Montreal, L. Wolker 13), Los Ancetes, Snyder 141.

Saturday's Line Scores

Colifornia 001 110 006-6 7 Eoston 163 020 00x-6 1) Dopson, Lefferts 161, Grobe /81 and My Turner (2) / Dorwin, Ryon (6), Russell 19) and Valle, W.—Dorwin, 3-1, L.—Doppon, 1-2, 2w—Russell (2), HR.—Baston, Greenwell (6), Oakland 100 666 236—4 6 6

Odkiene
New York 599 162 602-5 7 1
Yon Papel, Oniversa 111, Elahatti 141, Taylor (8) and Hemand, Steinbach (8): Mul-holland, Wickman (8), Hernandez 17) and Nokes, W—Multipliand, 2-7, L—Van Poppel, 6-2, Sv—Hermander 13), 1483—Oakland, Berron 131, Slerra (7), Brosius (11, New York, C'Nelli (4), Mattingly (1).

(4), Mottingly [1].
Seatrife cos 286 168—3 4 1
Betitingre cos 286 168—4 9 0
Solkeid, Thippen [7]. Davis (8) and Hoselman: Fernandez, Mills (8), Poole 18), Smith (9) and Holles, W.—Poole, 1-0. L.—Thippen, 0-3, 5v—Smith (9), HR3—Seattle, Pirki (3), Balli-

100 000 130-4 0 500 102 00x-5 7 ppel, Ontiveros 111, Eighetti

The Knicks (57-25) finished tied court advantage through the Eastwith Atlanta for the best record in ern Conference playoffs as Stacey the Eastern Conference, but the Augmon, who had 22 points and 11 Hawks had already clinched the rebounds, ended the scoring on a Unseld was admired as a coach but top seed on the basis of a better dunk with 26 seconds left.

5v.—J. Brontley II). H.R.—Florida, Cenine (4).
Prisburgh $28 802 901—5 7 2
Attactio 00 $10 108—2 9 1
Z. Smith, Micril (7), Manzanillo (7), Dewey 17), Tobaka 181, White 181 and Goff; Smottz, Stanton (8), Wohlers 19) and District. W–Z.
Smith, 2-1, 1.—Smoltz, 2-2, Sv—White 121, H.R.—Pittsburgh, Martin (2), Attanto, Torogos, 0-3, H.R.—Chicopo, May III. Caterade (1), Young (2), Bicharte (7), United (1), Young (2), Bicharte (7), May York 808 186 58—1 4 1 finished with a 202-345 record, The conference record. New York already was assured the second seed

> The Bulls will move across the street next season to the United

In Saturday's games: Hawks 93, Magic 89: Atlanta, playing at home, clinched home-

(9), Wohlers (9) and Lopez, W—Balkard, 1-0.

L—McMichael, 7-1.

Houstes 911 198 286—6 2 1

St. Loste 911 198 286—6 2 1

Kine, B. Williams 171, Edens 161, Hudek 19) and Servois, Eusebio 191; Arocho, Urbani 141, Hobyan 151, R. Radrisusz (71, Palocios (8) and T. McGriff, W—Kile, 2-1, L—Arocho, 1-2.
HRs—Houston, Mauton (11, Fioley (4), Bass 11), Donnels (3); St. Louis, 261s 3 151, Phikadelohia 902 886 986—2 5 8
200 2686 986—2 5 8
200 2686 986—2 5 8
200 2686 986—2 5 8
201 262 986—2 5 1

Rhera, Mason (5), Slocumb (7) and Doulton; Ellicit, Mauser 13), P.A. Martinez (4) and Austrus. W—Mouser, 1-0. L—Rivera, 3-1, 3v—P.A. Martinez, 1. HRs—San Diepo, Gwynn (21; Phikadelohia, D. Hollins 131,
Mashred 62 66 37 62—6 11 0

Las Azgeles, 221 860 980 99—6 7 0

Henderson, Boucher (3), B. Henry (4), Heredia (7), Scott (9), Rolas (111 and D. Pistcher, Spehr (8), L. Webster (10); R. Mortinez, Doul
171, Gott (7), Rolas (111 and D. Pistcher,
Spehr (6), L. Webster (10); R. Mortinez, Doul
171, Gott (7), Rolas (111 and D. Pistcher,
Spehr (6), L. Webster (10); R. Mortinez, Doul
171, Gott (7), Rolas (111 and D. Pistcher,
Spehr (6), L. Webster (10); R. Mortinez, Doul
171, Gott (7), Rolas (111 and D. Pistcher,
Spehr (6), L. Webster (10); R. Mortinez, Doul
171, Gott (7), Rolas (111 and D. Pistcher,
Spehr (8), L. Webster (10); R. Mortinez, Doul
171, Gott (7), Rolas (111 and D. Pistcher,
Spehr (8), L. Webster (10); R. Mortinez, Doul
171, Gott (7), Rolas (111 and D. Pistcher, Spehr (8), L. Webster (10); R. Mortinez, Walloch (14),
H. Rodriguez (3); Mantred, L. Webster (11).

The Michael Jordan Watch

FEIDAY'S GAME: Jordon went 1-for-4 with

FEIDAY'S GAME: Jordon went 1-for-4 with on Infield bingle. RBI, one stolen both. Ivro attribeouts and two putauts in right (leid. SATURDAY'S GAME; Jordon went 2-for-5 with a single, double and two RBI in the Borons'9-1 victory over the Nashville Xaress. He also grounded out and struck out twice, He cought two By balls in right field.

SEASON TO DATE; Jordon is batting 333 (14-for-42). He is errortess in 36 chances.

Saturday's Results

To subscribe in France

just coll, toll free,

05 437 437

Honshin 1, Yomburi 0 Yokuli 5, Chunichi 4, 10 innines

Sunday's Results
Yamiuri S. Hanshin 4
Chunichi 2, Yakuli 1, 10 inninsa

,643 ,538

Japanese Leagues

The Hawks won their fourth dibest-of-5 first round of the play- en State handed visiting Los Ange-

Antonio's David Robinson for the last game as coach. league scoring title, led the Magic regular-season finale against the Los Angeles Clippers.

BASKETBALL

EASTERN COMPERENCY

tic Division
W L Pet
56 25 A71
49 32 A65
45 34 .556
42 40 .512
32 49 .395
24 57 .296
23 58 .284

20 41 20 62

.580 .407 .333 .733

25 24 22 24-118 27 21 28 27-103

24 53 22 39-113

P: Barros 4-16-2-12, Graham 7-14-1-15. II.
Smits 77-24-5-7-40. Scott 5-9-6-16. Rebounds—
Philodelphia 49 (Weatherspoon, Kidd 7), Indiana 69 (Smits 1)), Assists—Philodelphia 19 (Barros, Austia, Dawkins 3). Indiana 39 (Barros, Austia, Dawkins 3). Indiana 39 (Workman III.
Besten 24 17 27 14 6 14—104 Chicase 17 28 28 19 6 4—74
B: Parish 4-) 6-8 14, Brown 12-22 14-15-40. Ct.
Pippen 11-31 7-10 20. Armstrons 7-16-2-3 16. Rebestat—Baston 60 (Pinckney 17), Chicase 30 (Pinckney 17), Chicase 23 (Pippen, Armstrons 7.1.
Chicase 23 (Pippen, Armstrons 7.1.

GOLF

NBA Standings

x-Phoenix x-Golden State

Secremento 27 54 .333 z-clinched best conference record

Clevelands W: Gualiatta )1-)22-425 Cheaner 8-161-217.
C: HIV 6-6 4-5 28. Williams 6-16 6-10 M. Rebounds—Weshinoton 48 (Gupillotto 12), Cleveland 47 (Phills 7). Asists—Weshington 24 (Gupillotto 2), Cleveland 37 (M.Price 11).

Portional 28 32 23-108
Minnesofo 27 21 28 25-108
P: C. Robinson 9-10 10-13-26, Drexter 8-16-9-12
28. M: Lestiner 0-16-2-214, Ricer 10-16-5-25.
Rebounds—Portional 56 IDensier 10), Minnesofo 56 (Lestiner 10), Assista—Portional 28
Mintelablem 10, Mintelable

Denver 28 23 23 31-106 U: Molone 16-22 6-12 36. élockton 7-14-5 19, fornacek 9-14 1-1 19, D: Abdul-Rau( 12-18 2-2 1, SHIN 7-11 6-8 2), Rebounds—Uton 44 (Mo-

31, Sith 7-11 &4 2), Rebounds—Uroh 44 (Mo-lone) 2), Denver 48 (Ellis 13), Assists—Uroh 28 (Stockton 9), Denver 15 (Pock 4). Philadefohio 17 27 22 22—88 Indiana P: Barros 4-16 2-2 12, Grohom 7-14 1-3 15.1; Hossian 31 23 28 3)— 93

Dellas 27 28 24 34—197
H: Thorpe 6-117-)1 19, K: Smith 6-11 4-19. D:
Moshburn 10-20 7-10 28, Jackson 8-16 6-6 22,
Rebounds—Housian 58 Thorpe 151, Dollar 48
IRooks 101, Assists—Housian 18 [Cassel 8], Dollar 19 11-aver 61.

Posetix
LA.: Vought 14-18 1-1 29, Ochere 4-10 1-1 19,
P: Malerte 5-17 5-5 24, Green 6-11 3-5 19. Rebounds—Los Ansetes 29 (Vought 11), Phoenix 47 (Green 6-16, Aspiris—Los Angeles 29 (Juckson 9), Phoenix 41 (K. Johnson 13), Dollars 19 (Lever S).

New York

32 29 31 32—125

N.Y.: Pwine 8-7 6-8 22. Smith 7-13 3-4 17. M:
Boker 7-16 0-3 14, Murdock 5-11 5-8 13. Rebounds—New York 21 (Dolkio 9) in Milwoukee

44 (Boker 13). Assists—New York 3) (Ewins, Anthony 6). Milwoukee 25 (Murdock 10).

La. Cilepers

27 37 26 31—131

Adom Hunter, England
Phoenix

30 43 31 23—127

Gordon Brand Jr., England

Jan. La. Lilepers

30 43 31 23—127

Biegra Sullion, Sweden

Warriors 126, Lakers 91: Chris vision title since moving to Atlanta Webber scored 27 points to lead six in 1968. They play Miami in the Warriors in double figures as Goldles a franchise-record minth straight Shaquille O'Neal, battling San loss in Magic Johnson's next-to-

Suns 101, Kings 100: Kevin with 27 points and 19 rebounds. He Johnson scored 20 points, Cedric was everaging 29.313 points with Ceballos had 18 and Phoenix held one game left Sunday night against off Sacramento's furious last-min-New Jersey. Robinson was averag- ute rally to close its regular season ing 29.266 points heading into his with a seven-game winning streak. The Suns will play Golden State in the first round of the playoffs.

Son Armento 23 18 27 17-67 Sectité 18 23 26 20-94 S: Robinson 9-18 11-14 29, Del Nearo 7-16 7-9 22.5: Perkins 7-18 2-2 17, Pierce 10-14 6-2 2. Ro-beusés-Son Anton 36 (Rodmon 18), Sectité 44 IMcMilton 91, Austris-Son Antonin 13 IDes

SATURDAY'S RESULTS

Milwousere 22 23 31 29—135 M: Boker 7-13 4-7 16, Day 4-11 4-6 14, N.J.: Belamin 7-11 4-6 20, Gilliam 7-12 4-4 18, Rebounds—Milwoukes 45 Boker 129, New Jersey Sé (Coleman 12). Assists—Milwoukee 19 (Norman 71, New Jersey 44 (Anderson 17), Milsmi 24 19 15 25—81 Indiana 29 28 33 24—114 M: Coles 5-10 2-3 12, Selkoly 7-12 3-3 17, 1:

Smits 8-17 6-1 14, Millier 7-70 7-8 24. Rebox —Microl 44 (Selledly 15), Indiano 59 (Smits

CYCLING

Phoenix 18 22 28 23—181 S; Webb 11-20 6-7 32, Wilson 5-9 6-6 14, P; Ceballos 8-14 2-4 18, K, Johnson 7-14 6-6 20,

Resigns Seturday in the 256-kiformeter (157-milet rocet 1, Johan Museauw, Belgium, GB-MG Mosilitica, 4 hours, 42 minures, 34 sec-onds; 2, Brung Censhiolda, Italy, Gewiss-Baltan, same time; 3, Morco Saligari, Italy, GB-MG Maulificia, 7 seconds behind; 4, Al-berta Volel, Italy, Gewiss-Ballon, 21,1,5, Do-vide Rebellin, Italy, GB-MG Mosilicia, 31,1,6, 2tyreth Rocks, Netherlands, TVM, 31,17, Clau-dia Chicarchi, Italy, Caroner, Interest Treated

s.t.; C. Gerard Rue, Prance, Banesto, s.t.; 9.

4,729-meter (4,713-yord) Puts Golf Club

José Coceres, Argentina 70-61-67-69-275
Jeon-Louis Guepy, France 67-68-72-71-278
Russell Claydon, England 70-73-645-227
Som Torrance, England 70-73-65-289
Veyyne Riley, Australia 68-68-74-70-281
Gordon Brand Jr., England 70-72-69-70-281

Goron Britan Jr. Eriskan 1973-1970-201 Pierre Fulke. Sweden 71-73-70-201 Mark Meuland, England 70-72-71-69-202 Israclo Garrido, Spoln 74-73-70-66-201 Frunk Noble, Hew Zeniand 71-68-71-73-203 Rethel Goosen, South Africa 74-43-48-75-203

dio Chiapucci, Italy, Correra Jeans

bounds—Sacramenta 62 (Polynics 16), penix 62 | Barkley 14], Assists—Sacra-nto 29 (Webb 8), Phoenix 29 (K. Johnson 8),

71. Assists—Son Antonia 13 | Del tile 17 | Schrempi, McMillon 5)

HOCKEY

NHL Playoffs

First Perset—1, St. Louis, Standard 3 I Jan-ney), 5;29. Penalties—II Braten, Dal (hook-ing), 1:23; McRoe, St. (high-stickins), 10:56; Bozon, Stl. (Interterunce), 14:32; Crols. Dol (roughing), 16:27, Second Period - 2. Dollos. Klort 3 1Matvi-chuk), 2:33 (pp), 3. St. Louis. Miller 1 (Shono-han), 4:13. 4. Dollos. Chesta 1 (Covalillal. Ledyord), 7:38 (pp), 5, Dollos, Modono 3 1Eklund, Churio), 9:57, Paralities—Roberts. StL (interference), 1:41; Housley, StL (interference), 3:19; Roberts, Stl. (filgh-sticking, 6:18; Hatcher, Dal (houking), 18:39; Chase, 51). (unsportsmentitle conduct), 14:56.

Third Period-4,51, Louis Janney 1, (Shana-han, Chase), 13:47, Dollos, Garner 3, 15:11.1, 51. Louis Kasatoney 2, 19:31, Penatiles—Maryichuk, Dal (high-sticking), 11:41; Evasori, Dal (crass-checking), 2:17.

Overtime—4, Dollos, Cavaillel I (Courinell, Modeno), 6:34 [pp]. Penalty—Nedved, StL holding), 8:31, Shets on gool-Dallas $-12-5-3--31, St. Louis 14-13-14-48; power-sky opportubilitis— - Corres 3 of 7; St. Louis 6 of 5; sectios—Cal-los, Yrakaluk-3-9 148 shots-44 soves 1. St. Lauis, Joseph, 0-3 (31-26),

First Period—I, Deirolt, McCarty 2 (Konsady), 1:53, 2, Detrolt, Ciccoralli 2 (Fedorov, Kasiov), 12:53, Penalties—Mora, 5,1 (hooking),3:04; Narion,5,1(hoping),4:83; Narion, haj).3:04: Norton,3.i(frippins).4:83: Norton, 5.] (holdins). 19:85.

Second Pertod—J., Son Jose, Goudroou I (Dohlen, Pederson). 17:14 (pp). 4. Defroit, Burr 2. (broper, Chicason). 19:31. Pencitivals.—Burr, Det Idelay of sump). 3:22: Croin, 8.J Isiboving I.4:26: Coffey, Det Islashinu I.7:19: Clocarelli, Det Isaalie interferencei. 12:34: Chicason, Det (elizoving). 14:26.

Third Period—S. Son Jose, Mokarav 3. (Lar-lonov, Pederson). 19:22 (pp). Pencities—Kaz-lov, Det (holdins). 4:17; Fedorov, Det (hook-ing), 19:04. Attentio

D: Scott 9-21 0-1 26, O'Neol 7-18 1-19 27. A:
willis 5-17 5-7 21, Augment 9-14 4-5 22, Rebestus5-Oriendo 56 (O'Neol 19), Atlentia 53 IWillis 141, Assists—Oriendo 15 IHerdewey 9), Atlentia
28 (Blaylock 15).

LA Letters
24 22 13 28—91
Golden State
48 22 29 28—126
L.A.: Smith 5-17 2-2 19, Jorden 6-14 3-3 15, Alextender 6-12 7-2 15, Rebestus 3-1 - 10 Angeles
29 (Christia, Rembis, Jorden 81, Golden State
70 IWebber 119, Assists—Los Angeles
21 (Christia, Van Exel 64, Golden State 37 (Webber, Mullin, Sprewell, Johnson 5), Attisequize

19 23 2 29—100

Shots en sous-Defruit 9-147-30. Son Jose 8-14-34. Shots en sous-Defruit 9-147-30. Son Jose 8-14-34. Shots en sous-Defruit 9-147-30. Son Jose 8-14-34. Son Jose 2 of 4: soulies-Defruit 0 of 4: Son Jose 2 of 4: soulies-Defruit 0 of 4-4 vancauver 9 0 3-4-4 vancauver 9 0 served by Walz (too many man), 4;48; Bure Van, major (boarding), 4;12; Otto, Cal (high

Van, malor (boarding), 6:12; Ohto, Cal (high-shicking), 17:54.

Third Period—I, Calsary, Waiz 1 (Fleury, Roberts), 3:33, 2 Vancouver, Momesco 1 ID-duck, McIntyre), 6:35, 3. Catagry, Fleury 2 IRaberts), 8:29, 4. Catagry, Roberts 1 (Rei-chel, Musill), 18:23, 5. Vancouver, Adams 1 (Bure, Craveni, 18:42, 6. Colsary, Fleury 2 IP:35 (en). Pencilia—Babych, Van (hold-ing), 9:29: Brown, Van (holding), 13:30; Mur-zyu, Van Icross-Checking), 14:13.
Shots on spal—Colory 16:7-16—27, Vancou-Shots on soul-Cologry 10-7-10-27. Vancou Shots on state—Colory 10-7-10-22. Various ver 8-10-10-28; nover-play opportunities—Colory v of 5; Vancouver 6 of 6; seefles—Colory, Vernon, 2-7 (28 shots-26 soveel. Variouser, McLeon, 1-2 (26-23).

New Jersey 1 0 0-3
Sutfeto 2 1 2-5

Buffelo Period—I, Now Jersey, Driver I (Akoc-Leon, 2 twens), 9; 11 (po), 2, Buffelo, Preslay I Howerchuk, Mofier), 15:06 (po), 3, Buffelo, Khmyley J (Akopiny, Bodser), 15:42, Penol-tes—Corpenter, N.I. (elbowing), 3:44; Hower-chuk, Buf (Interference), 4:48; Smehille, Buf (Indelding), 7:58; Muni, Buf (Cross-Checking), 104; Chence, N.I. ((Interference), 11:16). Aboc. 8:08; Daneyka, NJ (Interference), 11:10; Abe lin, NJ (cross-checking), 13:12, Pelusa, NJ double minor (roughing, unasortsmonlike conduct), 15:28; Roy, Buf (roughing), 16:28; Barnoby, But (unsportsmanlike co: 15:28; Millen, NJ (charging), 18:04.

19:25; Miller, NJ. (Charging), 10:04.
Second Period—4, Hew Jersey, Lemieux ) (MccLeon, Corpenter), 1:07, S. Butfolo, Khrny-lev 2 (MoV), 3:16, 6. New Jersey, MccLeot 1 (Stevens, Richer), 18:26 (op), Pendites—Cor-penter, NJ (roughing), 1:07) Hasek, Bull, terved by Knymley (roughing),1:07; Driver, NJ Inter-terence), 3:04; MacLeon, NJ, misconduct,4:37; Presery Set, misconduct, 4:37; Knntyrev, Bol (beardins), 6:40; Guerin, NJ (roushins), 7:06; Smehlik, But (roushing), 7:06; Pelusa, NJ, ma-jor (fightins), 6:55; Ruy, But, major (fightins), 2:55: Motier, Buf (holding), 16:44: Smehilk, Buf (Cross-Checking), 17:50. Third Period—7, Buffalo, Presiev 3. (Smeh-lik), ;30. 0, Buffalo, Ray 1 (Boucher), 11:25.

Penatries—Roy, Buf, malor-misconduct (flatitins), 11:35; Barmaby, Buf, malor-misconduct (flatitins), 11:35; Barmaby, Buf, malor-misconduct (flatitins), 11:35; Doneyko, HJ, minor-molor-misconduct (roushins), flatino), 11:35; Stevens, NJ, misconduct, 19:29, Shorts as goal—New Jersey 2-11-10—22, Buf-talo (12-12-4—30) power-play apportunities—New Jersey, Brodom, 2-2 (30 shots-25 soves), Buffalo, Hasek, 2-2 (23-20), Pitabargh 10 6—1 Washinstea 1 2—4 First Period—1, Washinstea, Khristich 2 Peake, Reskiel, 4:51, 2, Pitaburgh, Strake 1 Liggr), 4:10, Penalty—Stevens, Pit Iroughling), 7:23.

| Juggry, 14:18, Penning—James, 19:25, Second Period—J. Washington, Bondra 2 | Juneau, Hartner), 13:47, Pernilles—Francis, Pff (slashing), 2:29 | Juneau, Was Islashingi, 2:20; Hatcher, Was Irigh-sifeking), 7:27 | K.Somelsson, Pit Icras-checking), 20:00.

Third Period—4, Woshington, Juneou 2 (Pivonto, Khristich). 1:42 (no). 5, Washington, Poulin 1 (Pivonto, Reselve). 19:06 (nr). Pencilles—Pivonto, Was (halding), 14:11.

Shets on good—Pittshursh 8-7-—22. Washington, 19:06 (nr). Pencilles on good—Pittshursh 8-7-—22. Washington, 19:06 (nr).

insten 14-7:0—31; sover-play opportunities—Pitisburgh 0 of 2; Washington 1 of 3; soulies—Pitisburgh, Barrasso 1-7 139 shois-27 s-27:17 First Period—I, Montreol, Muller 3 (Brice pols, LeClair), 4:40 (pp), 2 Montreal, Muliar 4 bols, LeCloir), 4:40 (sp.), 2. Mentreal, Multar 4 Destardins, Popovici, 10;54 (sp.), 3. Mentreal, Diffetra 2 (Sellows, Determent), 11;34 (sp.), 4.

Boston, Oetas 2 (Czerkewski), 13;41. Penalties—Show, Sox (holdins), 4:00; Determent), Men Intel-sitching), 8:08; Denoire, Bas (unsperismentities conduct), 10:01; Morvis, Bas minormisconduct (interference), 10:01; Odelein, Max (unsperismentitie conduct), 10:01; Butmet, Morr, minor-misconduct (recepting), 10:01; Murrary, Bos. (stanting), 10:72; Mughes, Bos net, Mon, minor-exiscenduct (roughins), 10:07; Murray, Bos. (storing), 10:22; Hushes, Bos. (holdins), 10:23; Muljer, Mon (tripolne) 10:16. Second Period—3, Boston, Donola 3 (Heinze, Smolinski), 2:34. & Montreol, Carbonneou 1 (Brunet, Dionne), 19:14. Penalties—Holler, Mon (Interference), 12:37; Oales, Bos (Interference), 15:21. Third Period—7, Montreal, Ronan 1 (Cor-(mar review) Antonio Potaline Struct. Mon (hakting), 10;34; Dolgneouli, Mon (stashing), 10;34; Dolgneouli, Mon (stashing), 17:24. Sheft at eacl—Boston 15-11-15—1, Montread 6-1-15; paver-sley appertuatifes—Boston 8 of 7; Mantread 3 of 4; seetles—Boston-Riendeou 1-1 116 shots-[0 soves], Montread Rev 2.1 (d.1.39). Riendeau 1-1 114 Ray 2-) (41-39).

Ray 2-) (41-39),
Torrante

Torrante

Pirst Peried—1, Chicago, Amonte 1 (Rosnick, Carney), :49, 3, Chicago, Amonte 2 (Chellos, Sufer), 2:07 (pp.), 3, Chicago, Amonte 2 (Chellos, Sufer), 2:07 (pp.), 3, Chicago, Amonte 2 (Chellos, Sufer), 7:22, 4, Taronte, Ellett 1 (Clork, Glimour), 10:15 (pp.), 5, Taronte, Bers 1 (Ezzet, Caborne), 17:12, Pengittes—Roues, Tor Ilinter-Ieracos), 1:44; Bers, Tor (high-eticking), 1:32, Fauthi, Chi (cross-checking), 3:47; Shoriz, Chi (sloshing), 9:17; Weltyrich, Chi (high-eticking), 17:16; Sufer, Chi Itripphrel, 19:28, Second Paried—4, Taronte, Mironov 1 (Gartner, Elletti, 1:00 (sp.), 7, Chicago, Amonte 3 (Rosnick), 14:56, Pengities—None, Taird Paried—4, Chicago, Amonte 4 (Rosnick), 14:56, Pengities—None, Taird Paried—6, Pengities—None, Taird Paried—6, Chicago, Amonte 4 (Rosnick), 14:56, Pengities—None, Taird Paried—6, Chicago, Amonte 4 (Rosnick), 14:56, Pengities—None, Taird Paried—6, Pengities—Non

| Igartner, Elletti, 1:00 (sp), 7, Chicago, Amonte 3 (Rosnick), 14:56. Penalties—None. Taird Period—6. Chicago, Amonte 4 (Rosnick, Welzurich), 1:37; 9, Toronto, Ellett, 2 (Archychtak, Gilmour), 4:25 (sp), Penalties—Mironov, Tor (elbowing), 7:45; Chelios, Chi Inoidino stick), 4:0; Androvcinik, Tor Inoiding stick), 7:01; Yestpert, Chi (interference), 7:105f Accous, Tor (cross-checking), 14:25, Shots on sodi—Toronto 13-515—32. Chicago 13-614—33. Pesser-siary open-fuelities—Foronto 3 of 6; Chicago 10-64; sooiles—Toronto, Polyin, 2-1 (32-27), Datreif 2 1 5—3 Pirst Period—), Detroit, Ciccoveti 3, (Fedorov, Kozlov), 7:17, 2, Detroit, Johnson 2 (Primocu, Sheppourd), 10:21, Penolites—Copert, 3, (Fedorov, Kozlov), 7:17, 2, Detroit, Johnson 2 (Primocu, Sheppourd), 10:21, Penolites—Copert, 3, 12:77, Elik, 5 (Inhidren), 12:17, Elik, 5 (Inhidren), 12:17, Elik, 5 (Inhidren), 13:48 (Inhidren), 10:00, 10:0 ignov, Otofirsh), 4:35. Pendity—Propert, Lat (roughing), 12:13. Statis as goal—Detroit 11-9-4—24, 3cn Jose 4-11-3—22: power-play opportunities—Outroit 6 of 21 Scn Jacol foll pointies—Outroit-Outroid. 1 (22 shots-16 soves), Son Jose, Irbs, 3-2 (24-21).

Son Jese

SOCCER

INTERNATIONAL FRENDLY DUTCH FIRST DIVISION DUTEN FIRST BIVISIONS
SC Hewrenveen 1, William II Tifforns 2
VVV Venio 2, Rodo JC Kerkrade 2
NAC Breda 2, Vitesse Arnhem 2
RKC Woodwijk 6, Combour Leeuworden
FC Twente Enschede 1, FC Utrecht 0
FC Volendom 2, Soorte Roberdom 1
Co Abant Eroles 6, Alox Amsterdom 1 Go Ahead Eoples & Alax Amsterdam 3

Go Ahead Eogles 6, Alox Amsterdam 5
FC Graninger 3, Macarinch 2
Steedinger Alox Amsterdam, 30 points;
Feyencord Rotterdam, 451 PSV Eindhoven,
40; Rodo JC Kerkrode, 361 Vitesse Arnhen, 45; NAC Breda and FC Twente Einschede, 35;
Willem II Tilburs, 33; MVV Mosstricht, 31;
Sparta Rotterdam and FC Volendam, 20; Ga Ahead Einsles Deventer, 27; SC Hearenveen, 29; FC Utrecht and VVV Vento, 24; FC Gruingen, 32; RKC Washvilk, 20; Cambuur Leeworden, 17.
ENGLISH PREMIER LEAGUR PHOLISH PREMIER LEAGUE

Asion Villo 1, Arserol 2 Cheiseo 1, Lends 1 Everton 0, Covernity 0 Newcoste 2, Olchem 2 Newcoste 3, Olchem 2 Norwich 0, Sheffleld United 3 Sheffleld Wednesday 5, Ipswick Swindon 2, Wimbledon 4 Tattenham 2, Southamston 6 West Ham 1, Liverpool 2 Blockburn ), Queen's Park Rangers 1

Blockburn ), Queen's Park Rangers 1 Standings! Manchester United, 82 points; Blockburn, 891 Newcoaffe, 7); Arsenot, 701 Leeds. 63; Sheffleid Wednesday, 611 Liver-pool, 60; Wimbledon, 59; Queen's Park Rang-ers. 55; Aston Ville. 54; Norwich and Coven-iry. 49; West Horn, 47; Chelsea, 44; Manchester City, 42; Tottenham and I pswich. 42; Everton, 41; Southamboth, 37; Sheffield PERNCH CUP

GERMAN FIRST DIVISION Werder Bremen 3, FC Cologne 1 Wattenscheid G. FC Kalserslauter Hamburg 5V 1. Borussig Moenchenglad VIB Stuttgart & SC Freiburg 4

VIB Leinzig 1, Schotke 2 MSV Duisburg ), Korlsrune SC 2 Boyers Munich 2, FC Nurembers 1 Borusdia Derfmund 2. Eintracht Frankfurt 9 Borusto Dermand & Emirator President 1
Bayer Leverkusen 1, Dynamo Oresden 1
Steetless: Boyern Munich, 41 points; FC.
Kaisersleutern, 39; Korleruhe SC and Borussia Dortmund, 37; Boyer Leverkusen, 36 Einkrocht Frankfurt, 35; Werder Bremen, VIB.
Butthurer, Ef Colonne, and MSV Dufeburn, 24; Nacm Frankuri, 35; werder Bremen, VIB Stuffgart, FC Calegne, and MSV Dulsbure 34; Borusska Meenchengladbuch and Hamburg SV.33; Dynamo Dresden, 32; Schalke, 37; FC

N S

Entrance of the Control of the Contr

.. .. .. 192 -

8 Y 22

T.L re-in-in-

Eir.

111.-

100 er Production

AF V

Lipe ::

7-1gat ! ·

MEST POR IN

miles in

at Parent

" سند 5 سيا اين

Read Name

Roma N - off te ...

three and a trail of the N ...

Mar.

netu ----

Term 5

three

تنب †complet

Gile 🔩 😘

Mike Hart:

REMARKS .

नामित्र ५ (४) Zele scored or

Braze / Trans

key to account

the way fourth or 12

lat : c

Ingra.

IOS LC

भोदा वेत

surgice of the In the second

Milde to the

TORKE THE ST

KINE DE ____. WORK TO IT.

pi billion in ....

Genes 10 VI

Benjamin ....

And the same Francisc

SIDELIN

Scherbo A

MOBANE AND Miles Property Mis to Although

S Milyhard

Loceres W

FALL 5-247-143.

TANKE (Prop. hare showing and de strong

Rate Bright after

peach Hor

Maria inc : all ... in the interest of the int

The state of the s

Miles Asili 21.

Water to a For the Rec

Museum ...

an the America

liane Ro

100 T

Ši Loui∵.

Caracae

SV. SI: LYNGING DIRECTOR ACT SCHOOL 24; WE Nuremberg. 26; SC Freiburg. 24; WE school. 21; WB Letazis. 17.

ITALIAN FIRST DIVISION Cagliori & AC Milan 0 Internazionale 2. AS Roma 2 Genaa 2. Aratanto 1

Lazio 2, Lecce 0 Napoli 2, Porma 0 Piacanza 0, Juventus 0 Torino 1, Fossio 4 Udinese 3, Cremonese 3 Standings; AC Millon, 50 points: Juvani 46; Somedorio, 44; Lozio, 42; Porma, 40; Ne-pell and Torino, 24; Roma and Foosia, 32; Infernationals, Cremonate and Genot. 31; Coastert, 30; Reguland and Piacanas, 29; Udinese, 28; Algianta, 19; Lecce, 11.

SPANISH FIRST DIVISION Athletic de Bilboo I, Sevilia 1 Sporting de Gijon I, Albucete 0 Valencia 3, Zarogoza ( Rayo Vollecono D, Valiadolid 1 Racing de Santander 2 Atletica de Modrid B

Riscing de Santonder 2. Atletico de Madrid 8
Lielda 0, Deportivo de La Coruna 8
Catra 0. Borcalana 4
Reol Madrid 0. Reol Sociedad 2
Tenerite 2. Reol Ovieda 2
Steatings: Deportivo de La Coruna 62 points: Barcalana, 33; Reol Modrid, 43; Zarase, 18.44) Athetic de Bilboo and Sevilia, 39; Valencia, 36; Racina de Santonder, Sportina de Gilles, and Reol Ovieda, 33; Albacete and Tenerite, 34;
Reol Sociedad, 32; Lesto, 26; Celta, 36; Albacete
Valladalid, 27; Lieto, 26; Casauna, 23; Reol
Valladalid, 27; Lieto, 26; Casauna, 23. GYMNASTICS

WORLD CHAMPIONSHIF MEDAL WINNING In Brisbone, Australia MEN

1, Ivan Ivankov, Belarus, 57,92 soints. 2, Alexel Varapeev, Russio, 56,524 2, Vitoly Scherbo, Belarus, 56,350 Piper Exarcise 3. Net Thomas, British, 9.467 1, Mortus Urzico, Romania 9,712 2. Eric Poulade, France, 9,700 3, (file) LI Donghua, Switzerland, a Marinich, Ukraine, 9,662

Rings
1, Yuri Chechi, Italy, 9,787
2, Pauj O'Nelli, United States, 9,725
3. (Ite) Dan Burinco, Romania, and Valeri Belenki, Germany, 9,700 ), Vitaly Scherbo, Belorus, 9,474

1. Li Xiooshuone, Chico, 9.618 1. Yea Hone-chul, South Korea, 9.600 Pergitel Bors
1. Huong Liping, China, 9,775
3. Rustam Charipov, Ukraine, 9,4
3. Alexet Hernov, Russia, 9,575 ne. 7.412

1, Ging Gopton, Romanic, 7.812 1, Svetigna Chorkino, Russia, 9200 3, Lavinia Milosovici, Ramunia, 9,227 Unaven Bars 1, Lue Li, Chino, 9,912 2, Svetigna Charkino, Russia, 9,275 3, Ding Kochetkova, Russia, 9,200

bidistria Beline
I. Shonnon Miller, United Stohe, 9,875
2, Ulfe Podkosovecu Ukralne 9,737
3, Oxona Fobrichnova, Russid, 9,712
Floer Exercise
1, Ding Kochelkova, Russid, 9,850
2, Litvinia Alilesovici, Roynonia, 9,857 1. Gino Goggo, Remonio, 9.762

TENNIS

MONTE CARLO DPRN Anny 2 Engles, Semifinals
Andrel Alectreday (6), Ukroins, def. Yevbeny Kateinikov, Russia, 7-6 (8-6), 6-3; Sersi Brussieru (5), Spoin, def. Stefon Edbers (2), Sweden, 6-2, 7-6 (7-3). -Z 7-6 (7-3).
Pingi
v det Brusuero, 7-5
SPANISH OPEN la Barcelona man's Singles.

Women's Singles, Sen Arantxa Sanchez Vicaria (11, Spain, def. Sabine Mack (4), Germany, 40, 6) | Iva Ma-(ell, Cruatia, def. Masdalena Maleeva (3), Bulsaria, 5-7, 6-4, 6-2. Fixed Sonchez def, Majoli, 6-0, 4-2.

TRANSACTIONS

COLLEGE

DENNIS THE MENACE

NATIONAL LEAGUE

PROBABLY TAKE IT OUT ON YOU!

JUNDILE, By Hard Armed and time An SWEYN DRUGO TYBLUS DILFED

Answer here: A " OCOO" OCO Answer: How the persent-by found the demonstration -- ARRESTING

TO OUR READERS IN BERLIN

You can now receive the IHT hand delivered to your home or office every morning on the day of publication. Just call us toll free at 0130 84 85 85

BLONDIE

BEETLE BAILEY

GET OUTTA HERE!!

Ortiz, W—Meso, 24. L—Henke, 1-2. SV—For (41. HRs—Cleveland, Murray (4), Thome 13;

WIZARD of ID

Beating Pirates, Braves End Skid

longest losing streak in a year at four games on Sunday, pitching a three-hitter and striking out a career-high 11 as the Braves beat the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-0, in Atlanta. Maddux (4-1) allowed only three singles in lowering his earned-run average to 0.88 and retired 16 of his last 17 batters.

The right-hander, who has won the National League Cy Young Award two straight years, walked none in his second complete game

NL ROUNDUP

alvade

1.00

this season and first shutout since Aug. 15. It was his 51st complete game and 15th shutout. Atlanta badn't had a losing streak this long since they dropped five straight last April 25-29 The Braves failed to take advantage against Steve Cooke, hitting into a pair of double plays in the first three innings and having a runner thrown out at the plate in the fourth Atlanta got a run in the second when Cooke walked Fred McGriff and Dave Gallagher and allowed a single to David Justice, loading the bases. McGriff scored when Javier Lopez hit into a double play. The Braves chased Cooke in the seventh. Lemke led off with his first homer of the year, Maddux doubled and Deion Sanders had a bunt single, Reliever Dan Miceli then struck out Jeff Blauser and got Terry Pendieton to hit into a dcoble play. Reds 5, Marlins 2: In Cincinnati, Reggie Sanders bounced two hits off the centerfield fence, then drove a three-run bomer into the second deck as the Reds beat Florida. Sanders tripled in the first, doubled in the fourth and homered in the fifth, all off Chris Hammond. Tom Browning (2-0) pitched a three-hitter for his second straight complete game. Cardinals 5, Astros 4: Bernard Gilkey scored on a wild pitch by Mike Hamptoo to cap a three-run eighth, and St. Louis rallied past visiting Houston.

St. Louis trailed 4-2 in the eighth when Ray Lankford led off with a double off Shane Reynolds. Gregg Jefferies singled, pulling St. Louis within a run, took third on Todd Zeile's single off Tom Edens and scored on Gilkey's fielder's choice

Brian Jordan's double sent Gilkey to third, and Gilkey scored on fourth pitcher of the inning. Rich Rodriguez pitched two innings for the victory. In games played Saturday: Pirates 6. Braves 1: The Braves lost their fourth straight game when Pittsburgh's Kevin Young singled bome the tie-breaking run in the ninth in Atlanta. The Braves began the season with a 13-1 record. Young batting .095 (2-for-21) en-tering the game, had two hits. His single in the ninth followed singles by pinch-hitter Dave Clark and Don Slaught off Greg McMichael. Giants 10, Mets 1: Matt Williams, Royce Clayton and Mike Benjamin each hit two-run homers as the Giants broke out of a hitting slump and beat New York in San Greg Maddux ended Atlanta's ongest losing streak in a year at our games on Sunday, pitching a hree-hitter and striking out a call.

Bryan Hickerson limited the Mets to five hits in seven innings. Rockies 8, Cubs 2: Greg Harris broke his six-game losing streak, scattering eight hits as Colorado defeated visiting Chicago.

Harris, bidding for the first complete-game shutout in team history, blanked the Cubs until Mark Grace led off the ninth with a single and Derrick May followed with a home run. Harris struck out cight and walked three in Colorado's first complete game of the season.

Walt Weiss had three hits, including a solo homer, for the Rockies. Eric Young hit an inside-thepark homer in the eighth inning and Dante Bichette followed with his seventh home run of the season.

Marlins 3. Reds 2: Pinch-runner Chuck Carr beat shortstop Barry Larkin's throw home on a grounder in the ninth, and Florida won in Cincinnati.

Orestes Destrade led off the ninth with a single against Hector Carrasco and was replaced by Carr, who led the league with 58 stolen bases last season. Carr moved to second on Eddie Taubensee's passed ball and took third on a sacrifice by Benito Santiago. Rick Renteria followed with a grounder to Larkin, but Carr scored ahead of the throw.

Jeremy Hernandez pitched two innings for the victory. Bryan Harvey pitched the ninth for his sixth save, ending Ciocinnati's fourgame winning streak.

Astros 15, Cardinais 5: In St. Louis, Kevin Bass went 5-for-6 with a homer, and Steve Finley had four hits and drove in three runs to power Houston, which had a season-high 18 hits. Bass, who drove in three runs, natched a career-high with five hits by homering in the ninth, Finley went 4-for-5 and scored twice. Rookie James Mouton hit a grand slam, his first career homer, to highlight a six-run eighth inning.

Darryl Kile allowed three runs and three hits in six innings.

Expos 8, Dodgers 6: In Los Angeles, Lenny Webster hit a two-run bouner in the 11th inning off Roger McDowell to lift Montreal to their fifth straight victory.

The game was marred by a collision in short right field between rookie outfielder Raul Mondesi and second baseman Delino De-Shields in the seventh. DeShields lay motionless on the field for several minutes before being carried off on a stretcher wearing a neck brace. He sustained a concussioo and was kept in a hospital overnight for observation.

in the 11th, Larry Walker, who had three RBIs, singled with one out off McDowell. Pinch hitter Ken Hill, a Montreal pitcher, then sacrificed Walker to second, and Webster, who played for Minnesota last season, drove a 3-1 pitch over the wall in left-center for his first two National League RBIs.

Padres 8, Phillies 2: Tony Gwynn went 5-for-5 with a home run and tied a club record by scoring four runs, lifting San Diego over visiting Philadelphia.

Seattle's Roger Salkeld practiced keeping the ball on his fingers, if not in the park, after Rafael Palmeiro homered for Baltimore,

Bengals Make Wilkinson Top Pick In NFL Draft, Colts Take Faulk 2d

NEW YORK -- It took the Cincinnati Bengals 30 seconds to take Dan Wilkinson, the Ohio State defensive tackle known as "Big Daddy," on Sunday as underclassmen again dominated the National Fcotball League draft.

Now let's see how long it takes the traditionally tight-fisted Ben-gals to sign in the No. I pick in the NFL draft.

The 6-foot-3 (1.9-meter), 313pound (141-kilogram) Wilkinson. who played only two years of col-lege fourball, is hailed as the next Reggie White or Cortez Kennedy - a dominant inside bull who can stop the run and rush the passer.

Two more underclassmen followed - Marshall Faulk of San Diego State taken by Indianapolis and quarterback Heath Shuler of Tennessee, who went to Washington as the beir apparent to the released Mark Rypien.

New England then took the first senior, defensive end Willie McGinest; the Colts dealt with the Rams and used their second firstround pick on Nebraska linebacker Trev Alberts and then Tampa Bay chose Fresno State quarterback Trent Dilfer, another junior. After San Francisco chose Notre Dame defensive tackle Bryant Young, Seattle went for another defensive lineman, Sam Adams of Texas A&M, making five of the top eight choices underclassmen.

The Rams, who originally were scheduled to pick lifth, were active traders in this draft.

First they traded down from to take Alberts. Then they dealt down from seventh, giving San Francisco the pick and the rights to choose Young, a defensive tackle another Lawrence Taylor. from Notre Dame the 49ers will use to shore up their oversized but underachieving defensive front. San Francisco, meanwhile, got that pick without giving up both their No. 1s — just the first of the two, No. 15 overall. The Niners also gave up a second and third. Wilkinson was chosen by the Bengals despite a request by his agent, Leigh Steinberg, to trade him to a team willing to pay the more than 52 million a year he wants. Steinberg, who has represented live of the last six players taken No. 1, normally has his pick signed before the draft. But Wilkinson, who grew up in Dayton, about an hour's drive north of Cincinnati, said "I'm confident we can reach agreement." And the Bengals apparently never hesitated.

General Manager Mike Brown said 21 other teams contacted him about trading up for Wilkinson but added, "I never came close to trading the pick."

Brown made light of the salary squabble, pretending to place a dollar bill in the hand of a life-size, black-and-white cutout of Wilkinson brought into the media room after they picked him.

"Signing is always a bit of a chore," Brown said. "I have faith we will get it done. We about always get it done."

The Rams, who normally don't deal during the draft, and the 49ers, who almost always do, did what the Patriots were expected to do -- use the fourth pick to deal in a team that wanted Dilfer.

But nobody called coach-general manager Bill Parcells with the right fifth to seventh, allowing the Colts deal and he settled for McGinest, whom he might have gotten lower. McGinest is a 255-pound pass rusher he hopes he can turn into New England took most of its Philadelphia Eagles for third- and sixth-round picks. The Eagles gave up the second of three picks they owned in the third round, the 100th overall, and the second of three picks they owned in the sixth round, the 190th overall.

In Romanowski, they got a six-year veteran who was San Francisco's top tackler the past two seasons. He is expected to replace linebacker Seth Joyner, who signed as a free agent last week with the Arizo-

Earlier, Frank Litsky of The New York Times reported:

Year after year, NFL teams spend hundreds of thousands of dollars scouting college players, looking for the next Lawrence Taylor or Emmitt Smith or Dan Mari-

And year after year, when the draft arrives, some teams will somehow pass on a Taylor or Smith or Marino and take a young hero who will struggle just to last a few years in the pros.

with us again. The draft began Sun-day with two rounds and will conclude Monday with five rounds.

Each team's brain trust - general manager, head coach, director of college scouting and maybe owner - would make its picks from a war telephone the names to draft headquarters in New York City, where draft experts in the media and the public gallery would instantly turn thumbs up or thumbs down.

This year, the draft is especially row: 17, 18 and 19.

allotted 15 minutes before selecting difficult for the teams. Each team's McGinest. He was impressive in salary cap of $34,608,000 limits its ability to sign veteran free agents to shot up as the draft approached.

Earlier, San Francisco traded linebacker Bill Romanowski in the linebacker the draft oot sure they can solve all their personnel problems there. And even if they do well for themselves, the crop of eligible draftees looks ordinary this year. "There is more uncertainty, more urgency than ever before," said Joel Buchsbaum, who studies the draft year round for Pro Fcotball Weekly. "You can't take a guy and oot have him contribute right away. The days when you drafted for the future are over. The future is now, because free agency can rob you of the future. So teams have to live like terminally ill patients."

Some of those teams already seem terminally ill because of bad seasons last year. But because teams draft in inverse order of the previous year's finish, some 1993 losers may start getting better if they take one of the four players who rank well above the others in this draft.

Those four are defensive tackle Wilkinson, running back Faulk and quarterbacks Shuler and This annual refurbishing exer-cise, a highly inexact science, is draft, which player would go to which team was uncertain.

There might be other trades. One report Saturday said a three-way deal had been completed in which the Minnesota Vikings would send defensive end Chris Doleman to the Pittsburgh Steelers for the room in its offices at home. It would Steelers' first-round choice, the 17th overall. The Steelers would then send Doleman to the Atlanta Falcons for wide receiver Mike Pritchard. The Steelers would wind up with three first-round picks in a

Abbott 3-Hits the A's as Yankees Win 5th Straight

Jim Abbott held Oakland hitless for 61/2 innings, and Don Mattingly hit his second homer in two days as York for their fifth straight victory. play.

Abbest (2.2) who nitched a no
Mariners 7, Orioles 6: Ken Grifshot down the line and made the Cleveland, stopped the A's until the eighth inning, capping a four-Geronimo Berroa blooped an op-run rally that lifted Scattle past posite-field single to right. Abbott allowed one run on three hits in eight innings. He struck out six and walked five, and sent Oakland to its sixth consecutive loss. Jeff Reardon pitched the ninth and gave up a pinch-hit bome run to Mike Aldrete. Mattingly, homerless in the Yankees' first 15 games, connected for a three-run shot off Bob Welch

Briscoe's first pitch to Boggs was a during a four-run third inning. Luis Polonia's sacrifice fly produced the first run, and Welch walked Wade Boggs before Mattingly bomered. New York added two runs in the seventh when Pat Kelly singled and scored on Polonia's wind-blown triple. Polonia scored when John

After Berroa singled with one out in the seventh, Abbott walked fourth and hit his fifth of the season Ruben Sierra followed with an RBI fence in the sixth. He also starred in the New York Yankees beat the single, but Terry Steinbuch ground- the field. With a runner on first and Abbott (2-2), who pitched a no-hitter last Sept. 4 at home against fey Jr. hit a long three-run homer in throw in time to first. Baltimore.

Trailing, 6-3, Scattle loaded the bases in the eighth against Jamie Moyer. Brad Pennington came in and threw a wild pitch, allowing a run to score. Griffey hit Pennington's next into a pitch well over the 25-foot wall in loaded.

AL ROUNDUP

right, his fifth homer of the season.
Red Sox 5, Angels 4: Scott Cooper hit a pair of solo homers and made an acrobatic defensive play at third base as the Red Sox won their sixth straight over visiting

California. It was the ninth straight loss at led off the game with the first home Fenway Park for the Angels, who run of his career, sending visiting are 1-7 in one-run games this season. Minnesota over Toronto and stop-

Mark McGwire on four pitches, into the screen atop the left-field Athletics, 6-2, oo Sanday in New ed into an inning-ending double none out in the fifth, Cooper dived York for their fifth straight victory. play.

> Aaron Sele (2-0) allowed four runs on five hits and five walks t

> Brewers 7, Royals 0: Ricky Bones pitched the first shutout of his career, scattering six hits and leading Milwaukce over visiting Kansas

Bones (3-1), making his 74th start in the majors, ended the game by getting Dave Henderson to ground into a double play with the bases Bones struck out three and walked one in his second complete game of the season and fifth of his career. He did not allow a runner past second base until the ninth. Twins 7, Bine Jays 3: Alex Cole run with a groundout in the third. In games played Saturday:

1.317 at-bars, hit Juan Guzman's 2-1 pitch 390 feet over the fence in right- the Yankees won their fourth in a singled home the go-ahead run in streak. He gave up three runs in seven-plus innings.

Bline Jays 8, Twins 6: Carter ho-mered and broke his own team record for RBIs in April, leading Torouto past visiting Minnesota for its sixth straight victory.

Mike Timlin pitched out of bases-loaded, no out jam in the eighth to preserve a 7-6 lead. Carter had a sacrifice fly in the first inning and a two-run bomer in a four-run sixth. Carter, who drove in 25 runs last April, leads the ma jors with 27 RBIs and is tied with cight homers. Yankees 8, Athletics 6: Paul O'Neill hit his second career grand

Smith pitched a perfect ninth to

Jose Mesa gave up two runs in slam and drove in five runs as the get his second save in two days. He three innings but got the victory.

Don Mattingly also homered as coding their three-game losing Oakland's fifth consecutive loss. after getting only two outs in the Darryl Hamilton singled with two outs against Mike Magnante. Soiers record for April to 28, driving in a ner and Xavier Hernandez pitched the pinth for his third save. Red Sox 5, Angels 3: In Boston, Tim Nachring hit a pair of run-scoring singles and Mike Greenwell had a two-run homer as the Red Sox stopped California for their fifth straight victory. Orioles 4, Mariners 3: Leo Gomez singled home the go-ahead run in the eighth and Lee Smith got his minth save faster than any player in major-league history as Baltimore topped visiting Scattle.

Chris Hoiles opened the Baltimore eighth with a single off Bobby teammate Carlos Delgado with Thigpen and took second on a sacrifice. After a walk to Mark McLemore, Gomez lined a single.

Cooper homered to right in the ping the Blue Jays' six-game win-ourth and hit his fifth of the season ming streak. Yankees chased Oakland's Todd Van Poppel in the first inning in the record of 20 games set by Dennis not the screen atop the left-field Cole, who had never connected in New York. He first inning in Eckersley in 1988. Brewers 3, Royals 2: Bill Spiers > center. Kevin Tapani (1-1) kept the row. Ruben Sierra, Geronimo BerTwins ahead the rest of the way, roa and Scott Brosius homered in past Kansas City in Milwaukee. Matt Mieske singled with one out Van Poppel walked six and left in the eighth off Stan Belinda and followed with a single to right field. White Sox 9, Tigers 3: Lance Johnson's bases-loaded triple high-lighted a six-run first inning as Chicago defeated visiting Detroit. The White Sox, who have won six of their last seven, scored all their runs in the first with two outs. Robin Ventura went 4-for-5 for Chicago, which had a season-high 16 hits. Indians 10, Rangers 9: In Arlington, Texas, Eddie Murray led off the ninth with a homer off Tom Henke as Cleveland rallied to win. The Indians trailed 9-6 but scored three runs in the eighth to tie it. Jim Thome hit a two-run homer, his third, and another run scored when Henke threw a wild pitch.

SIDELINES

trants Fir

ini Polic

233

Scherbo Adds 2 Golds, Hope

BRISBANE, Australia (AP) - Vitali Scherbo of Belarus won two gold medals Sunday, in the vault and the horizontal bar, to finish the World Gymnastics Championships with three golds and a bronze if not the overall title. "Maybe this will help me for sponsorship and marketing," said Scherbo, who currently receives a grant of $70 a month from the Belarus government.

Shannon Miller of the United States, who won the women's overall crown, got her second gold, on the beam.

(See Scoreboard for other medalists) Coceres Wins Catalonia Open

PALS, Spain (AP) — José Coceres of Argentina shot a 3-under-par 69 Sunday for a total of 275 to win the Catalonian Open by three shots over Jean-Louis Guepy of France, who scored 71 in the final round. Mike Springer, after a 2-under-par 70 for a three-day total of 203, took a four-shot lead into Sunday's final round of the Greater Greensboro Open in North Carolina. Brad Bryant, after a 68, and John Morse, with 67, were #### in second place.

French Horse Wins in Tokyo TOKYO (AP) - Favored Ski Paradise of France rallied along the rail down the stretch to win the Keio-hai Spring Cup race Saturday ontside Tokyo. The 4-year-old filly was ridden by the Japanese jockey Yutaka Take.
Zieten, from the United Arab Emirates, was second, 1/2 lengths back, with Sayyedai of England a nose farther back. Concern, last until the field turned for home, over#### took pacesetting Silver Goblin, then held off Blumin Affair by a nose, to win the Arkansas Derby.

For the Record Johan Museuuw of Belgium oursprinted Bruno Cenghialta to win the Amstel Gold World Cup bike race, bearing the Italian by a wheel width.

Mac Suzuki, 18, the Japanese player seeking to make the major leagues, has a mild impingement in his right shoulder and won't pitch again in the minors for three to five weeks, the parent team said in Seattle. (AP)

The University of West Virginia said it had formally accepted an invitation to join the Big East Conference as England won the women's rugby union World Cup by beating the defending champion United States, 38-23, in Edinburgh. France beat Wales, 27-0, for third place. (AP)

• Jim Courier, asked by a reporter in Nice wby he was so popular in France: "Parce que je parle comme une so popular in France: "Parce que je parle comme une vache espagnole." (Translation: "Because I speak vache espagnole." (Translation: "Because I speak inside the blue line, went in and beat Hextall between his pads from the lower left circle at 10:22.

Rangers Sweep Past Islanders, And Stars Eliminate the Blues

Mark Messier scored two goals, including the tie-breaker in the second period, as the New York Rangers beat the New York Islanders, 5-2, Sunday to sweep their National Hockey League playoff series in Uniondale, New York. The Rangers fell behind 2-0 as the Islanders came out strong trying to avoid their first four-game sweep in playoff history.

But the Rangers then scored five straight goals to move into the second round of the Eastern Conference playoffs starting next Sunday. It was the Rangers' first four-game sweep in the playoffs since 1972.

against Chicago, but it didn't look likely early in the game, which the Islanders dominated. They took a 2-0 lead on their first two shots, by Steve Thomas and Dan Plante. The Ranger goaltender Mike Richter previously had given up just one goal on 72 Islander shots. But the Rangers came back with goals by Alexei Kovalev, Sergei Zu-bov, Messier, Stever Larmer and ier again. Thomas scored on a slap shot from the right circle at 1:28 with the 1slanders on a power play. Richter ap-peared screened on the shot. Plante made it 2-0 with his first NHL goal. He took a cross-ice pass from Pierre Turgeon and tipped the puck into the oet off Richter's stick at 7:24.

The Rangers then took control. Kovalev scored from the dot in the right circle at 11:59 of the first period. The puck skidded over the goal line under the leg of Islander goaltender Ron Hextail, who was down. Znbov made it 2-2 with a slapshot from above the right circle at 3:42 of the second. Messier put the Rangers ahead

when be stole the puck from Islanders

Larmer made it 4-2 with a rebound with a breakaway goal at 17:08.

Stars 2, Blues 1: In St. Louis, Mike including the game-winner on a pow-er play with 3:49 to play, as the Stars completed a four-game sweep.

Modano took a pass from Russ Courtnall and scored his fifth goal of the playoffs from the right circle. The

STANLEY CUP PLAYOFFS goal came with Steve Duchesne in the penalty box for hooking and right after the Blues' penalty-killer. Rick Zombo, had broken his stick. It was the third time in four games that Dallas put away the Blues late. The Stars scored twice in the final 3:49 to win Game 1, 5-3, and got a rare overtime power-play goal from Paul Cavalini to take Game 3, 5-4,

The Stars wrapped up the series quickly despite getting off to a slow start in all four games. Blues goalie Curtis Joseph didn't allow a first-period goal in 61 shots for the series.

The Blues were cutched 12 6 in the The Blues were outshot 12-6 in the first period but got the only goal, Phil Housley's second of the playoffs, on a power play at 7:22. Housley took a cross-ice pass from Brendan Shanahan and scored on a shot from the top of the right circle that Wakaluk got his glove on but couldn't hold. Dallas tied it at 15:47 of the second period on Modano's fourth goal of the playoffs. Five seconds after a tripping penalty expired on St. Louis's Kevin Miller Modano fired a shot over Joseph's right shoulder after a flurry of activity around the Blues' net. In other games:

Friday night.

Canadiens 5, Bruins 2: Patrick Roy,

Mootreal's big-game goalie, got out of a hospital bed Saturday morning and 12 bours later stopped 39 shots as the Canadiens beat visiting Boston to

Roy was hospitalized for two days goal at 8:34 and Messier clinched it because of appendicitis and there were fears be would require surgery, which would have finished him for Modano scored both Dallas goals, this series. But the condition responded to antibiotics. He skated onto the Montreal Forum ice to a standing ovation and stopped the first 12 shots he faced. He was at his best in power-play situa-tions, stopping Boston cold on six Kirk Muller scored twice and Paul DiPietro got another on power plays for Montreal as the Canadieus scored on three of their first five shots gave Montreal a 4-2 edge after Boston had cut the margin to one on goals by Adam Oates and Ted Donato. Ed Ronan added another for Montreal in the third period. Capitals 4, Penguins 1: Washington goalie Don Beaupre stopped all but one of the 22 shots be faced, and Joe Junean and Dimitri Khristich each had a goal and an assist to help stop visiting Pittsburgh. Peter Bondra scored the go-ahead goal in the second period. Mario Lemieux took only two shots in the first 40 minutes and the Penguins managed just seven shots in the final period. Pittsburgh's lone goal came on a 55-foot slap shot by Martin Straka in the first period.

With the score 1-1, Washington took the lead for good at 13:47 of the second period on Bondra's second goal of the playoffs. While the Penguins were in the midst of a line change, Bondra took the puck into the Pittsburgh zone and sent a backpass to Juneau, who gave it back. Bondra brought the puck to the front of the net, spun around, and slid a shot past goalie Tom Barrasso.

Sabres 5, Deviks 3: In Buffalo, Wayne Presley and Yuri Khmylev each scored twice as the series finally Goafie Ed Balfour toppled the Maple Leafs' Mike Gartner and stopped a shot in Chicago's 5-4 victory.

aged only a combined eight goals in the first three games, with neither team managing more than two in any assists for the Devils and had a karov broke a 3-3 tie with a goal in the chance to tie it when it was 4-3 early in the third with goalie Dominik Ha-put it over the net. Blackhawks 5, Maple Leafs 4: In Chicago, Tony Amonte scored four libe stopped 21 of 24 shots.

goals against Toronto, tying a Black-hawks playoff record set by Denis Sathird goal 6:35 into the final period vard against the Maple Leafs in 1986. on a 2-on-2 breakaway.

2:07, doubling Chicago's output from the first two games combined, and had one each in the second and third periods.

Sharks 4, Red Wings 3: Sergei Mathird period to beat Detroit in San Jose. Down 2-0 in the first period, the sek sprawled out and a rebound Sharks got their offense going for the bouncing in the crease. But MacLean first time since Game 1, scoring three unanswered goals. Igor Larionov had a goal and an assist and goalie Arturs

On Friday, the Red Wings had taken a 2-1 lead in the series as rookie Chris Osgood stopped 22 shots to help edge San Jose, 3-2. Osgood, who stopped 22 shots in a 4-0 victory in Game 2 and blanked the Sharks the only previous time he faced them, didn't give up a goal until late in the second period by Rob Gaudreau. That ended Osgood's streak of more than 157 scoreless minutes against the Flames 4, Canneks 2: Theorem Fleury scored two goals, including the tie-breaker in the third period, as visiting Calgary beat Vancouver to take a 2-1 lead in the series on Friday.

By Christopher Petkanas DARIS - Gilles Pudlowski does not protest when people call him the new Curnonsky, who was born Maurice Ed-mond Sailland in Angers in 1872, "Cur" had a turnip nose and dewlaps more copious and revolting than those of a free-range turkey from the northern Vendée, though it is of course not these qualities Pudlowski, who is handsome enough but unmistakably well-fed, seeks to emulate.

Tastemakers

An occasional series about people for whom style is a way of life

In 1927 a public referendum in France declared Curnonsky the Prince of Gastronomes. The title died with the old man in 1956. Would Pudlowski be against a-revival drummed up in his honor? It does not seem likely.

Like so many food critics, Pudlowski, 43 and a particular champion of the cuisine of his native Lorraine, wears twin badges of absolute authority ("That's good/that's not") and grumpy dissatisfaction ("Nothing that has come from America in the realm of cooking has ever traveled anywhere else").

He has written books on eating in Alsace and weekending around Paris, but the title that has made him matter is "Le Guide Pudlowski de Paris Gourmand" (J.-C. Lattès), now in its fourth year.

In it he plays the "honesty" card, sometimes roughly, penning the kind of acid reviews that inspire lawsuits, including one from Regine during her days at Ledoyen. (Conveniently, Pudlowski's brother is a lawyer.) But this can hardly be considered a bad thing. So much French restaurant criticism is slavish, velvetgloved, mushy, empty, a yawn-making recitation of dishes and their ingredients. So much of it reeks of on-the-house cognac

Notwithstanding Pudlowski's protectionist and blinkered slamming of America, which only subtracts from his authority, making him seem small and silly, the English-reading, Paris-eating public would be well served by a translation of his book. Hopefully, it would not include the irritating advertisements that give the present edition a slightly dubious, compromised feel and that make it almost as much of a magazine as a book, even if there is a tradition of this sort of publication in France.

Of the restaurant La Cagouille, which other critics have found a nearly cosmic, state-of-the-art fish experience, Pudlowski writes that the service is "mocking," that the cooking navigates that netherland be-tween the almost and nearly, and that "good products are not enough (the freshness of the fish served here is indisputable) to justify the prices of a great restaurant." He goes on to recount, deadpan, how a waiter trickled wine onto the butter, then dropped a fork on the knees of a diner while clearing the table. The tuna that was supposed to be garnished with ratatouille came with sempiternal baby vegetables instead. In terms of presentation, a honey pariait was worthy of a canteen. In clos-ing, Pudlowski advised the owner, Gerard Allemandou, to do some housecleaning.

La Cagouille's rating: a knife and fork for simple decor (five knives and as many forks equal grand luxe), and a plate shattered in three pieces indicating a disappointing table (three whole plates designate one of the best tables in Paris). Other symbols include a kettle (good qualityprice rapport) and the Arc de Triomphe (a place of historic interest). A bit muddled, the rating system itself needs cleaning up.

If more parallels were needed to elect Pudlowski the "Cur" of the '90s, they are easily found. Both men are seen as selfstyled literary intellectuals. "Un Petit Vieux Bien Propre" ("A Very Clean Old Man") is signed by the lascivious humorist Willy but attributed to Curnonsky. Ten years ago at age 34, Pudlowski thought it not the least bit early to write his autobiography, which posed the central question: Is it possible to be more French than the French if one is a first-generation Frenchman? One of the first things he tells you about himself is that he is a first-generation French Jew born to Polish parents.

After "honesty," the other card Pud-lowski plays in his guide is indeed the literary one. Having started out as a book critic, an activity he still pursues, he says the combination of his fanged frankne and the spunky word-driven quality of his reviews is unbeatable. What he is trying to beat, it goes without saying, is Michelin, which publishes 600,000 copies of its annual guide and which Pudlowski respects for its rigor but pool-pools as "mute." His other bugbear is Gault Mil-lau, which prints 200,000 copies of its survey, and which he, who once contributed to it, dismisses as "lax — Gault Millau is always one hour behind gastronomic time." Fourteen thousand copies of Pud-lowski's guide have been brought out since

Dry, restless and distracted in conversation, he agrees that his career as a food judge all simmers down to this: Will the day ever come when three of his plates mean as much to the public, as well as chefs, as three Michelin stars?

"Yes, the real issue is right there. If the reader decides l'Ambroisie is worth three stars, which is what the tire people give it, then it's I who am wrong. But if he decides it's only worth two plates, which is what I say it is, well, it means you probably shouldn't throw ont your 'Guide Pud-

Gilles Pudlowski, food critic, has penned the kind of reviews that inspire lawsuits.

While most restaurant critics would agree that anonymity and paying one's own way are at least desirable, not Pudlowski. Those are false problems, American problems. What do you want me to do, wear a mask? The chef doesn't have talent because he recognizes you. I reserve under my own name, and whether I pay or not loesn't affect my opinion. I am the guardian of the pleasures of others, my role is to remain neutral, and I have no trouble doing this. Apicius lost a plate this year, and they're my friends. We even went to food scribe. "Thinking that you have to cook in order to write about cooking is another very American point of view. My job is to write. A guy like Craig Claiborne, he makes me laugh. When an American talks of food, in any case, there's something unnatural about it. For the French, cuisine is something natural, cultural. It's in our education, our families. Don't get me wrong. I love Americans. My view of the United States is not McDonald's and Walt Disney." Curnonsky's biographer, Simon Arbellot, wrote that tracing the gastronome's life "through the early part of the century means reliving all the gay ostentation of the 'boulevard,' and breathing again the perfumed air of what is called la belle epoque." Pudlowski has already had a

Neither will Pudlowski concede that hands-on kitchen experience is useful to a

Christopher Petkanas is writing a history of the New York decorating firm Parish-

LANGUAGE

Ways and Means: Coming Up Pronto

By William Safire

Washington — "We've come a ways in journalism. too," I wrote in this space recently. My meaning was that we've come pretty far, but not too far; had 1 meant to say we had come really far, I would have written a long way, with the way singular, as in the Virginia Slims slogan "You've come a long way, baby."

Why, then, did it seem more natural to write the unmodified way as ways? Maybe because we've come a way would be confused with we've come away, with its different meaning of "we've left our moonings." Or maybe I wanted to pull a little mail.

wrote the easily ensuared Joe Vesely, of Deerfield, Massachusetts. "I have a friend who often says anyways, and it jolts me slightly as I feel she should be saying anyway in

On the other hand, the cape di Gotcha, Louis Jay Herman, of New York, writes: "Your use of a ways will, of course, incur the wrath of a bevy of schoolmarms, who will reprehend you for not knowing the difference between singular and

A bevy of cowgiris, according to the country singer Emmylou Harris, agrees with the colloquial usage: "I know the finish line's in sight," go know the finish line's in sight," go the words to a 1993 Lamie Marsh song on her latest album. "But I still have a ways to go." (Bevy, the collective noun, is a 500-year-old word of mysterious Middle English origin; because it is often used to group birds, and is associated with the alliterative bery of beauties, the word has gained a sexist connotation that

Most usage books assume that a way is the more common usage, but linguistic geographers say it seems that a ways, dating back to 1588 in this sense, may be more prevalent, and may teach us about the roots of American English.

"The difference between way known by its acronym, Lamsas.

southeastern New York including New York City," says the man from Lamsas, pointing to a map showing additional pockets in Pittsburgh, Albany, New York, and Syracuse, New York, as well as on the Eastern Shore and in the northern Shenandoah Valley, with a mere scattering in the South. But

This pattern of difference sug-

Think about that: The distribution of dialect is not strictly regional. but on occasion is urban vs.

rural within a region. (You knew that: city folks speak funny wher-ever they come from.)

Anyways (a Southern and South Midland dialect form of anyway, similar to the jocular anyhoo as a variant of anyhow), the linguistic atlas-makers have come a ways in studying regional English, though they have a long way to go. (I wonder if the modifier makes all the difference?) Keep at it, Lamsas;

"My wife asked me to do something or other yesterday," writes E. J. Kaim Jr., of The New Yorker,

"and when I replied Right away

she was flabbergasted. That got us both to thinking about the phrase and its origin. Why should right and away have anything to do with 'immediately' or 'pronto'?"

First to Fred Cassidy, chief edi-tor of the Dictionary of American

Regional English: He notes that right means "straight" and is cognate with the Latin rectus, meaning

"stretched out like a cord" and the 41 Zoo fixture

43 Cuts

46 Pulses

way to go.

the usage of ways, as in "a little ways," is heavy all throughout the Lamsas area, up and down the Eastern Seaboard and out toward the Midwest. "For the Lamsas survey, ways is clearly the dominant form, no matter what the handbooks may prefer."

"Why not 'we've come a way"?" gests two things about way/ways:
"Way was a feature in use early in American English, as suggested by its presence in the eastern Pennsylvania, New York Dutch, and Eastern Shore rural relic areas," says the linguistic atlas-maker, "and the Southern distribution originating from the old plantation center of Charleston." Today, the form way is a feature of the large cities of the Atlantic Corridor, influenced by Philadelphia and New York.

l herewith reject.)

and ways has an interesting areal distribution," says William A. Kretzschmar Jr., of the University of Georgia. He carries on the work of the great word geographer Hans Kurath, and serves as editor in chief of the Linguistic Atlas of the Middle and South Atlantic States, "Way occurs in a long band from Richmond, Virginia, through

Washington, D. C., to eastern source of rectitude, the course of Pennsylvania and Philadelphia, to those on the straight and narrow. Our curious expression about speedy action right away exists in Britain as stroight owny.

But what's the basis for right away, which was comed in 1818 as slick right away? (No presidential siur intended.) It's an idiom, which means that its meanings are not predictable from those of its parts, but we can break it down with the help of John Algeo, the neologistician of American Speech quarterly, now doing his research in Wheaton, Illinois:

Right has a long history as an emphasizer: rihht affterr can be found in a document dated 1200, which was soon followed by other intensifiers of time; right in (the dawning of a day) and right now. The temporal use of this adverb for emphasis was transferred to expressions of place: right down, right up, right with you.

4 175

2:35

.

٠.

What about away, in its curious sense of immediacy? An early English translation of the Bible has a line with that sense: "Ye can not beare it awaye," which the Oxford English Dictionary interprets as "forthwith, directly, without hesi-tation or delay; chiefly colloquial in imperative sentences, as Fire away! = proceed at once to fire."

Charles Dickens noticed this as an Americanism on a visit here: Dinner, if you please,' said I to the waiter. 'Right away?' said the waiter. I saw now that 'Right away' and 'Directly' were one and the same

Let Professor Algeo sum up the development of the phrase: "Right away immediately developed in American English by combining a common, ancient, and frequent use of right as an intensifier with a timited, old, and infrequent use of away to mean "immediately" (as also in Fire away!). Right away is now in use throughout the Englishspeaking world, though mainly in s formal language.

That does it; sorry I couldn't get around to this sooner.

New York Times Service

INTERNATIONAL CLASSIFIED Appears on Page 14

64 Taj Mahal site who ... "

also serve.

WEATHER

Forecast for Tuesday through Thursday, as provided by Accu-Weather. Africa Asia Heln will wet middle China such as Shanghai Tuesday into Wednesday. These rains will shift sest to Japan North America Europe 11/62 ps 21/70 16/61 s 22/73
16/61 s 22/73
16/61 s 19/65
5/41 sh 17/62
5/41 sh 17/62
5/41 sh 17/62
5/43 pt 12/65
8/43 1 te/f61
11/52 s 18/64
6/43 pt 13/65
6/43 sh 18/64
6/43 sh 18/65
6/44 sh 18/65
6/44 sh 18/65
6/44 sh 18/65
6/44 sh 18/65 on south to middle France, Switzerland and southern Germany, France through Germany will be sunnier Thursday, Italy will have 1/34 po 11/52 1/34 pc
18/81 s 28/82 17/82 pc
8/46 po 17/82 10/50 pc
11/52 pc 20/83 7/44 sh
10/4 sh 12/53 1/44 sh
12/53 sh 23/73 9485 pc
22/77 po 23/82 21/70 pc
12/53 s 19/86 12/53 pc
14/57 c 28/96 22/77 pc
12/53 pc 21/70 12/53 pc
12/53 pc 21/70 12/53 pc
13/55 s 24/75 13/55 pc
14/57 s 27/80 14/67 pc
14/57 s 27/80 14/67 pc
14/57 s 27/80 14/67 pc Middle East Latin America

ACROSS eagles or tires 5 Poker Flat 10 Price 14 "Now — down . . . 15 Diflies 16 Patron saint of

Solution to Puzzle of April 22

Joseph au Stewart 23 Bog 24 Dutch pai 26 Actor Pete 26 Fleet cats

Regrets"

20 Former

51 Manhandle 53 Fellow crew

42 Soup

63 Glassn

DOWN

CROSSWORD

31 Comic Costello 4 Ball of fire 32 --- incognita s Feted ones 34 Psakns word a Tennis's Agassi

30 Flintstones per a Robert Morse 40 Bit of clowning stage role Subject of a will ingredient 11 in a tenuous

12 Leave hastily 49 End of a tunne 13 1994 film 12 Like Pisa's

22 Sediment 24 Humiliate 57 Have an itch fo 25 Broadway tune Love With Arry

26 Ten----- odds 27 Not with it 61 Sky-hued flower 62 Shoe support 28 Northern Indians 29 Vietnam's capital

30 "Darn it!" 33 Rent out aga trouble 38 One-way

#2 Curse se Hot times on the 46 Owns up to .O New York Times Edited by Will Shorts

$1 Subject to court-martial.

Travel in a world without borders, time zones or language barriers.

Imagine a world where you can call country to country as easily as you can from home. And reach the U.S. directly from over 125 countries. Converse with someone who doesn't speak your . language, since it's translated instantly. Call your clients at 3 a.m. knowing they'll get the message in your voice at a more polite hour. All this is now possible with AT&T1

To use these services, dial the AT&T Access Number of the country you're in and you'll get all the help you need. With these Access Numbers and your ATM Calling Card, international calling has never been easier.

If you don't have an AT&T Calling Card or you'd like more information on AT&T global services, just call us using the convenient Access Numbers on your right,

ADST Access Numbers How to call around the world.

Using the chart below, find the country you are calling from.
 Dial the corresponding ART Access Number.
 An ART English-speaking Operator or voice prompt will ask for the phone number you wish to call or connect you to a

To receive your free wallet card of ARRE's Access Numbers, just dial the access number of the country you're in and ask for Customer Service

- 4-20/2019	The state of the s
Australia	0014-581-011
Chinz.PRC+++	10811
Guam	018-872
Hong Kong	800-1111
Indise	000-117
Indonesis•	401-801-10
Jabau,	0039-111
Kores	009-11
Koresaa	11'
Malaysia*	800-0011
New Zealand	000-911
Philippines*	105-11
Seipen*	235-2872
Singapore	800-0111-111
Sri Lanica	430-430
Taiwan'	0080-10288-0
Thalkinde	0019-991-1111
EU	ROPE
Armenia	8414111
Austria	022-903-011
Belghum*	078-11-0010
Hulgarta	00-1800-0010
Crostis*+	99-38-0011
Czech Rep	00-420-00101
Denmark*	8001-0010
Finland	9800-100-10
Prance	194-0011
Germany	0130-0010
Greece*	00-800-1311
Hongary	00-800-01111
Iceland*	999-001
·	777-001

ASIA/PACIFIC

COUNTRY ACCESS NUMBER COUNTRY ACCESS NUMBER 1-800-550-000 155-00-13 84196 Luxembourg 0-800-0111 0800-890-110 194-0011 06-022-9111 800-190-11 0a010-480-0111 05017-1-288 01-800-4288 155-5042 00-120-00101 900-99-00-11 020-795-611 155-00-11 0500-89-0011 MIDDLE FAST 800-001 0R0-90010 177-180-2727 800-288 426-801 1-800-100 00-800-12277 AMERICAS 001-900-200-1111 0-800-1111 000-8010

007-0315

COUNTRY ACCESS NUMBER 960-11-0010 Costa Rica 114 Boundor 119 El Salvador a 190 190 165 Honduras Mexicoaa 95-800-462-4240 aragus (): 174 191. 156 Urugusy 00-0410 80-011-120 1-800-872-2881 British VI 1-800-872-2881 Cayman isia 1-800-872-2881 Grenada* 1-800-872-2881 001-800-972-2883 Jameica** 0-800-872-2881 001-800-872-2981 St. Kitts/Nevis AFRICA gaype (Catro) 'Sio-0200 904-901

00111 0900-10; 797-797

101-1992